Revival services will begin Sunday evening, Feb. 23, in the Christian church in Ione under the efficient leadership of Rev. C. L. Fesler, former pastor of the church at North Bend, Ore. Rev. IGONE HIGH SCHOOL AT CAMPUS PARLEY

Kenneth Smouse, Earl McCabe, Mildre Smith and Mary Healy, of the Ione High School, were four of the more than seven hundred delegates to have the pleasure of participating at the campus party at the Oregon State College, at Corvallis, Feb. 14-15.

The outstanding addresses of the meeting were by Dr. Alfred Atkinson, president of Montana State College, and Miss Helen Bennett, manager of the Chicago Collegiate Bureau of Occupations. The music was furnished by the Oregon State Band, the girls' Madrigal Glee Club and the boys' Glee Club. While in the College city, our two girls were guests of Miss Jane Carlson at Walden Hall, and the two boys and Peter Earle A. Brown, who accompanied the delegates, enjoyed the generous hospitality of Theta Beta Nu fraternity. The four young folks will give a report of their trip, probably Friday, at the school house.

The Glee Club of the high school has started work on the play, "Deacon Dobbs" which is to be given in the near future.

A Mouse Trap and Radio

"If a man make a better mouse trap than his neighbor the world will make a beaten path to his door."

If any manufacturer could build a radio set, proof against all interfering noises, his would be the only set people would buy.

If any manufacturer of electrical devices could produce trouble-free equipment, the entire market would be his alone.

If any individual or company could overcome all unwelcome, radio noises, the world would shout in acclaim of a genius.

But the combined efforts so far have yet failed to produce answers to the most vexing questions. Time will see them overcome.

In the meantime our company will continue its efforts to provide improved reception for you.
