Tree Freak

Howard L. Cox, of Tulare, Calif., has discovered a phenomenon of nature in a locust tree in the Tulare city park. Growing out of the tree is an almond sapling. The shoot apparently was started by an almond being tossed into the crotch of the tree and the seed later taking root. The sapling is about eight feet above need an anti-acid. Keep their systems sweet with Phillips Milk of Magnesia!

When tongue or breath tells of acid condition—correct it with a spoonful of Phillips. Most men and women have been comforted by this universal sweetener-more mothers should invoke its aid for their calldren. It is a pleasant thing to take, yet neutralizes more acid than the harsher things too often employed for the purpose, No household should be without it,

Phillips is the genuine, prescriptional product physicians endorse for general use; the name is important. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. registered trade mark of the Charles H. Phillips Chemical Co. and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.

A manufacturer of motor-car accessories was engaging a factory superintendent.

"There's just one thing more," he said to the applicant, who appeared to be satisfactory. "Could you run a house organ in connection with your other work?"

"House organ?" said the man, with a puzzled expression, "What's the need of music in a factory?"

Man Cables Shakespeare

A cablegram for William Shakespeare awaits him at the office of Miss A. Justins, the mayor of Stratford-on-Avon, the bard's birthplace. It was sent by a Toronto, Ontario, man, and is addressed "William Shakespeare, care of the Mayor," and states that the sender had seen the film of "The Taming of the Shrew," and that he wished to know how much money Shakespeare wants for the rights of any plays he has written or any he might be writing in
