RAWLINS POST NO. 31, G. A. R. MEET AT Odd Fellows' Hall at Heppner, every third Saturday of each month. G. W. HERR, Adj. G. W. SKIFF, Com.

THURSDAY, JULY 7, 1904.

Truly the Morrow county farmer has reason to feel encouraged. He is about to harvest the biggest crop in the history of the county, and the prospects for a good price are very encouraging. The late rains have made the wheat crop, and he has nothing to fear but the procuring of harvest hands to gather in the golden sheaves.

It is said, in some quarters, that we ought to offer the Filipinos their independence. Yet nothing is more certain than that they would not be able to maintain it. They would so conduct themselves that some foreign power would be there right quick. We could not with safety even make the promise of independence in future, when they might be fitted for it; for such promise would inevitably be accepted by the agitators, and generally by the people, as a promise to give them independence soon, and would lead to no end of trouble. We shall have trouble enough, at best, with agitators at each end of the line—playing at this end for politics, at that end for ambition, through sedition and disorder.—Oregonian.

Macaroni Wheat a Success

Mr. W. M. Barnett, of this city, has a field of the new Macaroni wheat on his place just north of Wasco on the east side of the road, that he thinks will prove to be the most successful variety of wheat ever raised in Eastern Oregon, says the News. This grade of wheat is something new in this country.

Upon first notice the wheat so closely resembles barley that most people think that is what it is. It has a head similar to barley in that it is bearded. The stalk of some samples Mr. Barnett left at this office are about three feet long, and the heads, though unmaturing, are very large and perfectly formed, and by the time the wheat is ready for harvest, he says it will be at least six feet tall. The government report for this year says that Macaroni wheat, under favorable conditions, will produce from 25 per cent. to 100 per cent. more to the acre than bluestem or fine wheat, and will almost always produce a good crop when it is too dry for other kinds of wheat to live. Mr. Barnett is very enthusiastic about this wheat, and thinks other farmers will do well to raise it also.

Matteson School House Picnic

A picnic of considerable proportions is reported at Matteson school house on the Fourth.

A number of Heppner people went out and large numbers from the surrounding country made quite a formidable gathering. There was some rain in the forenoon which made it disagreeable for a time, but the clouds soon floated away letting the bright sunlight peep through the foliage of the tall pines which soon dried off the landscape, leaving a pleasant bower for the enjoyable passing of the glorious Fourth. At night dancing was indulged in and all report a grand, good time.

Beef Market Well Supplied.

According to Mr. Lonergan, the stockmen of Eastern Oregon will not receive as good prices this year as they did a year ago, notwithstanding the fact that beef cattle, as a general rule, are in much better condition. The reason is that the demand is not as brisk, both in the East and in the sound country.

"Many of the large lumber mills on the Sound have shut down within the last few months," said Mr. Lonergan yesterday, "and a number of other industries there are not being operated to their fullest capacity as was the case a year ago. Accordingly, conditions are not as good. A large number of men are out of employment.

"Packer are using up their surplus holdings and are not anxious to buy up much more stock than they can readily dispose of. Naturally the cattle market is somewhat dull. I have been making a few deals, however, and am buying nothing but the best beef cattle I can find. Next week I will ship ten carloads of cattle from the Butter creek country—about 250 in number. These are fat and healthy, and are about the best I have seen in this part of the country for some time."

Farm House Burned

The farm house of W. B. Finley, on lower Sand Hollow, was destroyed by fire last Friday, with the greater portion of its contents.

We did not learn the particulars, but presume the fire started from a defective flue. Mr. Finley had been to Heppner that day and reached home just in time to see the latter end of the fire. We did not learn the extent of the loss, but presume it was considerable as Mr. Finley had a comfortable home.

One Lady's Recommendation Sold Fifty Boxes of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets

I have, I believe, sold fifty boxes of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets on the recommendation of one lady here, who first bought a box of them about a year ago. She never tires of telling her neighbors and friends about the good qualities of these tablets. —P. M. Shore, Druggist, Rochester, Ind. The pleasant purgative effect of these tablets makes them a favorite with ladies every where. For sale by Slocum Drug Company.
