Hodges—McSwords.

Mr. William Allen Hodges, son of Hon. and Mrs. William A. Hodges of Hancock street, and Miss Mary Louise McSwords, a graduate of the class of 1903 Quincy High school, were united in marriage on Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Sybil McSwords, 74 Upland road.

Mrs. Alice Jones at the piano played Mendelssohn's wedding march as the bridal party entered the parlor, the little flower girls leading, followed by the ushers, the best man and maid of honor, and the bride and groom.

Mr. Fredrick Howe of Bigelow street, cousin of the groom, was best man and the bride had for her maid of honor, Miss Mabelle Marion Macleod of Wollaston. The ushers were William E. Tarbox of Quincy and George Frederick Choate, Jr., of East Milton, and the little flower girls were Edna Brown and Buell Brown, cousins of the bride.

The bride's gown was a mousseline de soie over taffeta, with all over lace and medallion trimmings. She carried a beautiful bouquet of bride roses. The maid of honor was also gowned in mousseline de soie over taffeta with all over lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The groom's gift to his bride was a pearl brooch, a family heirloom, and to his best man and ushers handsome gold scarf pins. The maid of honor received as a souvenir from the bride a gold locket and chain.

A reception from eight until ten o'clock followed the ceremony, the young people being assisted in receiving by the bride's mother, and aunt Mrs. Alva W. Patterson, of Washington, D. C., and the groom's mother and sister, Mrs. A. A. Hunt of Hartford, Conn.

American Beauty roses and carnations, with smilax, foliage, palms and potted plants made the rooms very fragrant and beautiful. A wedding supper was served and there was a fine display of presents, among them several pieces of silver and cut glass.

Among the guests were: Rev. A. A. Brown and daughter of Columbiana, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Alva W. Patterson of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Susan Brown of Beverly, Ohio, the bride's grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Hodges left amid showers of rice and good wishes for Albany, N. Y., where they are to spend their honeymoon. On their return they are to reside at 74 Upland road—Quincy (Mass.) Ledger.

Safeguarding the Children.

Notwithstanding all that is done by boards of health and charitable inclined persons the death rate among small children is very high during the hot weather of the summer months in the large cities. There is not probably one case of bowel complaint in a hundred, however, that could not be cured by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by Slocum Drug Co.

A Wise Voter.

The Democrats of Rochester, N. Y., eager to get out their full strength at a recent election, sent word to S. B. Anthony, 17 Madison street, marked "Democrat" in the pollbook, just before the last day of registration that "unless you register you cannot vote." According to the Indianapolis News, they got the following answer:

In response to your notice of this kind in 1872 I did register and later voted. For this I was arrested, fined $100 and sent to jail. You will excuse me if I decline to repeat this experience.

SURAN B. ANTHONY.

Not So Little After All.

We notice that a Cleveland (O.) newspaper speaks patronizingly of Argentina as a "little republic." What larks! There are 41,060 square miles of Ohio; there are 1,319,247 square miles of Argentina—that is to say, you could tuck away thirty-one Ohio in the "little republic" and then have considerably more than room enough left for seven Connecticut. Argentina may be feeble in some ways, but there's nothing the matter with Argentina's size.—Hartford Courant.

A Huge Chinese Top.

Chinamen in Astoria, Ore., amuse themselves with a huge top made out of an empty white lead keg. A square opening is cut in the side, and it takes three men to spin it—one to hold the top and two to pull the string with a stick which sets it in motion. While spinning it sounds like the whistle of a steamer and can be heard three blocks away.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This remedy is certain to be needed in almost every home before the summer is over. It can always be depended upon even in the most severe and dangerous cases. It is especially valuable for summer disorders in children. It is pleasant to take and never fails to give prompt relief. Why not buy it now? It may save life. For sale by Slocum Drug Co.
