The Stockholders of the Jordan Elevator Company held their annual meeting at the Rhea Creek school house, Saturday afternoon.

The following director were elected: Laxton McMurray, Henry Smouse, French Burroughs, A. A. McCabe and Oscar Peterson.

Last week the Farmers Elevator Company of Ione held its annual meeting. Eric Bergstrom was elected to serve as director for a term of three years and Leonard Carlson for a term two years.

W. E. Bullard and son Ellsworth and daughter Eleanor of Gold Beach are calling on old friends in Ione this week. Mr. Bullard is also looking after business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Keithly Blake of Klamath Falls are here for the harvest season. They are living in the Mrs. John Louy house on Second Street.

Clifford McCabe who has been staying with an aunt and attending school at Mossy Rock, Washington, for the past year, returned to the home of his parents in last week. He was accompanied by his cousin, Miss Lois Anderson, who plans spending the summer here.

Mrs. Sam Hatch and Mrs. Fred Man'kin, motored to Pendleton and Stanfield, Friday. At Stanfield they were dinner guests of their friend, Mrs. Fred Painter.

Our Ball team journeyed to Rufus, Sunday for a game with the Rufus-Ballock team. Ione lost the game, the score being 4-5. Next Sunday Ione will play Condon on the home diamond.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Morgan and their son Milton, Norton Lundell and Dorr Mason motored to Portland on Thursday of last week to attend the Rose Festival and visit relatives. While in the city they were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Williamson. They also visited daiefly Daisy Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Williamson and Oscar Williamson, who now reside at St Johns. The Margans returned driving a new car. Dorr Mason remained for the Citizen's Training at Vancouver. This is Dorr's second year at the Traing Camp.
