CAP AND BELLS

PRETTY POLL

For a long time the loquacious man in the barber's shop had made comments on the appearance of a parrot standing on a ledge over a mirror, saying it was the worst stuffed bird he had ever seen.

"Look at its legs!" he scoffed. "No parrot ever had legs like that. It couldn't stand on them!"

"Really?" said the parrot, lazily scratching the side of its head.

CAUSE OF LONGEVITY

She—You say your dad is over a hundred year old? To what does he attribute his longevity?

He—He was always a good dodger.

Night Clubbers

The lightning bug said to the owl, "Though I reference we display, we sympathize. At night we glow, and stay awake all day."

Division of Labor

"My friend," said the artist, "this picture here has taken eight years of work."

"Eight years? Why, it's only a small one!"

"Well, it took six hours to paint it and the rest of the time to sell it."—Swindon Advertiser.

Emphatic

She was lecturing on the wrong of poor down-trodden women. Finally she put this question:

"Is there in this hall a single man who has never spoken an unkind word to his wife?"

At once an old man jumped up.

"Yes, I'm that single man," he said, "and I mean to remain so!"

DOUBLE CROSSED

He—What was wrong in putting those two X's at the end of my letter?

She—That's double crossing me.

Onward and Upward

The aviator is so proud, he seeks a lofty form of mirth; he'd rather hit a thunder cloud instead of coming back to earth.

Appearances

"Your daughters have all made charming photographs."

"Yes," answered Mr. Camrox. "I have learned to recognize them by their printed pictures. In order to become better acquainted I think I shall request them to assemble at dinner in their bathing suits."—Washington Star.

Hubby's Advice

Benham—I wish you wouldn't make me pay so much for your complexion.

Mrs. Benham—Why not?

Benham—Do you want people to say that your face is in your husband's name?

Fired!

"It is said of the late Andrew Carnegie—" began the efficiency expert, impressively.

"I won't have this," stormed the self-made boss. "If he was late dis charge him at once!"

Popular Place

"Where is the most popular place to live in this town?" asked the new comer.

"Well," replied the local agent, "I should say, just off hand, beyond one's means. At least that's where most everybody seems to be living."

Got His Ideas Complete

Father—I'm sure our boy did not inherit his silly ideas from me!

Mother (tightly)—No, you've still got yours complete!

Majestic RADIO

Can't Talk With Mars

Radio communication with Mars is considered unlikely, in the opinion of E. O. Hulbert of naval research laboratory, because of atmospheric conditions on the planet and because of certain limitations there, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. The gist of the situation, as he sees it, is that the short waves which we might transmit to penetrate our atmosphere, if they did reach Mars, would probably find no receiver for them, since the Martians, if they have radio sets, very likely have gone in for those using long waves.

After All

Former Senator Owen of Oklahoma was condemning an attack that had been made on a statesman.

"But, after all," said Mr. Owen, "our friend vindicated himself, and so—and so it's like the story.

"I have no sympathy," said a big, husky chap in a smoking car, "with the man who beats his wife."

"A little fellow coughed nervously and said in a shrill little voice: "A man who can beat his wife sir, has no need of sympathy."

GREAT RESULTS FROM COMPOUND

Read How This Medicine Helped This Woman

Brainerd, Minn.—"I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in a newspaper and I have got great results from its tonic action at the Change of Life. Before I took it I was nervous and at times I was too weak to do my household work. I was this way about a year. But now I do all my housework and do chores outside also. I must say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done wonders for me and no woman should be without it. I sure can speak a good word for it."—Mrs. JIM SMITH, R. R. 7, Brainerd, Minnesota.

And Sorry for Himself

"I didn't marry beauty, my boy; I didn't marry wealth or position; I married for sympathy."

"Well, you have mine."
