PRETTY HOME WEDDING RUSSELL-FELDMAN

Miss Hazel Orral Feldman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Feldman, and Mr. Emil R. Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph F. Russell of Key West, Florida, were married Monday morning, June 8, at the pleasant ranch home of the bride's parents, Rev. W. W. Head, pastor of the Congregational church at Ione, read the marriage service at ten o'clock, and immediately afterward the wedding breakfast was served.

The bride wore her traveling suit of black and white silk. Her flowers were sweet peas, pansies and baby breath. She was attended by her sister, Miss Kathryn Feldman, who also wore a suit of black and white. The bridegroom's attendant was Mr. Neil Shuriman of Heppner. Shortly after the wedding breakfast, the bridal party by auto for Corvallis. Here they visited for a day and then proceeded on their journey over the Rosey-It highway to Los Angeles where they will make their home. The best wishes of a host of friends go with them.

Mrs. Russell is a graduate of the high school at San Jose, California. She attended Benke-Walker Business College, Portland, for one term and is a graduate of the school of pharmacy of the Oregon State College, Corvallis. She is a member of Kappa Delta Delta sorority, and an active worker in Teminias and O. E. S. While at O. S. C. she was elected to Rho Chi, honorary in pharmacy and to Phi Kappa Phi, most desired honor society in the college. For the past eleven months she has held a position in a pharmacy in Sheridan, Montana.

Mr. Russell is a graduate of the University of Florida and also holds a higher degree from Oregon State College. It was while

BIRTH ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. George Frank was given a happy surprise Wednesday afternoon, June 3, when several of her friends came to remind her that another year had rolled around and it was again her birthday anniversary. The little party was planned and carried out by her four daughters who proved themselves to be kindly hostesses. Conversation, games and music made the afternoon pass quickly. Delicious refreshments consisting of sandwiches, fruit salad, cake and punch were served by the four daughters, Mrs. Lloyd King, Mrs. Robert Helms, Mrs. Henry Rowell and Miss Hazel Frank.

Mrs. Frank was the recipient of many beautiful presents. Guests present were Mrs. Sam Hatch and daughter Barbara Ann, Mrs. M. R. Morgan, Mrs. Paul Balsiger, Mrs. Walter Eubanks, Mrs. Leonard Larson and daughter, Shirley, Mrs. Ray Robinson, Miss Myriam Hale, Mrs. Laxton Mc Murray, and Mrs. Franks six grand children, Loretta and Iris King, Billy and Hazel May Helms, and David and Edith May Rowel.

OLD FIDDLER CONTEST

Cecil hall was the scene of a jolly gathering Saturday night when Willow grangers held their old time fiddler's contest. There were five contestants; Harry Peterson, Oliver Kincaide, Harry Yarnell, Emmet Botts and Oscar Lundell. Oscar Lundell and Emmet Botts tied for first place in the first performance, and were forced to play again, with the result that Emmet Botts was given first place and Oscar Lundell second. The judges were Mr. Spaulding and Mayor Montague of Arlington, Lee Howell, Gladys Drake and Linea Troedson of Ione. Following the contest an old time dance was enjoyed and supper was served. A capacity house was in attendance.

4-H Club Picnic

People from far and near gathered at the H. E. Cool ranch on Willow Creek for the 4-H Club picnic, Sunday. It is estimated that 200 people were in attendance. A very interesting program was carried out and the day was altogether a happy one. The children were served with ice cream, a gift from Sheriff Bauman of Heppner. Mr. Wood, master of the Olex range extended to the friends here to attend the Olex 4-H club picnic to be held on Rock Creek next Sunday.

Masons Entertain Stars

The Masonic brothers entertained the ladies of the Eastern Star, and other invited guests, Wednesday evening, June 3. The gentlemen were genial hosts and the evening was indeed a pleasant one. Strawberries, icecream and cake were served. This is an annual affair.
