Lexington News

Miss AMABELLE STRODTMAN

Pract on the Senior Class play, "Oh Kay" is proceeding nicely and it is expected that the play will be given Nov. 14 in the High School Auditorium.

Miss Ewin Ingles departed on Sunday to Portland for a short stay with her mother Mrs. S. F. Inderbitzen. Mrs. Ingles was accompanied as far as The Dalles by her husband.

The annual returned party of the Freshman was held in the Lexington gym on Friday evening. After all of the students were assembled a taffy pull was enjoyed. A number of exciting games were played, after which delightful refreshments were served.

At assembly Friday morning the English 2 Class delighted the students with a ski taken from the play "Cinderella". It was so enjoyed by the faculty that it will be presented at the P. T. A.

Personal Mention

Mrs. Glenn Ball of Morgan is slowly improving following a serious illness. Mrs. J. W. Christ of heron is assisting with the work at the Ball home.

Mrs. Charley Botts was called to Yakima Monday by the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Jack Griffin. Mrs. Botts was accompanied on her journey by her son Bert and her young daughter, Ida.

BAWARE OF LAST NINUTE CANARDS

Heppner, Oregon Oct. 27, 1930 Editor Ione Independent, Ione, Oregon.

Dear Brothe Head:

Election is now only a few days off and as usual there is a lot of last minute propaganda coming out, too late for those attacked to have time to refute the charges and defend themselves.

This is only the methods of crook and scoundrels and the people should be warned not to be influenced by this still of electing but to remember that if these charges could be verified they would not have been held back till the last week of the campaign.

Regardless of who it hits I hope the next issue of the Independent will carry such warning.

As ever your friend and always for fair play,

Yours Truly,

LEON W BRIGGS

LEXINGTON DEFATS IONE AT LEXINGTON

The game played at Lexington, Friday, Oct. 24, resulted in a victory for Lexington. The teams played quite evenly for the first quarter. In the second quarter, Lexington completed a forward pass which resulted in a touchdown; they failed to convert. In the third quarter Lexington fumbled a punt deep in their own territory. Ione recovered the ball. It was bucked over for a touchdown by Eubanks. Ione converted by a pass from Mc Cabe to Eubanks, making the score 7-6 in favor of Ione. In the 4th quarter Lexington blocked Ione's punt and recovered it back of Ione's goal line. They converted a place kick by Lane making the score of 13-7.
