

A SENSE OF DUTY pursues us ever. It is omnipresent, like the deity. If we take to ourselves the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, duty performed or duty violated is still with us, for our happiness or our misery.
Daniel Webster

THE CHAMBERED NAUTILUS

Build thee more stately mansions, O my soul,
As the swift seasons roll!
Leave thy low vulgar past!
Let each temple, nobler than the last,
Shut thee from heaven with a dome
more vault,
Till thou at length art free,
Leaving thine outgrown shell by life,
unresting sea!

— Oliver Wendell Holmes

IONE HIGH SCHOOL
ALUMNI NEWS

1925. She became the wife of Wrex Hicock, a McMinnville boy. Mr. and Mrs. Hicock now make their home in Portland. Walter Linn was a student for a while at O. S. C. For the past seven years he has been employed in the mills at Verona, at present holding the position of lumber grader. His wife was formerly Miss Edna Carrick—a Verona girl. Tom Davidson graduated from O. S. C. and the next year following his graduation returned to the College for some additional work. He was a successful high school teacher and coach at Madras and Ione. He is now doing research work for the American Gas Association and is located at Cleveland, Ohio. He recently received a promotion. Mr. Davidson married Thelma Morgan who was a senior in the school here at the time of her marriage. The young couple made the trip back to Cleveland by auto. They visited in Ione last summer when they were called home by the death of Mr. Davidson's father. Last fall Mr. and Mrs. Davidson made a delightful trip to Niagara Falls. E. R. Curfman was serving his second year as principal at this time.

E. R. Curfman was serving his third year as principal of Ione school in 1922, and at this time eight completed the course. Vera Engelman was bookkeeper at the Bert Mason store prior to her marriage to Victor Reitmann of the class of '15. Mr. and Mrs. Reitmann are successful farmers of the north of Ione district and the proud parents of two fine boys, Bobby and Billy Joe. Ted Blake had one year's study at the University of Oregon. He is now farming in company with his father in the Eight Mile country. Keithly Blake married Ruth Rogers, a Eugene girl. Mr. and Mrs. Blake are the parents of a little daughter, Betty Belle. They reside in Klamath Falls, but answer to the harvest call each year and return to Morrow county to help in the wheat harvest. Arline Balsiger is now Mrs. Paul Koehring and her home is in Indianapolis, Indiana. Before her Koehring and her home is in Indianapolis, Indiana. Before her marriage she attended school at Willamette University and at the University of Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Koehring have two children, a boy named Alfred and a girl named Paula. Alice Rietmann married Victor Peterson and they make their home in Ione where Mr. Peterson is in business. Mrs. Peterson was a student at O. S. C. for a year, later holding a position as assistant cashier in the bank at Ione, and still later a position as bookkeeper in the First National Bank at Heppner. Mabel Smith, following her high school graduation, fitted herself for a teacher, a work she has followed since. At present she is primary teacher in the school at Mapleton, Oregon. Jack Howard is also following the profession of teaching. He taught last year in the Balm Forks school near Heppner. Sam Warfield married Eunice Cochran of the class of '25. They are located at La Crosse, Washington, where Mr. Warfield holds a responsible position in a warehouse. They are the parents of a fine boy, Charles Wayne.

FREE MOVING PICTURES

Miss Lucy Case of O. S. C. is to show new films, Friday evening, May 1, in the school auditorium. These films are in the interest of 4-H Club work in Oregon and will undoubtedly be well worth seeing. No admission is charged at this show and quite a crowd should be attracted to take in this entertainment.

T. B. CONTEST WINNERS

The two T. B. essays selected to represent Ione High School at the county contest were written on "Conquering the Foe of Youth" were written by Virgil Esteb and Norman Swanson. In the process of elimination to select the winners, the following points were considered: adherence to the subject, "Conquering the Foe of Youth", statements must be true to scientific fact and, lastly, the quality of the work.

Senior Play

The date set for the Senior Student body play, "The Cat" has been changed from May 15 to May 14 for the sake of convenience. Following is the play cast: Quincy Sumner II, who is proud of his name, Norman Swanson,

IONE vs Condon

The Condon High School Baseball team was defeated by the quite decisive score of 14-2 on the Ione field, April 24. This game like that with Lexington was only seven innings in duration due to the one sided score. No substitutions were made for either team.

The line up: Francis Ely, p; Norman Everson, c; Norman Swanson, 1st. Ordie Farrens, 2nd; Dorr Mason, ss; Edwayne Liegallen, 3d; Earl McCabe, rf; Joel Engelman, mf; Norton Lundell, left field.

No home runs were made by either side but Ione made a few three baggers.

The next game to be played is with Arlington. The one following is with Condon and the last game is with Arlington, here, on May 22.

Child Health Day

Saturday May the 2nd will be observed as Child Health Day in Heppner. Principal George E. Tucker is training the Grade boys boys for the track meet. Preceding the meeting will be a health parade in which Ione will have a part.

Band Concert

The Ione School Band will give an open air concert on Mother's Day at 7 o'clock in the evening.

The man who hath no music in his soul nor is not moved by concord of sweet sounds is fit for reasons, stratagems and spoils.
