Large Newspaper Collection

What is said to be the largest collection of newspapers in the world has been opened to the public in a newspaper museum at Aix-la-Chapelle, Germany. Among its collection of 150,000 newspapers are curiosities from all over the world, including an Eskimo paper from the middle of last century.

Remarkable "Cures"

Among the curious "cures" found in an investigation in England of treatments for asthma were swallowing a large lump of honey on retiring to bed, a spoonful of olive oil every night after dinner and a spoonful of black treacle after the midday meal, and two rhubarb pills every night.
