Ione Loses To Arlington

Ione Hi School nine played good ball on the Ione field last Friday but luck was against them and they lost 15 to 3. Arlington staged a rally in almost every inning and they gained a good score from the start which Ione could not overcome. Ione goes to Arlington next Friday. We beat them for the championship last year. Why can't we do it this year?

HARRY FLETCHER DIES

Word has been received of the death of Harry Fletcher, Thursday April 10, in a hospital at Ione Falls. Death came following an operation for cancer from which Mr. Fletcher had suffered for many months. The remains were shipped to Decatur, Illinois, where it was made beside his mother and father. The deceased is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ida Fletcher of Ione, and by two sons and five daughters namely: Loyd and Raymond Fletcher and Mrs. Blaine Blackwell of Ione, Mrs. Oliver Hague Wood of Lexington, Mrs. C. J. Calandra of Hood River, Mrs. Carl Calkins of McMinnville and Miss Rosa Fletcher of Hoquiam Wash.

"ROTATION BILLING"

The new "Rotation Billing" plan of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company is now in effect according to D. J. Batchler, manager for the company, customers in Ione, whose new billing date is the 11th of the month, are receiving their first bills under the new plan this week. Bills dated the 11th should be received by the 15th of the month.

Full details of the new plan are contained in announcements accompanying the present bills.

"Lard Butter" is the only spread for your hard earned daily bread."

The services in the Christian Church were well attended. The members and friends of the Hopner Church of Christ made it possible for us to have this interesting meeting. Milton W. Bower delivered the message. There was serious music and a live song service.

Upton Swanson departed Friday for Aberdeen, Wash. where he is on a business trip.

Mrs. J. E. Callahan of Hood River arrived on Thursday of last week in Ione as a guest in the home of her sister Mrs. B. B. Blackwell.
