Barratt of Sand Hollow, and that he would probably work for him during the summer. On Monday morning he passed a check for $31, drawn in favor of himself and bearing the signature of Wm. Barratt, to China Dock at the latter restaurant and asked Dock to cash it. The Chinaman cashed the check and later in the day took it to the First National Bank and presented it for payment. The cashier at once discovered that it was a forged check as the signature was Wm. Barratt while Mr. Barratt always signs his checks W. B., also he noted that the indorsement was in the same handwriting as the signature. Dock, thinking he had lost the money anyway, kept the matter quiet until the next day, by which time Kenney had made good his escape as he left town on the Monday morning train soon after cashing the check, and as yet the officers have no clue as to his whereabouts.

One of the greatest blessings a modest man can wish for is a good, reliable set of bowels. If you are not the happy possessor of such an outfit you can greatly improve the efficiency of those you have by the judicious use of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are pleasant to take and agreeable in effect. For sale by Slocum Drug Co.
