YOUNG-BOTTEMILLER NUPTIAL RITES

Marriage Solemnized In Bottemiller Home

Charlotte Bottemiller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bottemiller, and Walton Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Young of Eight Mile, were married at the home of the bride's parents in Gilliam County, Saturday, May 2, at high noon, Rev. W. W. Head, pastor of the Congregational Church at Ione officiating. Only relatives were present to witness the ceremony. Rev. Head read the short but impressive ring service. The bride was attended by her sister; the groom's man was Mr. Ordie Farrans of Ione.

The home was beautiful with a profusion of flowers. Immediately after the ceremony dinner was served. The young couple will reside on the home ranch while Mr. and Mrs. Bottemiller will make home in Portland. Besides the bride's relatives there were also present Mrs. Willard Farrans and Clinton Jackson of Ione, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bauernfeind of Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Young, of Eight Mile and Mrs. Ernest Farrans and two daughters of Yakima.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Botts have received news of the death of their son-in-law, Charley Collins. Mr. Collins, age 30 years, died Wednesday, April 29. His death was caused by pneumonia after an illness of only three days. On April 15 Mr. Collins was transferred from his home in Oklahoma, to Dallas, Texas. He was taken suddenly ill and before Mrs. Collins could reach him he had passed away. Two weeks from the day he left Oklahoma, his body was shipped back to Covington for burial. A gentleman friend who accompanied him on the trip died at the same time from the same cause and the bodies were shipped back together.

The Collins's have been living in Oklahoma for the past two years. Prior to that time they made their home in Ione where Mr. Collins had employment with John Bryson. They have many friends here. Bert Botts left on Monday for Oklahoma and will return to Ione with his sister, making the trip by auto.

Mother's Day

Sunday evening Jalmer Koski arrived in Ione, having motored over from his home in South Bend, Wash. He plans on returning the latter part of the week and will be accompanied by Mrs. Newton and Mrs. Koski, who have been spending some time in Ione.

Elmer Peterson and wife of Portland were week-end guests at the home of Mr. Peterson's mother, Mrs. Ida Peterson.

The Baccalaureate service for the Senior Class of 1931 will be held in the Congregational church on Sunday evening, May 10. Rev. Stanley Moore of Heppner will address the class.

Graduating exercises will be held in the school auditorium on Thursday evening, May 15.

Lexington News

Miss Amabel Strodman

The annual Junior-Senior Banquet was held at the Claud White home on Thursday evening last. The Juniors, numbering eight, assisted by Mrs. White, prepared and served a most delightful dinner, consisting of three courses. Kenneth Warner acted as toast master and the singing responses were made by Neva Warner and Miss Helen Falconer. Following the banquet the students made merry with music and dancing. Those present were: Seniors; Neva Warner, Faye Gray, Vera Breese, James Valentine, Ellis Mayer, Maurice Reaney, Emmet Kuner, Harold Pick, Archie Munkers, Oslow Martin; Juniors; Keneith Warner, Laurel Rhule, Llewellyn Evans, Lena Blahm, Naomi McMillan, Ruth Luttrell, Helen Dolery, Laverne White, Miss Helen Falconer, Miss Alice Montgomery, A. C. Becholdt and Prin and Mrs. E. Ingles represented the faculty.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Warner accompanied by Miss Helen Falconer, were business visitors in Pendleton on Saturday.

Mrs. S. S. Strodman is in receipt of a nicely gotten up invitation from the P. T. A. (Lincoln Chapter, Arkansas City, Kansas) to attend a farewell party in honor of one of the old time school buildings of that city. This building where Mrs. Strodman taught school for a number of years is to be replaced by a modern structure. Arkansas City is a thriving town of 20,000 population situated in southern Kansas not far from the Oklahoma state line.
