IONE, OREGON FRIDAY, Dec. 12, 1930.

NUMBER 30

Women's Topic Club

Ruth Rietmann, Sec.

The Womens Topic Club met December the sixth at the home of Mrs. Omer Rietmann. American Artists was the subject discussed. Mrs. Inez Freeland gave a discussion of Maxfield Parrish. Mrs. Henry Smouse discussed Norman Rockwell and Mrs. Earl Blake gave a paper on Howard Chandler Christy. Mrs. Gorgor gave a reading. The following officers were elected: Vera Reitmann, president; Margaret Blake vice president; Ruth Reitmann, Secretary-treasury The children's Christmas party and pot-luck supper will be December 20 at Ruth Reitmann's.

The following citizens of this district were summoned to the County seat Monday for jury duty: Edgar Ball, Paul Balsiger, Mr. Zinter, Leonard Carlson, Fred Griffin, Bert Johnson, Bert Palmateer and Elmer Ball. Elmer Ball was excused from service.

EVERSON HOME BURNS

The Frank Everson home was destroyed by fire early Sunday morning. The fire started from the kitchen stove and when discovered by Mrs. Everson and the children was well underway. The washing machine, radio, some bedding and furniture were saved. The loss is partly covered by insurance. Mr. Everson who is drilling wheat for Emil Swanson, was not at home at the time of the fire. About a year and a half ago the Everson family had their home destroyed by fire and since that time they have been living in the house on the farm owned by Mrs. Everson's mother, Mrs. Jennie Nolan, deceased, at present they are living in Mrs. John Louy's house on Second street, Ione.

Personal Mention

M. R. Morgan and daughter, Mrs. Albert Nelson, were called into Washington the first of last week by the serious illness of Mr. Morgan's son, Ira Morgan. Mr. Morgan returned home Sunday, but Mrs. Nelson remained with her brother, Ira Morgan and family live at Leavenworth, Washington but the patient is in a hospital at Wenatchee, where he has undergone a Major operation. There is little hope for his recovery.

TURNER RE-UNION

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Turner was the scene of a gay family party last Friday evening when the children gathered at home to help Mrs. E. H. Turner celebrate her 60th birthday. Mrs. Turner suffered a stroke of paralysis some time ago but was able to sit up and blow out the candles on her birthday cake. There were 60 candles on the cake, one candle for every year. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lindstrom, Lee H. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond N. Turner and children Raymond Jr. and Catherine.

Mrs. Lee Turner and daughter were confined to their home by illness.

ASSEMBLY MEET

The Friday assembly met in the gymnasium and was pleasingly entertained by a miscellaneous program. The first and second grade pupils of Miss Knight's room presented an excellent play "The First Thanksgiving." The pupils participating were appropriately costumed and made a colorful picture as they danced and feasted. The school band played three numbers which received hearty applause.

BAPTIST CHURCH SERVICES

Rev. C. W. Cutler of Hermiston is holding services at the Baptist each Sunday evening. Services begin at 7:30 o'clock. Every one is invited to come and hear him.

The Baptist Ladies Aid Society will hold a food and fancywork sale on Saturday Dec. 13 at Bristow & Johnson store.

To Preserve Old Prints

Since old prints of flowers, birds and personages are now so popular for framing, it is also worth while to take suitable modern pictures or prints, perhaps from magazines, and antique them with a light coating of liquid wax. This treatment will give them a mellow, old tone and will preserve them. The pictures should be placed firmly to a flat surface before the wax is applied. Simply framed, they will look charming on the walls of a room.

STUDENT BODY FEETED BY JUNIOR CLASS

Friday evening, Dec. 5th a party was given to the entire high school and faculty.

When the guests arrived at 7:30 the building was yet unlighted due to the failure of the electric light system and the scarcity of gasoline and kerosene lamps in Ione, but in short time several lamps were procured and the party proceeded merrily. After a variety of games had been played including "Bingo" "Virginia Reel" and others, delicious refreshment of cake, sandwiches and jello were served in the Domestic Science room. An attempt of several of the towns boys to steal the refreshments was frustrated by Mr. Riggs. Many Seniors and Freshmen expressed the opinion that it was the best party given in the gymnasium for a long time.

