Willows Grange

The "Byrd Program" presented at Grange, Saturday night, was enjoyed by those present. A talk, "The Silent Lady" by Velma Sharrard and a paper, "Richard Byrd's Trip to the South Pole" by Vida Heliker, were especially interesting.

A song by Donald Heliker was very appropriate, the words having been written for the occasion by our Worthy Overseer Sister Heliker.

A musical number much enjoyed was a piano duet by Mildred and Harold Finnell of Portland.

By vote of the Grange, there will be no meeting, Saturday evening, August 9. A Grange picnic will be held at the Krebs home on Sunday, August 10th. Everybody bring well filled lunch baskets and enjoy the potluck dinner and sports. A short business meeting will be called in the late afternoon.

HARVEST PROGRESS

The cutting of the second crop of alfalfa is now under way in this part of the valley. A few of the wheat farmers have finished harvest and more will have finished by the end of the week.

Earl Murray will finish next week and the family will return to their home in Walla Walla. He reports his wheat making between 18 and twenty bushels. Louis Borjevin has been harvesting some making twenty-two and one half bushels and it is reported that Roy Lieuallen has a field yielding twenty four bushels to the acre.

WOODPILE FIRE

John Louy came near losing a couple of cords of wood by fire one day last week. Mr. Louy had burned off the short grass where he wanted his wood piled and had afterwards thoroughly soaked the ground with water. The wood was later delivered and one evening, more than a week after the grass had been burned off, smoke was discovered rolling out of the woodpile. The fire was put out before any damage was done. It is thought that sawdust on the ground had held the fire all those days.

MISSIONARY MEETING

The next missionary meeting of the Congregational Church will be held Thursday afternoon, August 7, in the church parlor. Mrs. Kitty Turner will be the leader, and subjects to be studied are our project in China and the work being done by Miss Grace Brak. Everyone is invited to attend.
