RAWLINS POST NO. 31, G. A. R. MEET AT Odd Fellows' Hall at Heppner, every third Saturday of each month.
G. W. RHEA, AdJ. G. W. SMITH, Com.

THURSDAY, APR 21, 1904.

Politics in Morrow county are at a rather low ebb just now. But there is always a lull before a storm, and if this is any criterion we may expect pretty warm times a little later on.

The farmers of Morrow county feel now that they are very sure of a fair crop this season let come what may, and if the season continues as favorable as it is at present the largest crop in the history of the county will be harvested. With the abundance of moisture already in the ground, the splendid growing weather, with occasional light showers, is indeed very encouraging.

Hon. G. W. Phels, who was the nominee of the republican state convention for prosecuting attorney from the sixth judicial district, is one of the most prominent young attorneys of the district. He is a man of good judgment and good business ability, firm in his convictions and a tireless worker. These qualifications have built for him a large and lucrative law business and placed him abreast of the higher class in his profession. His high character and unquestioned legal ability coupled with his strict integrity makes him the logical candidate of his party, a man whom all classes can support.

Whooping Cough.

"In the spring of 1901 my children had whooping cough," says Mrs. D. W. Capps, of Capps, Ala. "I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with the most satisfactory results. I think this is the best remedy I have ever seen for whooping cough." This remedy keeps the cough loose, lessens the severity and frequency of the coughing spells and counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by Slocum Drug Co.