BAZAAR AND DINNER

The Congregational bazaar and 6 o'clock dinner was well patronized and a goodly sum was added to the treasury. It was a merry crowd that gathered around the tables and good fellowship prevailed throughout the evening. The room was gay with decorations of red and white and sprigs of holly. Even the fact that Ione was without electricity, Friday afternoon and night did not detract from the success of the affair. The beautiful holly was the gift of Mrs. W. E. Bullard of Gold Beach.

SAYS WILL ROGERS

BEVERLY HILLS.—Well all I know is just what I read in the Papers. There is some pretty big stuff in the papers nowadays, but it's kinder under cover. Did you ever kinder stop to figure it out, this old World of ours as a whole is not sitting so pretty just at the present time. Did you know that there is an awful lot of parts of Europe that is just sitting on what the old time Orator used to call a Powder Keg? Well it is.

We can't pick up a paper that from one to a hundred don't prophesy that Prosperity is just around the corner. But let me tell you that war is nearer around the corner than prosperity is. I don't mean so much for us right here. But I mean over in Europe. That Russia is kicking up an awful lot of dust, and Germany is harboring a terrible lot of dissatisfaction, that Hitler has got em all stirred up over there. He made a speech last week in which he advocated the breaking of the Versailles Treaty. He said that it was made by a lot of old men, who most of them were about ready to die, and now here was a lot of young men grown up and they had to carry all this burden, for which they were not directly to blame, and that it was only a matter of time till they just wouldn't do it, they would say, "Well come on France, what are you going to do about it? We can't be any worse off if you come in and take over our Country than we are now."

Then these little Balkan Nations, they are like a little mess of stray Terriers anyhow, they just as well be fighting as like they are. This has been about the longest they have ever been between wars. I see the other day where Russia was just on the verge of invading Roumania. They have always had it in for them and figured they only had to take a couple of days rations and rounds of ammunition and go over and take that Country anyhow.

Russia and Poland are always on the verge of war. I remember when I was over in both countries in the summer of 26, why they were growling at each other like a couple of Fat Prima Donnas on the same Opera bill.

Austria, they just been so bad off since the last war that they know there would be no way that war wouldn't be welcome to them. Bulgaria has started all the rest of them, her and Serbia, and they don't want to lose their reputations, they want to go down in history as having started all the big ones.

Uncle Eben

"I believe in de Bible," said Uncle Eben, "an' I refuse to quarrel about it, because one of de best things it says is 'Blessed is de peacemaker.'"—Washington Star.

Then Italy is ranting around down there trying to pick up some more country and outlet for their population. France is watching them with an Eagle eye all the time, and that's just what Mussolini wants, he had rather worry France than anything. France feels that she would have no trouble whipping them, but if she went down there to do it, Germany would take that opportunity and get at them and she just don't want to go to take the chance. Then the Czechs and Slovaks feel kinda hemmed in by their way, and of course the Poles, there is nothing that irks a Turk so much as peace.

Lots of very smart men think that is one of de biggest contributing factors to our present state of economic unrest, is that all big finance is afraid of what will happen in the near future, and they don't know where it will end up. That's why everybody is hanging on to what they got. There is more in the wind than just our little local condition over here. We got as much as we ever had, there is just as much money, as many to eat, and as many to feed, as many to buy. But still our conditions are uncertain. Why? Just because its thing outside our own land that is worrying em. They know that signs are not right all over the World. Look at South America. When during our lifetime has there been as many disturbances at one time? No Sir the whole thing is world wide, we are affected by it less than anyone.

If we keep our nose clean and don't start yapping about somebody else's honor, or what our moral obligations are, we might escape it. But its going to take better State-manship than we have been favored with heretofore. But the way we are now we are mighty lucky to have nothing but a little business depression that is bothering us. But think what those other poor Devils are up against.

I don't know whether my old friend, Knute Rockne, and Notre Dame are going to win the world's championship again this Fall or not, but he deserves it if they don't win another game. For, they are the only big team in the United States that starts playing tough teams right from the jump. These others play Rotary clubs and business colleges till about Thanksgiving, then have one tough game. Knute thinks if you got a football team, it ought to be a football team from the Fourth of July to Xmas.
