RAWLINS POST NO. 31, G. A. R. MEET AT Odd Fellows' Hall at Heppner, every third Saturday of each month.
G. W. RHEA, Adj. G. W. SMITH, Com.

THURSDAY, JUNE 9, 1904.

The wool sales at Shaniko last week are an indication that the price of wool is advancing right along. While the Heppner sales were a grand success, the Shaniko sales were more so. The probabilities are that the wool sold at the next sale here will bring a higher price than at the first.

While the election returns show only half a victory for the republicans on the local ticket they have some cause for gratification over the result. They won the most stubbornly contested office in the county, that of sheriff, also elected Hon. G. W. Phelps district attorney, though they cannot claim the honor of electing G. W. Cole joint representative. Doubtless he would have received a much larger vote here had not the general impression prevailed that Umatilla would knife Mr. Phelps. Scratching of ballots was terrific. No doubt one cause for this was on account of the local option fight.

While the Japanese from the first have refused to divulge their plans, it appears quite clear that their chief aim is the reduction of Port Arthur. Kuropatkin's attention has been directed by demonstrations toward the north so that Oku might be free to invest the great fortress. The capture of Liao Yang or even Mukden would not mean anything like the disaster to the Russians that the downfall of Port Arthur would mean to that country. It is even hinted that the fall of that fortress would hasten peace; that it would be to the best interest of the Czar to make peace in case the Japs are successful in reducing Port Arthur.

The dastardly outrage of killing stock has occurred again and this time in our midst, says the Mitchell News. Poison was deposited on the range eight miles east of town a short distance from the Canon City road and the result of this cowardly act is 12 head of range cattle belonging to Sigrit Bros. died last week. The poison consisting of paris green and probably arsenic, was mixed with salt and deposited on the Ayers homestead. The motive for this deed is unknown as no known trouble existed between the cattle and sheepmen in the vicinity of the poison deposit.

Following the poisoning episode, came the new-to-town early Monday morning that about 3 a. m. in the morning five men attacked the band of wrestling sheep in the corral on the place belonging to Butler Bros., of Richmond. 100 head were killed and 112 head crippled; so bad they will either die or have to be

SHEEP AND CATTLE KILLED

Poison Deposited on the Range Near Mitchell Last Week.

The dastardly outrage of killing stock has occurred again and this time in our midst, says the Mitchell News. Poison was deposited on the range eight miles east of town a short distance from the Canon City road and the result of this cowardly act is 12 head of range cattle belonging to Sigrit Bros. died last week. The poison consisting of paris green and probably arsenic, was mixed with salt and deposited on the Ayers homestead. The motive for this deed is unknown as no known trouble existed between the cattle and sheepmen in the vicinity of the poison deposit.

Following the poisoning episode, came the new-to-town early Monday morning that about 3 a. m. in the morning five men attacked the band of wrestling sheep in the corral on the place belonging to Butler Bros., of Richmond. 100 head were killed and 112 head crippled; so bad they will either die or have to be killed. About ten days ago as the sheep were being moved to the shearing corral 25 head died from the poison put out near the corral on the Ayers place and upon their return were ranging on leased land when killed and had not been trespassing on any one.

Second Wool Sales.
The second wool sales, held at Heppner yesterday, were a greater success as to prices than the first. However, there was less than half the wool sold, a little more than 600,000 pounds changing hands.

At the Woolgrowers' warehouse there was 265,531 pounds sold and at the Heppner & Co., 350,000 pounds.

The Clip of J. M. Hayes topped the market, going at 16 1/2. C. E. Miller's lot brought 15 1/2, J. C. Kirk 15 1/2, Oscar Schafer 15 1/2, and T. J. Matlock 15 1/2. The lowest price paid was 12 1/2 and the entire sales averaged 14 1/2 cents per pound, a half a cent higher than the first sales. There were eleven buyers present.

There will probably be 1,000,000 pounds offered at the next sales, June 23.
