ODDFELLOWS ATTEND JOINT INSTALLATION

Thirty seven members of the Ione Odd Fellows and Rebekah Lodges attended joint installation of Willow Lodge No. 66 and Sanson Lodge No. 33 at Heppner, on Wednesday evening, Jan. 7. All those in attendance from here have words of praise for the delightful way in which they were entertained by the neighboring lodges.

AMERICAN LEGION HOLD BIG RALLY AT DONDON

A delegation of eleven members of the Ione American Legion attended a get-together meeting of that organization last Thursday evening at Condon. Those making the trip were: John Faris, Blain Blackwell, John Grabill, Arthur Turner, Hank Adams, W. Corly, Charly Lane, Lish Sperry, Lee Beckner, Willsam Hayes and Elmer Cochran. State Commander Jack Biggs of Hermiston was present and made the principal talk of the evening. Hallie Burton of Hermiston was also present. The district conference of the American Legion will be held Feb. 2 in Arlington.

Comes Under Headline, "Awkward, Quite Awkward"

This particular family had a fondness for sandwiches in hot weather, and at all times their table offered a light menu, even when guests were invited. Consequently, when a friend took her young sister for dinner there one night, she warned her ahead of time that the plates would be very pretty, and she would probably see quite a bit of china where a light, tasty salad nestled in the center of the dish. For those with light appetites that night's dinner was just the thing, only sister wasn't that kind of a girl. She ate the salad which opened the meal, then the fruit cup which followed, supposedly representing the main dishes. A brother of the host, noticing her rather hungry look, remarked that perhaps the food wasn't all it should be for a growing girl. Meanwhile sister was being polite, and even leaving a bit of each dish as etiquette demanded and replied, "Oh, no. I'm just saving room for the rest of the meal."—Springfield Union.

HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI

Mr. Quigley. They made their home in Vancouver, Wash. Mrs. Quigley died a few years after her marriage, leaving to mourn her loss her husband and a beautiful daughter on y a few months old.

Mable Wilcox took up millinery work after completing her high school work. She married Clyde Denny. At present Mr. and Mrs. Denny, in company with Mrs. Denny's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wilcox, are farming extensively near Ione.

Genevieve Henkle taught in the rural schools for several years. Later she took a business course in a Portland school and the last we were able to learn was doing office work in Portland and making her home with her parents.

Farra Read went to O. S. C. four years graduating from the school of Pharmacy. He then spent four years in the Oregon Medical School at Portland. After he graduated in Portland he went to San Diego, Cal. for a year's work in the Naval Hospital. Mr. Read then enlisted in the navy as a doctor with the rank of Lieutenant. Over two years ago he was sent to China, being stationed at Shanghai. A few days before Christmas he returned to the United States, docking at Seattle, but will remain in the Service. Before leaving for China Mr. Read married Miss Katherine Farr of Portland and the two made the trip to the Orient together.

MOVING SEASON KEEPS TELEPHONE MEN BUSY

123,000 Telephone Changes in New York—Less Than Last Year's Figures

The general consensus that business conditions would keep the people of Greater New York in their places this fall was found to be not entirely correct. The New York Telephone Company's records show that telephone moves on or about October 1 this year ran only 3,300 behind the number of telephones changed during a comparable period of fall moving last year.

This general shifting of residences is one of the busiest times for telephone installers. During the month of September of this year more than 123,000 orders involving telephone moves were carried out in New York City, and many of the men employed in the telephone company's plant department spent their evenings and their week-ends, as well as their days, "on the move." To meet this "rush" condition, the company concentrates its forces at this time of the year in the residential districts, where it seems fashionable to move in the fall.

Says WILL ROGERS

BEVERLY HILLS.—Well all I know is just what I read in the papers. I was just sitting reading a very beautiful Horse Magazine called, "Polo." It is the issue that tells of the great International Match play and American and it gives the very detail of each play, and also tells of the sale of the horses after the match. You know I was just thinking it might be interesting to some of you to know something especially about the horses, for you don't have to be a Polo Nat to be interested in good horses.

