To add to the resources of life—think how much that means! To add to those things that make us more at home in the world, that help guard us against ennui and stagnation; that invest the country with new interest and excitement; that make every walk in the fields or woods an excursion into a land of inexhausted treasures; that make the returning seasons fill us with expectation and delight; that make every rod of ground like the page of a book, in which new and strange things may be read; in short; those things that help keep us fresh and sane and young and make us immune to the strife and fever of the world.—John Burroughs.

THINGS NEW AND OLD

A peanut brittle that is different in the Chinese way of making it.

Chinese Peanut Brittle.—Take one cupful each of brown sugar, corn sirup, and cook until it makes a hard ball in cold water. Then add one-half cupful of puffed rice and one cupful of peanuts. Pour out in a buttered pan and cool.

Sunday Night Sandwich.—Spread rye or graham bread with any soft cheese and sprinkle with chopped black walnut meats. Cottage cheese with cream or any grated rich cheese softened with cream makes a good spread. Cut into rounds with a baking powder can they make most attractive open sandwiches. Sliced stuffed olives make fine garnishment for open sandwiches.

Ginger, Nut Sandwich.—Take one-half cupful of chopped preserved ginger, one-fourth cupful of thick sweet cream and one cupful of chopped English walnuts. Spread the mixture on rounds of buttered bread, using whole wheat or white bread.

Maple sugar, grated, mixed with a little cream and chopped almonds or walnuts, makes a delicious filling for a dainty sandwich to serve at tea.

Fried Egg Sandwich.—This is one which will appeal to the hikers after a cold, brisk walk, or good to serve a skating or skiing party. Cook a thinly sliced onion in bacon fat or butter until a light brown, add an egg and cook until done to taste, season with salt and pepper and place between buttered bread, the bread heated hot. Serve at once.

Fruit Rocks.—Cream two-thirds cup of butter with one cupful of sugar, add two well-beaten eggs, and when well mixed add one and one-half cupfuls of flour which has been sifted with one teaspoonful each of cinnamon and cloves. Add one pound of walnuts, one pound each of raisins and dates. When all are well mixed add a teaspoonful of soda dissolved in one and one-half tablespoonfuls of orange juice. Stir well and drop on buttered tins by half-teaspoonfuls. Bake in a slow oven.

Likable Foods.

A nice dish which the children will enjoy is prepared of seasoned mashed bananas, stirred into cooked rice. Sweeten the bananas and add a little lemon juice to accent the flavor. Serve with cream.

A delicious cinnamon roll which is very popular is prepared as usual, then placed in a baking pan in which the following sirup has been poured: Heat two tablespoonfuls of butter, one-half cupful of brown sugar and one-fourth cupful of water until it forms a sirup. Cool and pour into a baking pan, or cook the sirup in the pan in which the rolls are to be baked, add a half cupful of pecan meats and place the rolls in the sirup. Bake in a moderate oven and turn out and serve bottom side up.

Clover rolls are very attractive. Use any mixture, place small balls of the dough three in each compartment of the gem pan. Make the rolls about the size of a walnut before they rise. When baked they will fill the gem pans.

Rye bread is such a well liked bread that one enjoys making it at home occasionally.

California Rye Bread.—Soak one yeast cake in one-half cupful of lukewarm water to which one teaspoonful of sugar has been added. Let stand about twenty minutes or longer to begin to rise, then add to four cupfuls of rye flour, three cupfuls of buttermilk, two teaspoonfuls of salt, and the softened yeast and stir well. Set away to rise, then add enough wheat flour to make the mixture a little stiffer than ordinary bread. Form into loaves, add a half cupful of cranberry seeds if liked. Brush with sweet fat, let rise until double its bulk and bake one hour in a moderate oven.

Peanut Butter Tea Rolls.—Dissolve one cake of compressed yeast in one-fourth cupful of lukewarm water. Add to one cupful of scalded milk, one-half cupful of peanut butter, three and one-fourth to four cupfuls of flour, one-half cupful of melted butter, one-fourth cupful of sugar, two teaspoonfuls of salt, two beaten eggs and a few gratings of nutmeg. Let rise, shape into rolls, brush with softened butter and let rise until light. Bake fifteen minutes in a hot oven.

Punished for Gluttony

Illustrating the truth of some old adage, a tiny mouse, after eating to capacity of popcorn in a Kennewick (Wash.) electric light and power company office window, ran around the display form for an hour in an agony of fright, in full view of the amused Saturday night crowds. The mouse had eaten so much popcorn that it was unable to make its exit through the tiny hole which it had entered.

Past or Future?

Whether this story is an indication of worship of past style or anticipation of styles possibly just around the corner, is a matter of opinion. It is the source of much amusement for a group of girls. The other day one of the girls told a woman who has never been known to wear a knee-length dress, that her petticoat was showing. Her laconic reply was, "Which one?"

Convicted

The boys in the sheriff's office were commenting on the apparent discrepancy in the statements of many accident witnesses and the subject veered to accidents in general and finally to the hit and run driver. Sheriff Traeger said with a grin:

"Perhaps we could pass a law forcing auto drivers to rub a little printer's ink on their license plates. Then the number would be stamped on the seat of the pedestrian's trousers automatically."—Los Angeles Times.

Many Grandmothers

It is not unusual for a great grandmother to have many daughters, granddaughters, and great-granddaughters; but it is surely very unusual for a baby to have two grandmothers, four great-grandmothers, and one great-grandmother all alive. Yet at Maitly-Champagne, France, there is a baby boy who has all these ancestresses alive and living near him.

SCHOOLGIRLS NEED HEALTH

Daughter of Mrs. Catherine Lamuth
Box 77, Moberk, Michigan

"After my daughter grew into womanhood she began to feel rundown and weak and a friend asked me to get her your medicine. She took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Lydia E. Pinkham's Herb Medicine. Her nerves are better, her appetite is good, she is in good spirits and able to work every day. We recommend the Vegetable Compound to other girls and to their mothers."—Mrs. Catherine Lamuth.

Daughter of Mrs. Eva Wood Howe
1306 South 11. Street, Danville, Ill.

"I praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for what it has done for my fourteen-year-old daughter as well as for me. It has helped her growth and her nerves and she has a good appetite now and sleeps well. She has gone to school every day since beginning the medicine. I will continue to give it to her at regular intervals and will recommend it to other mothers who have daughters with similar troubles."—Mrs. Eva Wood Howe.
