Rev Father Stark of New York City will open a weeks mission at the Catholic church, Heppner on Sunday, May 15, at 10:30 a. m. This eloquent priest is a member of the Paulist Fathers of New York, who are so famous for their great success in giving missions to Non-Catholics. Most of the Paulist Fathers are converts to the Catholic faith, and are therefore thoroughly conversant with the religious needs and beliefs of all denominations, and their style of lecturing is chiefly on that account most interesting and charitable. Everybody is hereby cordially invited to attend the learned lectures to be delivered by the distinguished theologian, Father Stark.

What Files Are For. "This," said the young and timid lawyer, "is but a rough draft of the will." "Then," said the old lawyer curtly, "it needs filing."-Baltimore American.

Backward New York. Dr. William H. Tolman, director of the American Institute of Social Science, has been saying disagreeable things in New York. In one of a series of lectures delivered in the city residence of Miss Helen Gould he informed his hearers that Chicago and other cities were far in advance of Manhattan in the matter of public baths. He even went the length of adding, "New York, which needs these necessities very much, talks while other cities act."

Sticks to His Gray. The only ex-officer of the Confederate army who clings to his uniform is General George F. Alford of Dallas, Tex. He has never discarded his colors since he donned them to go into the army in the early sixties. Pedestrians turn to look at him, peering at his badges, scanning his gold belt and trying to decipher the letters on his old army hat. General Alford has been a judge, a banker, a legislator and a congressman.

Scoliotic Rheumatism Cured. "I have been subject to sciatic rheumatism for years," says E. M. Waldron of Wilton Junction, Iowa. "My joints were stiff and gave me much pain and discomfort. My joints would crack when I straightened up. I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and have been thoroughly cured. Have not had a pain or ache from the old trouble or many months. It is certainly a most wonderful liniment." For sale by Slocum Drug Co.
