

FAMILY DOCTOR MADE MILLIONS OF FRIENDS

Fifteen years after his graduation, Dr. Caldwell became famous for a single prescription, which now, after forty years, is still making friends.

Today Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the world's most popular laxative. Millions of people never think of using anything else when they're constipated, headachy, bilious, feverish or weak; when breath is bad, tongue coated, or they're suffering from nausea, gas, or lack of appetite or energy.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is made today according to the original formula, from herbs and other pure ingredients. It is pleasant-tasting; thorough in the most obstinate cases; gently effective for women and children. Above all, it represents a doctor's choice of what is safe for the bowels.

Three Generations Endorse It

"When I was a young single girl I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because my mother did and she gave it to me. After I married I took it before my children were born and afterwards, and I have eight living children. I am now a grand-mother and still take it and still recommend it when any one is tired and run-down."—Mrs. Alfred Iverson, St. Edwards, Nebraska.

Just a Little Smile

OH! IT WAS PITIFUL

Tears were streaming down the cinema actress' face. Reverses had come—she was in a pawnshop. Slowly, silently, she drew from her pocket a little package and laid it down on the counter before the eyes of the hardened pawnbroker.

"How much?" she asked, and wiped her eyes with a tiny handkerchief. She was pawning her six wedding rings.—Tit Bits.

Slicker!
A young lady entered the stationery store and asked for a pound tin of floor wax.
"I'm sorry, miss," said the clerk, "all we carry is sealing wax."
"Don't be silly," she snapped. "I don't want to wax a ceiling!"

THE LATE WIFE

White—Well, after seeing our own movie houses, filling stations and hot dog stands it isn't very impressive.

AN OBEDIENT WIFE

Homebody—Does your wife really obey you?
Peewee—Sometimes. When I say, "Go ahead and never mind me," she always follows that command.

So Set Still
We don't get much
By foolish hurry
And not much more
By foolish worry.

Sea for Her; He Mountains
Wife of Nerve Patient—Doctor, don't you think my husband would be better if we went to the sea or the mountains?
Doctor—Certainly, but you must go to the sea and he to the mountains.—Le Rire, Paris.

Fireman—A little dud out the street sent for us to put out a flaming youth who was calling on his daughter.

An Added Burden
