Notes of Interest to All
Local Denominations

On Wednesday following the Mid-Columbia visitation meeting of the Congregational Churches held in Lexington, Tuesday, the pastors and laymen journeyed to Condon for a similar meeting. Those who attended report a very interesting session and state that the address given by Miss Minnie Tontz, a returned Missionary from Rhodesia, Africa, was itself well worth going to hear. Those who attended from here were Mrs. L. E. Dick, Mr. and Mrs. S. Paul Balsiger, Rev. W. W. Head, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Balsiger, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Thompson and four sons, Mrs. R. E. Harbison, Morgan, and Mr. and Mrs. Kay Beach of Lexington.

From Condon the visitors went to Hood River for the final meeting of the series.

Her Wrong Name

One of the most curious historical mistakes is that of calling Jean of Arc by that name instead of Jeanne d'Arc. No village or place called "Arc" is connected with her.

More Necessary
A French biologist claims to have invented a successful substitute for blood. Now if some one will just come along with a good substitute for brains, he will confer a real blessing.—Springfield Press.

Witchcraft Superstition
The Chinese or American Indians never conducted an organized campaign against witchcraft in any way comparable to that carried on in Europe in the early centuries of the country, but there is ample proof that the Jews from earliest times placed witchcraft under the ban of the law, and among the earliest laws given by Moses is the one "Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live."

The Other Nine
Lists of the ten most interesting men in the world have been compiled. What's your own idea of the other nine.—Boston Transcript.

Leading Surgeons of the world are now advising you to keep your tonsils by having them restored to natural size and functions. Dr. J. Perry Conder has been doing this for 21 years in Morrow County. [Adv.]

Daily Thought
To know one person who is absolutely to be trusted will do more for a man's moral nature—yes, and even his spiritual nature—than all the sermons he ever heard or can hear.—George MacDonald.

Legal Term
The word "bar," in speaking of the law, was originally applied to the rail which separated the court officials from the suitors in court, their advocates and friends. When the case was tried, the suitors presented themselves at the bar, accompanied by their advocates, who addressed the court from that position.

And the best. No other advertising equals a well lighted store or a well lighted shop window.

Compare a well lighted store with a badly lighted store. Which is doing more business?

To prove the advertising value of a well dressed, well lighted shop window, count the number of people who stop before such a window and then compare it with the number of people who stop before a window that is poorly lighted.
