RAWLINS POST NO. 31, G. A. R. MEET AT Odd Fellows Hall at Heppner, every third Saturday of each month. G. W. SMITH, Com. G. W. RHEA, Adj.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 15, 1904.

Bascom-Leezer Nuptials.

One of the prettiest wedding that has occurred in Heppner for some time was that solemnized at the All Saints Memorial church early yesterday morning, when Rev. John Warren united in marriage Mr. Alison W. Bascom of Terril, Iowa, and Miss Mabel A. Leezer of this city.

The bride, supported by S. J. Leezer, entered the church promptly a 7 o'clock and as they marched up the aisle Mrs. M. B. Metzler played Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The bridesmaid was Miss Willetta Leezer, sister of the bride, and the groomsmen were Mr. Arthur Denny of Portland, while Miss Margaret Phelps was ring bearer. The ushers were W. H. Bennett and Earl Conser.

The bride was handsomely gowned in white silk organdi, and groom wore a dark traveling suit.

Congratulations followed the ceremony, immediately after which a wedding breakfast was served at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. W. J. Leezer, those present being the officiating minister, the bridal couple and members of the family. The presents received were numerous and valuable.

The groom is a prominent and successful warehouseman and grain dealer of Terril, Iowa, while the bride is the eldest and accomplished daughter of Mrs. W. J. Leezer of this city. She was one of the most highly esteemed young ladies of Heppner, where she has hosts of friends who wish that the path of her wedded journey may be strewn with roses.

The happy couple left on the morning train for Portland where they will remain until Saturday awaiting the arrival of Luman Bascom and bride, (who were married in Iowa last week), from Seattle, when the two couples will proceed on their wedding tour to San Francisco, Los Angeles, and Salt Lake, from where they will go direct to their home at Terril, Iowa.

Saling-Martin Wedding.

Mr. Clyde Saling and Mrs. Jennie Martin were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. A. G. Bartholomew, in this city, at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, Rev. Frank C. Adkins officiating.

The wedding ceremony was performed while the bridal couple stood beneath an arch of ferns and white carnations, the effect being a very pleasing one.

The wedding was a quiet one, only relatives and immediate friends of the families being present.

Both the bride and groom are Morrow county young people where they have scores of friends, and by whom the young couple are held in high esteem. They left on the morning train, with the best wishes of their many friends, for their future home at Currinville, Oregon, where Mr. Saling bought a valuable ranch a few months ago.

They were accompanied by Mrs. Ed Saling, who had been visiting with relatives and friends here.

LEXINGTON ITEMS

Jos. Bargoyne has built a new barn. W. E. Leach went to The Dalles Monday.

J. Bob Johnson went to Ione on business Tuesday.

Albert Jones and E. O. Williams left for Spokane Tuesday.

Dr. E. R. Swinburne was in town Saturday on business.

Frank Beymer brought his hay baler up from Ione Wednesday.

A new boy arrived at the home of Chas. VanWinkle Tuesday morning.

W. S. Wharton of the Heppner Bank, was transacting business here Saturday.

Johnny Leach and S. M. Green returned from the mountains last Tuesday.

The infant child of Chas. Tuley died Wednesday, and was buried at Lexington Thursday.

Col. C. C. Boon has been building a house on the homestead of R. O. Williams, for the latter.

W. P. McMillan has been chosen mayor to fill out the unexpired term of S. E. Notsen, who moved out of town.

Mrs. E. J. McAlister has resigned as postmaster of Lexington, and W. P. McMillan has been appointed to fill the vacancy.

It begins to look as if Lexington would soon have a system of water works. We hope the scheme will prove a success.

H. N. Burchell and family left here Wednesday for the Valley. They expect to visit relatives and attend the State fair.

T. H. Nichols had a runaway Friday evening, in which his wagon sustained considerable injury and one horse was badly hurt.

As Nellie White was putting his team in the barn Monday, one of the horses jammed him against the door in such a way as to injure his left arm quite seriously.

Expert's Report.

The following is the report of E. L. Freeland, who was employed at the July term of the commissioners court to expert the books of M. Lichtenthal during his incumbency as treasurer of Morrow county. Dr. Beard Transferred.

Rev. J. M. Beard, D. D., stationed for many years at some of the leading appointments of the Southern Methodist conference, in this city, and at one time editor of the New Orleans Christian Advocate, has been transferred by Bishop H. C. Morris to the East Columbia conference, and stationed at Heppner, Oregon. His last appointment was Amie City, La. Dr. Beard has labored faithfully in Louisiana, and by his piety, sincerity and deep interest in the welfare of others, has endeared himself to many. His brethren in the ministry, and the Methodist laymen generally, regret his removal to this far-off field.—N. O. Picavune, August 1.
