Arrested for Burglary.

Constable J P. Looy brought A. Ankeney up from Ione last Thursday evening and lodged him in the county jail to await trial until the May term of Circuit court. Ankeney was arrested upon a charge of burglary. It appears that he is a barber of Ione, and on Wednesday evening last he is charged with having entered the shop of his competitors, Lane & Wilson, by force and carried away everything loose in their shop, virtually putting them out of business, at least until they could procure another outfit of razors, strops and other barber shop paraphernalia. Ankeney waived examination and was placed under bonds of $400, which he was no able to give, and he will remain in jail until the May term of court.
