MRS. C. BATTERSBY SURPRISED

A surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Battersby, Saturday evening at their home in honor of Mrs. Battersby's birthday. Those who enjoyed the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Battersby, Mr. and Mrs. John Bryson and son Francis, Mr. and Mrs. Le-Howell and daughters, Sybil and Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Blair Blackwell, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Shipley, Mrs. Frank Eggelmar and Mrs. Rupy O. Roberts.

George Ritchie, Jr. and Gen. Grabill motored to Portland, Sunday for a brief visit.

Mrs. Maude Farris' Beauty Shop opened for work this week. The shop has been closed for some time because of the illness of the proprietress.

George Ritchie was calling on old friends in Ione, on Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

Star Brand shoes at Bristow Johnson's.

Mr. R. F. Wigglesworth of Blackhorse and Mrs. Glen Engle and small son of Baker, spent one day last week with Mrs. Elmer Griffith.

Personal Mention

There will be a baseball game on the local field, Sunday, between the Ione town team and the Cayuse Indians of the Blue Mountain League. Sixty per cent of the gate receipts goes to the winning team.

There will be a dance in the old rink, Saturday night, for the benefit of the home baseball team. Lots of peppy music by Knouse's Billikins.

Mrs. Sarah Jenks, mother of Mrs. Dell Ward, died Sunday morning at her home near Monument and funeral services were Monday afternoon. Interment was at Monument. Mrs. Jenks was ill only about a week, death being caused by pneumonia. Mrs. Ward went to Monument last week to help in the care of her mother and was with her when death came.

Mrs. Bert Mason and Mrs. Roy Lieuallen drove to Monument, Monday to attend the funeral services held at that place for Mrs. Sarah Jenks. The party expected to return home the same day but had car trouble near Condon and was forced to spend the night there.

Our high school baseball team will journey to Condon, Friday, for their first league game. Last Sunday on the home field they played a practice game with the town team.

Reserved seat tickets for "Deacon Dubbs", the play to be given at the school auditorium, April 11, are now on sale at Bullard's Pharmacy.

Mothers Protect Your Children with Plenty of Butter

Butter not only contains an almost 100 per cent digestible fat, but also an abundance of the Vitamin A so necessary for normal growth in children. A liberal amount of butter in the daily food prevents the dreaded eye disease, xerophthalmia.

Miss Linea Troedson

Miss Linea Troedson, who is teaching this year in the Echo high school has been re-employed for the same position next year.

Katherine the four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Turner, has been very ill with pneumonia. The little girl has been cared for in the Heppner hospital and the mother has been there with her to assist in her care. While Mrs. Turner was away, her mother, Mrs. C. A. Stickles, of Seattle, has been looking after the home here.
