The outlook for the largest grain crop in the history of Morrow is the verdict of farmers from all sections of the country. Saturday a large number of them were in town trading, and every one of them with whom we spoke was enthusiastic over the flattering prospects. The soil contains yet plenty of moisture, sufficient to make fall sown grain a big crop, and with a little rain in June the spring sown will be as good.

The O. R. & N. has just issued its annual summer book entitled "Restful Recreation Resorts of the Pacific Northwest." The book is prepared by Rinaldo M. E. M. Shutt, our county sheriff, was in the city Thursday serving notice on the new juror from Ione. Mr. Shutt is a candidate for re-election on the republican ticket. The in-my friends of Mr. Shutt, who founded the Antelope Herald, the Wheeler County News and Heppner Times, will read the above with pleasure and if the people of Morrow county know a good thing when they have it in their grasp, Mr. Shutt will have a walk over on June 6th for another two years in the sheriff's office.—Mitchell News.

FEMALE WEAKNESS
423 1-3 Congress St.
PORTLAND, M. O., Oct. 17, 1902.
I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pains would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed to be beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering the agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain. Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.
Wilhelmina Snow
Treasurer, Portland Economic League

Periodical headaches tell of female weakness. Wine of Cardui cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases of irregular menses, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, that is the best reason in the world you should try Wine of Cardui now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui today.
