NUMBER 46

John F Haynie Passes

April 12, Mrs. Walter Corley received notice of the critical illness of her father, John F. Haynie at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Rex Smith, at Vader, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Corley and little daughter, Marianne, motored as soon as possible to Vader, but Mr. Haynie had passed away before they arrived. On Thursday, April 17, funeral services were held at Winlock where the deceased had many friends. Short services were held also at Forest Grove, Oregon, where interment was made. Mr. Haynie is survived by seven daughters and three sons. His wife died six years ago. Mr. Haynie was well known here, having visited often with his daughter, Mrs. Corley, and with Mrs. Randall, another daughter who formerly lived in Ione.

While Mrs. Corley was in Portland, she found upon consulting a physician, that an operation was necessary. She submitted to the operation, remained in the hospital for a short time and is now at home recovering nicely. Miss Crystal Sparks is assisting Mrs. Walter Corley during the time she is unable to do her home work.

The Ione section was visited by abundant rains the latter part of last week and on Sunday of this week. Those who have visited the wheat fields report that the wheat is looking fine. Monday's sky was clear and every one had a good view of the partial eclipse of the sun.

E. G. Sperry has about twelve hundred acres which is deserving of special mention. Those who have seen the field state that it gives promise of splendid yield.

Mrs. Barbara Ritchie Ill

On Saturday, Mrs. Oscar Cochran and Fred Ritchie received notice of the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. Barbara Ritchie, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ida Cochran, in Portland. Mrs. Cochran and Mr. Ritchie motored at once to Portland to be with their mother, making the trip with Mr. and Mrs. Warfield. Mrs. Barbara Ritchie is a pioneer resident of Ione coming here with her husband from Virginia. A few months ago she went to Portland to live with her daughters, Mrs. Ida Cochran and Mrs. Earl Miller. Mrs. Oscar Cochran and Fred Ritchie returned, Sunday evening, from Portland leaving their mother slightly improved in health.

all gained such a decided victory over the Ione team. The final score was 12 to 5. Next Sunday Arlington will play at Ione.

E. J. Bristow and son Walter, Tom Grabill and Francis Ely, drove to Baker, Friday. They enjoyed a pleasant over Saturday visit at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Bristow and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wright, and came home, Sunday, bringing Mrs. E. J. Bristow with them.

Walter Swazy who has been herding sheep for Harlan McCurdy for the past year or more has gone to Montana where he was summoned as a witness in a lawsuit.

Mrs. E. G. Sperry is enjoying a visit with her aunt, Miss A. W. Niblin of Portland.

Mrs. Katie Petteys is very ill at her home on Willow Creek.

Mrs. Petteys was taken to the Heppner hospital the first of last week but remained there only a short time. She is now at her home, being cared for by her daughters.

Personal Mention

A. C. Ford, wife and son of Pandleton, were over Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Ford's brother, Blain Blackwell.

Carl Barlow has finished his work at the Moore farm camp near Heppner, and he and his wife were visiting Monday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Lee Howell. Russel Miller is also no longer in the employ of Mr. Moore. Both of these men had horses on the works.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schivoight ranchers from the Morgan district were calling on Mrs. Rosa Jackson, Monday.

County Commissioner, George A. Blaskanman, was in Ione, Monday, transacting business and greeting friends.
