Rule of Life

What must I do to all that con cerns me, and what do people think. This rule, equally arduous in actual as in ideal life, may serve for the whole distinction between greatness and commonness.
It is the hard rule because you will always find those who think they know what is your duty better than you know it.—Emerson.

JOB PRINT

EVERLY HILLS, Cal.—Well all I know is just what I read in the scan dal sheets, and what I hold a elbise over as I prow lither and you.

Well Sir I must tell you more about that mining town of "Bodie," Cal. It was one of the fa mous mining camps of later days, but had been practically desert ed for years, but with the demand for gold here lately there was a revival of the famous old place. Harry Carr, one of the best newspaper men on this or any other coast, had been up there writing wonderful stories of what it meant to a mining town to be convalescing, and about to reach good health again. He claimed the thing was running almost as wide open as one of our big cities, that the gam bling and drinking was in a small way on a comparison with New York or Los Angeles.

Well in my times (I am talking like one of the early Pioneers), I have seen some of the boys foolishly, and at times otherwise, lay a small wager on the outcome of what later would be apparent as a hazardous game.
And in passing by I had peeped in under swinging doors and there would be men sipping various nectars. Well Mrs. Rogers and I were just out prow ling around. We were working on spoiling a fine old classic, and had been taking a great part of the scenes on the original site where the play was laid, at Lake Tahoe. Mr. Henry King, our Director, had told me that he had seen just about all of my face that he desired for exterior photo graphic purposes, and that if I wanted I could head for home, and as they had a few more days work without me I needn't be in any hurry to get to home. Well that was right up my alley. I bet a lot of you like this too.

We went down through all the old early 49 camps, Sutter Creek, Angels Camp, in Calaveras, that's the exact home of Mark Twain's jumping frog, and really the story that did more to make Twain than any other one thing he ever did. They have a Frog Rodeo there every year, Frog Singing, Frog Jumping, and wind up by eating all the frogs that had contested, and everybody wind up with a Frog in their throat. Then Brete Hart was there and all his stories are around in that country. Jackson, one of the early ones, I had made two pictures there previously, and hadn't been back for ten years.

Then to Senora, another old timer, but which held on fine, and is today a real little town. Then over Senora pass. Scenery Oh Boy what views.
But its getting late we must get to Bodie. Its away over near the Nevada line in the sage brush desert.
My wife was afraid to go, she had read Carrs articles and she was look ing for whooping, shooting, and gam boling. Well the poor Devils the night before, just twenty four hours to correct time announcement, why the Pro-His, had raided the place, broke all the booze in 13 saloons, put 15 men under 1500 hundred dollar bonds, and you should have seen the place this night. Our car was the only thing moving in the town. Indignation meetings consisted of two and three huddled in front of what had been a saloon door. It was still lighted up, but sashparilla was their diet. It was a real surprise raid. The mines hadn't opened that day, for they had had no maintenance for 24 hours and couldn't work. I talked with them, but it was almost like speaking over the body of a fallen comrade. Their voice was not only reverent but parched. They couldn't understand why they out of 120 million people should be discrimi nated against. Why should they be the only example of Prohibition? They felt that their work demanded as much or more liquid fortitude as is allowed tollers on Wall street. They estimated in low tones the amount of Bootleggers that these officers must have passed in their trip away out in this desert, from San Francisco where they had come. It will always remain in my memory as the deddest town I ever saw.

We used to have a rule that our government wouldn't recognize any new government that had come into power by force and revolution. Then somebody that had accidentally read our history hap pened to ask,
"Well, how did our government come in power?" So now we recognize 'em no matter who they shot to get in.
Yesterday we took in Argentina, Bolivia and Peru. All you have to promise is that you will buy something from us, even if it's only guns for the next revolution.
If Russia will just shove, and buy some tractors, we will recognize them.
There is no such thing as a thief any more, as long as he can pay his way.