There was $225,000 worth of horses sold at public auction after the games. The British sold 48 head for $183,400. The Americans 26 head for $73,000 and the Australians 25 head for $77,600. The British averaged pretty near $4,000 a horse. The Americans only about $2,000 and the Australians $3,000. White Slave, an English bred mare played by the English, brought $12,000. Bucks, that was the top price, bought by Laddie Sandford. Lady Luck, another English one, owned and played by Lewis Lacey, the great Argentine and English Player, brought $10,000, and an Australian mare, Isabel, $10,000. Course lots of them brought $1,500, and a thousand, but even at that price you are sitting on quite an expensive hunk of horseflesh. And you can't always tell the ones you give the more for may not turn out to be the best. The reason the Americans didn't bring as much was the fact that most of the best horses played by the American team was privately owned and was not put up for sale at all. The ones sold were just the ones that were owned by the Polo Association.

The games are pulled off under the management of the U. S. Polo Association. They guarantee the British team their transportation and expenses and all which is taken out of the Gate receipts, and this year the Association had themselves bought up quite a string of Ponies for our team. Heretofore they had depended entirely on the generosity of other players loaning their best horses to the big team, but this year they bought some themselves, and sold them after the games. Of course some individuals sold their horses. Charley Wrightman a fine young Sportsman and member of our Clubs out here on the coast was good enough to mount Eric Pedley, the sensation of the games, and a fellow Coast Player. Eric had gone back there to try out a time or two before in International matches, but he never had a proper chance for he wasn't properly mounted, but this time Charley sent back twenty head just for Eric to play through the test matches on.

You know a horse is really from 60 to 70 per cent of the game. That's about the ratio the Experts figure it. If you can't beat a man to the ball why there is no use going. Its speed, and more speed that counts with those big League fellows. Us Punks can leap around and have a lot of fun on a pack of old Hounds, but if we was among those fast fellows we would get run over.

Most of the Horses that make those big games are Thoroughbreds, or three quarters so. An awful lot of them are bred and raised on western ranches.

and lots of them have run cattle. Polo had not only been a recreation or hobby of a lot of rich people, but its been a God-send to the Horse business. It has done more to establish the breeding of good horses than even races have. Now it is a big business, and here is dozens of men just prowling all over the west buying likely "prospects" for Polo. The game is growing so fast and the demand for horses so great that its a real business now.

All the Colleges have taken up Polo now, and thats a great boost for it, and this thing of it costing all this money is a lot of Hooney. You can buy three or four old fifty dollar crow hats and have as much fun with the game as Jock Whitney, or Laddie Sandford, who each have perhaps a quarter to a half million just in their Polo Strings alone. That half million to them is just like us buying an extra bowl of Chili. The boy on the sand lot gets just as big a kick out of a home run as Babe Ruth, and the Dub Polo Player on a hired horse gets just as much kick out of making a goal as Hitchcock.

Its a great game, and it learns you to ride quicker than anything on earth for when you start hitting at the ball you forget about how you are going to stay on, you just do it unconsciously. Age dont keep you from playing it. Arthur Brisbane's Father in law, Steward Carey, he is in his seventys. Plays twice a week at Meadowbrook. I was 51 Saturday, and played Sunday. (after coming from Sunday School I didn't play good, but I had as much and missing, as the others did hitting. I am going to play till my whiskers get tangled up in the horses tail.

Beautiful Prayer

Robert Louis Stevenson was the author of the prayer beginning "When the day returns." The complete prayer is: "When the day returns, return to us, our sun and comfort, and with morning hearts—eager to labor—eager to be happy, if happiness shall be our portion—and if the day shall be marked for sorrow, strong to endure it."

Personal Mention

John Pughes recently returned from Psecolet, Wash., where he enjoyed a visit with the Arthur family, who were former residents of this section.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Blake and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mankin and Betty Jean were Pendleton visitors, Saturday. While there they visited briefly with Mrs. Blake's aunt, Mrs. Ed Keller. On the return trip they were accompanied by Mrs. Frank Engelmann who had been speeding a few days in the city.
