Eph Eskelson, a prominent farmer of Lexington, was attending to some business matters in Heppner Monday. He has just about completed the construction of a very comfortable residence on his property above Lexington, and will at once build a fine barn. He was here to secure a painter to paint his residence.

H. W. Bartholomew, who was in town the first of the week from his ranch at Rhea's siding, reports that something like 350 head of cattle will be fed on lower Willow Creek this winter. He will feed 150 head for the Ayers Cattle company; W. B. Ewing will feed 75 head; J. F. Deos, 50, and John McCarty 75 head.

Conductor H. M. Bryan received a nice letter from his son, Bert, last week, who is now the local agent at Prescott, Wash. That point is at present shipping an immense lot of wheat, flour and general freight, there being two trains each way every day, and the receipts run from $100 to $300 daily. This is a very responsible position for so young a man as Bert, and his numerous friends here will be pleased to learn of his having secured so fine position. Bert is a first class young man and has a bright future before him.
