Ah There Winter, Old Chap!

Winter! Ah so cool - so thrilling!
Let me grasp thy icy hand.
Snow so white and peace instilling
Welcome, welcome to our land.
Dusty Summer months have faded
Gone to be recalled no more:
Torrid days that left me jaded,
Memories are that I abhor.
Give me ice and snow a plenty,
Frosted ears and chilled feet
Sub zero stuff, fill 'em or tw n'p,
Winter's rarest sweetest treat.
Give me more and more cold weather
Paint my windows white with frost
Speed thy snow flakes light as feathers,
Lest my wintry joys be lost.
Let thy winds with howling
measures
Beat the whiskers from my chin.
Hurry with these longed for pleasures
Ere the Spring Sweet Spring sets in.
What's the use to growl and hate it?
On such thro's put strictest ban
Its winter time - we've got to take it
Let's enjoy it if we can.

Guy Cason who is employed in a barber shop in The Dingles, came to Friday for a brief visit with his family who are spending the winter on the Lana Padberg ranch on Rhea Creek.

The fruit and bread men from Pendleton were unable to make the return trip Monday and were forced to spend the night in Ione. Although the snow plow had cleared the road, the wind drifted the snow so badly that it was impossible for them to make the trip.

Monday night while the snow plow was clearing roads, it ran into a truck which is used to furnish lights for the night work.

The collision resulted in a broken pipe in the water system on the plow, which made it necessary to suspend work for the night.

are here

And with them comes the need for greater use of electric service.

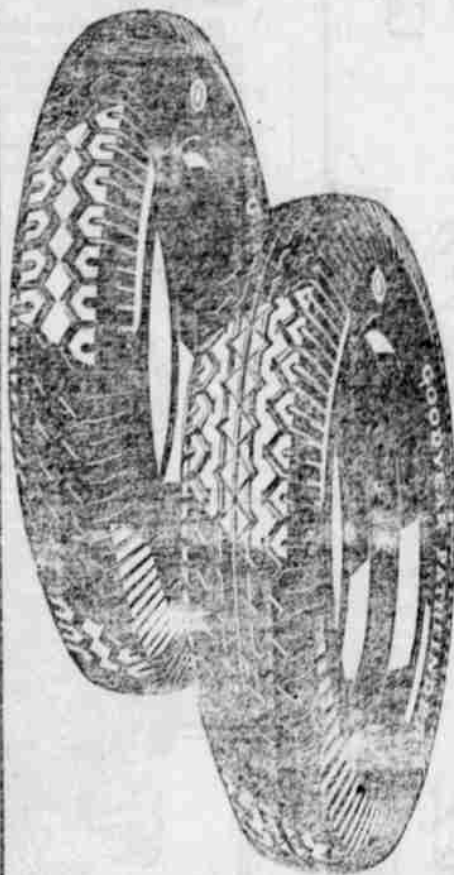

Electricity has erased the gloom of dark, winter days, brightened the long winter evenings and given you many comfortable hours otherwise lost.

These demands for longer service have their effect on your bill for electricity—but the comfort and convenience this added service brings represents no more expense than a visit of the family to the theatre!
