RAWLINS POST NO. 31, G. A. R. MEET AT
Odd Fellows' Hall at Heppner, every third
Saturday of each month.

THURSDAY, MAR 17, 1904.

Although there are friendly contests on in this county for several county offices between republicans, there is no indication that the factions in any one of the contests will become irritated to the point that any sore spots will result. So far the bouts have come up in a friendly way, each candidate apparently being inclined to meet his opponent fairly and squarely and which ever goes down to defeat his opponent will rally to his support after the convention. That is what they should do, and there is no room to believe that it will be otherwise with any of the present candidates. All go into the convention with the full knowledge that only one can be nominated for each office, and that the balance must suffer defeat. So long as this issue is fairly and honorably met no candidate should feel sore towards his opponent because he is beaten in convention.

Representative Martin of South Dakota, has requested the house to direct Secretary Cortelyou to ascertain if any form of Monopoly is being worked by the packers. Mr. Martin has many constituents that are cattle raisers and he wants the new department of commerce and labor to look into the beef question. Stock raisers generally all over the country complain that they are not getting enough for their cattle. They think the price for beef on the hoof is regulated by supply and demand. Dressed beef is selling practically at the same figure as it did when the price of cattle was very much higher. The consumer pays the same high price for his steaks, but cattle are much cheaper. This would indicate that there is a big profit going somewhere and Representative Martin wants to find out whether it is the butcher or packer that is getting it.

The swelling floods that are now tumbling seaward from all over the Pacific Northwest emphasize the necessity for some storage system which will prevent this waste of water. Not only does it spread havoc in its path, as it races seaward, but it robs the soil of that in which it will stand in great need before the "Fall rains" are with us again. The removal of timber which formerly sheltered deep ravines in which snow remains nearly all Summer has been a great contributing factor in causing these Spring floods, and in many localities where this natural protection has been removed something should be done to remedy the damage. The vast arid plains east of the Cascade Mountains are rich in agricultural possibilities if water could only be secured for them, and if the water which is now rushing to the ocean could be only partially controlled or stored it would add millions to the wealth of the state. This is a matter which some day will become a very grave concern, and a satisfactory solution of the problem will be of inestimable value to the entire Pacific Northwest—Oregonian.

W. O. W. Entertain.

The joint social given by Heppner Camp Woodmen of the World and Maple Circle Women of Woodcraft, at the K. P. hall last Friday evening, was largely attended. A short program was rendered consisting of music and recitations. The program was opened with a song by the choir, consisting of Miss Lena Glascock, Miss Lillie Andrews, Mrs. Maud Shipley, Mrs. Bertha Gilman, Wm. Bennett and Louis Putnam. This was followed by a humorous song entitled "The Animal Fair," by Lillian Higgs, Venice Jones, Ralph Kenton and Emory Slocum. A recitation by Katie Neville, a selection from widow Be-tott by Mrs. Courter, and a song by the choir concluded the program. Rev. F. Adkins and Rev. W. O. Miller favored the audience with appropriate remarks on the subject of Woodmen of the World and Women of Woodcraft. Mr. and Mrs. Bode also favored the audience with a choice selection of music from their Edison phonograph. Refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake and coffee were served. The remainder of the evening was spent in social games etc., some playing "Telephone." All seemed to enjoy the evening and pronounced the entertainment a success.

Republican Primaries.

The republican primaries in the four precincts centering in Heppner were very quiet affairs. This harmonious condition was brought about by the agreement of the various factions to submit names, more especially is this true in the clerkship contest, to the executive committee of the Roosevelt club, and from these lists of names a list of delegates was chosen for the precincts of Gentry, Mt. Vernon, Matteson and Heppner.

At Lone there was a friendly contest between the assessor and clerkship factions, the Crawford and Shipley ticket carrying the day by a small majority. But we understand there was no ill feeling engendered.

In neither of the other precincts throughout the county there was a contest so far as we have been able to learn, so at this time there appears to be no candidate, with the exception of Sheriff Shutt, who has no opponent, who can claim a walkover for the nomination. Following are the delegates by precinct:

Gentry—Joe Reector, W. E. Barratt, M. J. F. Morgan and A. Andrews.

Matteson—W. H. Herren, J. C. Kirk, Phil Mieschan, Frank Natter, E. L. Feeand, W. E. Hiatt, A. M. Markham, and A. J. Hieks.

Heppner—C. E. Woodson, A. Ozmin, Andrew Rood, James Cowans, D. A. Herren, Robert Watkins and Fred Warnock.

Mt. Vernon—Marion Evans, W. F. Campbell, D. O. Justus, I. N. Prater, J. A. Thompson and F. P. Farnsworth.

North Lone—E. T. Perkins, John Williams, Paul Reitman, R. F. Wilmott.

South Lone—Milt Moran, Ed. Keller, S. E. Douglas and Mat Halvorsen.

Hardman—M. A. Bates, Frank Ward, R. H. Stillwell, E. H. Cox, G. A. Bleakman and C. S. Emry.

Lexington—Geo. W. Turner, E. D. McMillan, W. P. McMillan and John Dougherty.

Eight Mile—G. D. Coates, W. W. Brannon and J. W. Beckett.

Dry Fork—J. A. Hopper, Nel. Johnson and T. W. Morgan.

Cecil—J. A. Trodson, Frank Lillingham and W. F. Palmateer.

Lena—Mike Kinney, Paul Hisler and Geo. McKnight.

Alpine—Frank Kilkenny and Frank McCabe.

Fine City—J. H. Barker and Ike Howard.

Wells Springs—James Carty and Ed McDait.

Irrigon—A. Bennett.

EIGHT MILE.

Lots of rain and grain and grass are growing nicely.

Mose Ashbaugh and family of Irrigon, were visiting at Eight Mile the past week.

School commences at Eight Mile Center to day with B. F. Thomson as teacher. There will be a three month spring term.

Mrs. Mattie Young come out to visit the home ranch Friday and went back to Heppner Sunday. They will move out about April first.

Wes Brannon took Mrs. Brannon back to Heppner yesterday. She is having her eyes treated by Dr. Higgs, and has been at home since the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Saling.

We heard a terrible moaning and groaning down in a ditch a few days ago and on investigation we found the moon trying to make a change, but couldn't. It lacked about six bits, and we didn't have the change either, hence the stormy weather we have been having. Eight Mile, March 14.
