WILLOWS GRANGE NEWS

On Saturday night about fifty members of Willows Grange attended the Gilliam-Wheeler Pomona meeting held in Arlington.

Every one appreciated the hospitality of Mikkelo Grange who proved themselves royal hosts.

Willows Grange degree team exemplified the work of the fifth degree. In the evening at the school gymnasium and initiated twenty five candidates. Officers in charge of the ceremony were Master, O. L. Lundell; overseer Mildred Hynd; lecturer, Mrs. O. L. Lundell; chaplain, Dwight Misner; L. A. S., Mildred Morgan; T. S. Harry Peterson; steward, Elmer Peterson; secretary, Josephine Buschke; treasurer, Floyd Morgan; Flora, Elna Gibson; Pomona, Bertha Cool, Ceres, Helen Buscke, C. K. Johnny Eubanks.

The drill team was composed of Mildred Morgan, Harry Peterson, Veda Eubanks, Geneva Pettyjohn, Benlah Pettyjohn, Mabel Cool, Gladys Brashers, Harriet Heliker, Margaret Crawford, Elmer Peterson, Harlan Lundell, Lloyd Morgan, Elmer Nygaard, William Cool, Donald Heliker, Walter Gibson and John Eubank.

Willows Grange sponsored a field meet at the C. H. Hynd Home on Sunday, with about 400 persons in attendance. Grangers, farmers and friends from town.

Tractor farming was demonstrated, also several gas ranges were in use as well as on display.

A trip to the Dwight Misner farm near Ione proved a very interesting feature. Various sports in the blue grass pasture made the older folks young again and the younger folks of much importance, especially the winners.

A bounteous dinner spread on long tables on the lawn was the biggest attraction at the noon hour when pies, cakes, salads, mashed potatoes, brown gravy, hamburger and coffee, vied with each other for supremacy. Many thanks are due to Mr. and Mrs. Hynd and County Agent Smith for the success of the meet.

CHILD CLINIC

Please bear in mind the date of the child's clinic to be held in Ione Monday, June 9. The clinic will be held in the school building and will begin promptly at 9 o'clock in the morning. Mothers are requested to bring a bag to put their baby's clothing in, while the examination is being made, and also a towel to wrap the child in while waiting for the examination. Children from six months to two years of age, as well as those who will enter school for the first time this fall will be given physical examinations.

IONE GIRL HONORED AT STATE COLLEGE

Hazel Feldman of Ione, junior in Pharmacy at Oregon State College, has been elected into Phi Kappa Phi, national all college scholastic honor fraternity.

Phi Kappa Phi corresponds to Phi Beta Kappa in a liberal arts college, but is open to students in technical curricula, as well as arts and sciences. The purpose of Phi Kappa Phi is to emphasize scholarship among college students, and to stimulate mental achievements by honor of selection to membership. The primary qualifications for membership are 90 average for junior and 89 average for seniors.

Miss Feldman is a member of Kappa Delta sorority, the Pharmaceutical Association, and Women's Athletic Association.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Linger and daughter, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Colvin, of Eugene were visiting in Ione, Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

Mrs. Cleo Drake went to Portland the first of last week to visit her husband who was receiving treatment in a hospital in the city. She found him so much improved that he was able to return home with her.

C. M. Daniels and his mother, Mrs. Verona Daniels, were guests one night last week in the Henry Smouse home. They were returning from a most delightful auto trip to points in and near Boise, Idaho, and from here Mr. Daniels went to Portland while Mrs. Daniels stopped over for a visit at Hood River and White Salmon. Later they will visit at various points in Washington, spending the last of the Summer at the home at Elkton.

Charley Hudson is here looking after his farming interests in this locality. Mr. Hudson has extensive land holdings both here and in the state of Montana.

Bob Buchanan is on Butter Creek, assisting his grandfather Grant Buchanan, in the harvesting of the first cutting of alfalfa.

Hay harvest will start in this locality next week.

Peterson brothers shipped three car loads of horses and two cars of cattle during the month of May.

Fred McMurray and Peterson Brothers shipped a car of cattle to Portland Saturday night. Fred McMurray and Hazel Ledbetter drove down to suprintend the sale of the stock.

DECORATION DAY

Decoration Day was very quiet in Ione, there being no special services. The morning sun shone upon the flags which the Legion had placed in the cemetery over the graves of the departed soldiers. All day long the friends and relatives were making the pilgrimage to the hill, placing flowers on the graves in loving remembrance. Our one remaining Civil War veteran, C. A. Low, was able to go to the cemetery this year. For the past two years he had been unable to go. Several of our people spent the day out of town and some visited nearby cemeteries.

Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Robison spent Memorial Day at Maryhill, Washington where they were the guests of Mr. Robison's brother, Iawin Robison.

Mrs. R. R. Her, of The Dalles, has been the guest in the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. E. McFarrin who resides in the Louy apartments on Main Street. Mrs. Her and the McFarrin family spent Memorial Day in Heppner.

Mrs. Ralph Kiser and son from Maupin were Decoration Day visitors in Ione.

Our town team journeyed to Condon for the Decoration Day baseball game. They met defeat by a 12-1 score. Fans who attended the game were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howk, Cole Smith and Mrs. Mary Johnson.

A B. Monroe and wife have moved into Mrs. John Louy's home on second street recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Ned Carr. Mr. and Mrs. Monroe have lived in Ione for some time making their home with Mr. and Mrs. Larson on Main Street.
