

Ione Independent

VOLUME XXIV

IONE, OREGON FRIDAY, Jan. 9, 1931.

NUMBER 34

THE RED AND WHITE

OFFICIAL ORGAN OF IONE H. S. STUDENT BODY

Ralph Thompson, Editor

Vol. 1

Friday, Jan. 9, 1931.

No. 14

Church Surprises Superintendent.

The members of the Vally Church in Gooseberry gave their superintendents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Peterson, a very pleasant surprise after Sunday school on Sunday, January 4th. The self invited guests followed Mr. and Mrs. Peterson to their home taking a long with them their dinner consisting of sandwiches, chicken pie, salads ice cream and coffee. Thirty-five members were present. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Peterson and their children there were present, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peterson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker and children, Mr. and Leonard Carlson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Algott Lundell and children, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bergstrom and children, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Ball and children, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Doby and Wilma. All enjoyed a pleasant afternoon.

Mrs. Fred Ritchie returned home the first of last week from Portland where she had been for medical treatment. Mr. Ritchie met her in Arlington.

Janet Carlson who is a junior at O. S. C. is spending the holiday vacation with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Emil Carlson, on Eight, Mile.

M. Frederickson, wife and daughter, Jean, were over night guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harris the first of last week.

STUDENT BODY MEETING

A student body meeting was held Mon. Jan. 5, that being the first Monday of the month, the date set for these meetings. President McCabe presided and as there was no business to be brought up the meeting adjourned after the secretary-tr a u e report.

Personal Mention

The new year was ushered in by sunshine, which was indeed welcome, after our many days of fog and gloom. This section also recently received a beneficial rain.

School opened Monday with all of the teachers back at their desks after pleasant vacations spent at their various homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mason and son Junior spent the New Year vacation time with Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Dick at Pomeroy, Wash. Mrs. Mason's mother, Mrs. Adelia Godfrey accompanied them to Walla Walla where she spent the time with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Delzell.

Linea Troedson of the high school faculty of Echo spent the holidays with home folks.

JUNIOR CLASS MEETING

A meeting of the Junior class was held Wednesday, Jan. 7, at 12:30 to make arrangements for cashy sales at basket-ball games.

SEMESTER EXAMS NEXT WEEK

Semester examinations will play a major part next week in giving the students something to think about. To be exempt from these exams one must have an average grade of 2 in a subject or subjects and have no unexcused absences and also must have satisfactory grades in department.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS DEFEAT TOWN GIRLS

The Ione High School girls defeated the Ione Town Team Tuesday night by a score of 32-10. The game was fast but many fouls were made by both teams. Miss Enmons, the high school coach, refereed the game.

Harold Kincaid a student at the Oregon Institute of Technology, spent Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Kincaid, at the ranch home south west of Ione.

The Fraternities

JOINT INSTALLATION

Joint installation of the Odd Fellow and Rebekah officers was held in Odd Fellows hall, Saturday evening, January 3. In the hands of the following officers representing the government of the lodges.

- I. O. F. Officer Rebekah R. Lundell P. N. G. Amy Sperry W. McDonald N. G. Elv. Beeley L. Clark V. C. M. Forbes L. Howell R. S. Lena Lundell John Louy F. S.
- Ed Bristow Treas. Etta Bristow C. Battersby Ward Ada Troe W. Mathews Cond. Harriet Brown F. Lundell I. G. Edith Ely E. Lundell O. G. Oda Raukin G. Ely R. S. N. G. V. Heliker T. Troge L. S. N. G. L. B. Bristow J. Clark R. S. V. G. E. Howell O. Grabill L. S. V. G. F. Engelman W. Clark R. S. S.

Musician Ruby Roberts The installing officers were: Ted Troge, Grand Master; Lucile

Continued on Pg. 4

HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI

The graduating class of 1916 numbered five, - one girl and four boys. L. A. Doak was principal Goldie S. Oops became the wife of Homer Frank. They are living at Kennewick, Washington. They are the parents of two fine children, a boy and a girl.

Meaf Blake attended school at the University of Oregon after he finished at Ione. He won his letter as a member of the football team of that institution. He is an employee of the Pacific Steam Ship Company at Portland. His wife was formerly Miss Mary Gray, a Portland girl.

Jesse Dobyms continued his studies at the University of Oregon and during the war was a member of the S. A. T. C. of the U. of O. He married Alta Mason of Freewater. They are the parents of a daughter and now reside at Olympia, Washington where Mr. Dobyms is employed in a service station.

David Rietmann took up farming immediately after his graduation and has followed that occupation ever since. He makes his home with his mother, Margaret Rietmann, on the farm just north of Ione.

George Zink lives in Portland and is a city mail carrier. He is married.

