

John's Mother Praises Doctor

There isn't a mother living who won't agree that no half-wick child should be the subject for an experiment with medicines of uncertain merit.

Rich, fruity California Fig Syrup clears the little stomach and bowels gently, harmlessly and in a hurry.

But nothing of these thoughts showed in Ginger's piquant face when she greeted the members of the household at breakfast on Monday morning.

Ginger clasped his arm. Quick tears burned in her eyes. 'Darling,' she whispered. 'But it is not altogether for the sake of the unpleasant and the unforeseen.'

'You'd better switch to the first person,' he interrupted kindly. 'You're getting in pretty deep.'

'Father, you're—you— Why, father, the less we have the more we get ready to spend.'

'He can't be blind forever,' she assured her own heart stoutly. 'He simply cannot. He is too good, and too young, and too very, very dear.'

'Why, Ginger,' she ejaculated, 'who in the world are you writing to? There are sixteen letters for you. Sixteen—'

'I'm not mistaken, father. I know this man-business as far as I can see. I'm not so dumb. Besides—'

'Pay Dirt, I'll tell the world,' she cried. 'Why it beats Sunday collections all to pieces. And besides, that has to be divided with the poor and the church and foreign missions—'

'College! College? Marjory? And with us retired on pension?'

All Ginger's hottest arguments could not shake her father's determination. The small matter of his own vision must wait upon the education of the twins.

'Oh, you needn't worry about that,' argued Ginger. 'Methodist ministers may not always be crazy about their wives, but they don't divorce them. They wouldn't dare.'

At the conclusion of a banquet given in his honor on the occasion of a visit to Poland, says an article translated from L'Europe Nouvelle.

that the first thing for him to do was to become strong and robust, and to live at peace with all the world.

Miriam, greatly to their surprise, evinced no real enthusiasm for college—Miriam, the student, the win of judgment.

In this emergency, Mr. Tolliver departed from the established rule of the house, and arranged for a charge account at Joplin Westbury's dry-goods store.

Already they were registered at Iowa Wesleyan. Already arrangements had been made for them to live at Hershey hall, giving service in return for their accommodations.

Mr. Tolliver and Miriam were back in the parsonage now, a sunburned, ruddy pair, with vigor in their steps, and with appetites that boded ill for the overtaxed store of dimes.

'Call out your brass band,' he cried, with laughter in his voice. 'I have a truly romantic figure lined up for you.'

'So did the can grocer. It seems it takes all kinds to make New York. Well, his father pays enough income tax to buy the whole state of Iowa.'

'No. He is not what I'd call an Adonis, but he is in good health. He played halfback at college.'

In spite of her own best judgment, in spite of the many pitfalls she had found to await the unwary pursuer of romance and riches, Ginger's heart warmed to the chase.

'Oh, Eddy,' said Ginger anxiously, 'I wish we could get rid of Miriam. She's so likely to say something smart just at the wrong minute.'

HOW TO LIVE LONGER

Tinkering

THERE are some automobile owners who are forever pulling their machines apart and putting them together again.

This tinkering business is bad enough for motor cars, but it is vastly worse for human bodies.

Yet, in spite of this well-known fact, it is positively remarkable how many tinkers there are in the United States today.

It is not at all surprising that with so many of these people around that at least 4 per cent (and this is a very conservative estimate) of those who visit doctors have nothing whatsoever wrong with them.

If people would only realize that to self-diagnose a real or supposed case of disease and then swallow a self-administered dose from a beautifully labeled bottle, represents about the worst type of tinkering on earth.

If for any reason, however, you conclude that you are ill, don't brood over it. Seek advice. If the physician pronounces you sound, let that be that.

'Breaking' the Kitchen A FAVORITE sport of the two weeks' vacation sojourner is to attempt to "break" the hotel kitchen.

Admittedly, eating can be raised to the status of a high-class pleasure. But there is no "class" at all in turning this natural body function into a low sport.

And what is true of these dining room indiscretionists also applies to others who, while temperate at the hotel, commit a similar crime by stuffing themselves and their children between meals with all sorts of edibles and drinkables.

Most certainly one does not want to be disciplined too much when on the annual pilgrimage. And there really is no need for it.

Nature's Long Process in Slate Production Slate, so geologists tell us, was originally sediment deposited on the ocean bed or lake floor by tidal currents and mountain stream.

Here, then, is the raw material for an ideal roofing. Being close-grained natural rock it is fireproof, water-proof and so nearly weatherproof that the phrase "eternal rock" is a common synonym for everlasting.

No more characteristic was needed to change that sedimentary rock into slate. So nature again applied tremendous pressure and produced cleavage.

ONE PRESCRIPTION MADE FAMILY DOCTOR FAMOUS

Seldom has any single act been of greater benefit to mankind than that of Dr. Caldwell in 1885, when he wrote the prescription which has carried his fame to the four corners of the earth.

Over and over, Dr. Caldwell wrote the prescription as he found men, women and children suffering from those common symptoms of constipation, such as coated tongue, bad breath, headaches, gas, nausea, biliousness, no energy, lack of appetite, and similar things.

Demand for this prescription grew so fast, because of the pleasant, quick way it relieved such symptoms of constipation, that by 1888 Dr. Caldwell was forced to have it put up ready for use.

Looks Young, Feels Fine Eight years ago before my last baby was born, I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I got such good results that I named her Catherine Lydia. I have six older children and five grandchildren, too. I am 44, but people tell me I look much younger. I am now taking the Vegetable Compound again because of my age. I eat and sleep better and I do all my housework, and my washing. I will do my best to answer letters.—Mrs. H. Dolhonde, 6318 York St., New Orleans, Louisiana.
