The Fraternities

At the close of the regular meeting of Bunchgrass Rebekah Lodge last Thursday evening a party was given honoring Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Brown and son Winsie, who are leaving this week for their new home in Pixley California. Mr. and Mrs. Brown have taken an active part in social and fraternal affairs and will be greatly missed.

FARMER'S FIELD DAY

A farmers field day and picnic is being sponsored by the Willows Grange for Sunday, June 1st, beginning at 10:00 o'clock A. M. at the Hynd Brothers ranch, two miles north of Cecil. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

The program for the day is to leave the Hynds Brothers ranch at 10:00 and drive to the Dwight Misener home ranch where a large field of fall sown wheat which was seeded with a deep furrow drill will be examined. A trip will then be made through the wheat country north of Ione to see weeder and power farming operations.

A picnic dinner will be enjoyed by all present at 12:30 in the Hynds Brothers yard in the shade of the big trees. Coffee, hamburger, potatoes and brown gravy will be cooked on new gas ranges which will be demonstrated by the dealers.

IONE DEFEATS HEPPNER

Coach Poulson and his proteges motored to Ione Tuesday and tasted defeat at the hands of the Ione Hi nine. Heppner started out well in the first inning and scored one run. In the next inning Gentry walked three men. He then settled right down to pitching and struck out the next two batters. Eubanks was the next Ione batter. He hit a good double to right field, scoring three runners. Ione took the lead at that point which Heppner was never able to overcome. The final score was 5-1. Francis Ely pitched for Ione. He deserves special mention for his large number of strikeouts. That was the last game of the high school this season. Harry Ripley umpired while Larry Ritchie umpired bases.

Star Brand shoes at Bristow & Johnson's

A pleasant school picnic was held, Sunday, at the Grant Olden ranch on Rhea Creek. Two schools joined in the festivities. — The Social Rsdge school of which Mrs. Anna Heiney was teacher and the Lower Shea Creek school of which Miss Anna McDewitt was teacher. Dinner was served at noon and the afternoon was spent in playing games. Those attending from Ione were: E. J. Bristow and daughter, Lucile, Mr and Mrs. Joe Howell and two daughters, Earl and Jessie McCabe and Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCabe.

Mrs. George Frank who was missing for a few weeks with the work at the Adventist school at Hermiston returned to her home in Ione last week. She was accompanied by her daughter, Hazel, who has completed a successful year's work in the church school. Ed Keller returned to Ione. Friday to cast his vote.

ITEMS

Final examinations were held the first week in high school. There were nine exemptions deserving of mention. The following students were taking four studies and were exempt from examination in all four: Gladys Brashers, Mary Healy, Elwayne Lieualten, Beulah Pettyjohn, Geneva Pettyjohn, Kenneth Smouse and Norman Swanson. Barton Clark was carrying five studies and was exempt in four of them. Virgil Esteb is the honor pupil, carrying five studies and being exempt from examination in all.

Orla L. Brown, brother of Principal Earl A. Brown of this place has been hired as teacher in the upper grades of the Boardman school for the year 1930-31. Mr. Brown is a former pupil of the Ione school and has completed his high school course here, where he has graduated with the class of '21.