In 1917, with A. L. Doak again at the helm, one boy and three girls finished the high school course. Frank Stoops became a farmer. He is now at Richland, Washington, farming in company with his father;

Catherine Jones graduated from Oregon State College and then took up the work of teaching, holding a position at Chalis, Idaho. This work, however, she did not follow long. She accepted a position with the daily Oregonian, Portland, and for several years has been head of the fashion department of that well known publication. Her voice is often heard over KGW.

Etta Barlow became the wife of Lee Howell. They have a pleasant home in Ione and Mr. Howell is manager for the Tum-A-Lum Lumber Company at this place.

Continued in Pg. 4

City Hall Briefs

The regular council meeting was held Tuesday night and at this time the new officers were sworn in. The personnel of the city's administration is: - Mayor, John Louy; recorder, W. W. Had; Treasurer, Grace Linn; Hold over councilman, Paul Balsiger; Council member, J. H. Bryson, E. R. Lundell, Lee Howell, T. C. Troge and T. E. Peterson.

Principal George E. Tucker is in attendance this week at the Oregon State Teachers Convention in Portland.

The members of the Odd Fellow and Rebekah Lodges will hold joint installation Saturday evening in Odd Fellow Hall.

The American Legion are sponsoring a "Hard Times" dance which will be held in Ione New Years eve.

Mrs. Gus Jones of Heppner is spending a few days in Ione, the guest of Mrs. George E. Tucker.

NEW BOOKLET HAS INTERESTING DATA

THE 1931 BELL SYSTEM ALMANAC

The 1931 Telephone Almanac of the Bell System, a booklet containing interesting and unusual facts about the telephone in addition to many other informative items, is now ready for distribution, according to the local manager of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company.

The Telephone Almanac, which is an annual publication, is circulated throughout the country and is read with interest by hundreds of thousands of persons each year. Free copies may be obtained at the telephone office.

Lexington News

Miss AMABEL ESTRODTMAN

Miss Elsie Tucker departed Friday evening for Manmouth, Ore. where she will continue her studies in the normal school. Miss Tucker has secured a position as teacher for the coming year at Pleasant Point.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bull returned home the first of the week after spending the Christmas holidays in Spokane.

Mr. A. L. Hunt has been confined at home with an attack of flu.

The high school girls won a hard fought basket-ball game from the town team girls on Friday in the local gym. The game was very close throughout but when the final whistle blew the score stood 13-12. During the last quarter of the game LaVerne White, star forward, received a badly but eye. The glasses which she was wearing were broken in some unknown manner and the pieces of glass were responsible for the five gashes.

The Lexington town team boys won a decided victory over Arlington on the same evening by a 34-14 score. During the first quarter Arlington was in the lead by a number of points but when the three high school graduates of 1930 Wayne McMillan, Edward Burchell and Vernon Warner, were placed on the floor the score took on an entirely different change. Burchell was high point man for the team.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hackett returned the last of the week from Portland, where they spent a two weeks vacation.

While driving to Heppner on Saturday morning the car of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Breshears skidded on the highway and was forced over a small bank. One of the wheels of the car was badly damaged but neither of the occupants were injured.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Sperry and two daughters were dinner guests Christmas Day at the Walter Cochran home in Arlington.

Farmers Week

Featuring Dr. Hess Products

Read your 1931 Catalogue

Pan-A-Min

Ver-Mi-Trol

Chick Tablets

Roup Remedy

Dip & Disinfectant

Louse Killer

Stock Tonic

Fly Chaser

BERT MASON

IONE - OREGON

PARSNIPS

Big, tender Parsnips, at the WINDSOR RANCH

1/2 mile down the highway, below the elevator. While they last, three cents a pound at the ranch.

Leave Work for the Heppner cleaners at the

IONE BARBER SHOP

I. R. ROBISON

ALL KINDS OF HIGH GRADE MACHINE WORK CAREFULLY DONE.

Motors reground. Bearings poured and fitted to reground shafts.

MACHINE SHOP

Now is the time to look your spring machinery over. You may need some extras for your plows and harrows.

WE HANDLE THE JOHN DEERE LINE

Don't forget our Red & White special. Each Saturday and Monday they will save you money

Bristow & Johnson

SHIP YOUR CREAM

TO

MORROW CO. CREAMERY CO.

Thirteen Years on the Job. We Are the Cause of Your Getting

BETTER PRICES

Morrow Co. Creamery Co.

W. C. Cox, Manager.

AMBULANCE SERVICE

FOR COMFORTABLE, SPEEDY AMBULANCE, DAY OR NIGHT, TELEPHONE 1332

Phelps Funeral Home

DAY AND NIGHT PHONE 1332 CUT FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS