It also prevents loss in weight shrinkage at shipping time.

REPUBLICAN VICTORY

Roosevelt Gets 325 In Electoral College.

CARRIES OREGON 40,000

Morrow County By 651 Plurality Over Parker—Prohibition Beaten in County 62

Although there was considerable interest manifest in the prohibition question, the election passed off rather quietly in Heppner Tuesday. While both sides were rather active all day, the work was done quietly and without disturbance of any nature.

There were no surprises in the county vote. It was expected that Roosevelt would get something like five hundred plurality over Parker. It was also expected that the vote on prohibition would be close; only effective work of anti-prohibitionists saved the county from going dry.

Matteson precinct in Heppner, as was expected gave the saloons the largest majority vote, eighty. There was a small surprise in Mt. Vernon precinct in this city. It gave local option a majority of nine at the June election, while at Tuesday's election it gave a majority of forty against prohibition.

Dairy Precinct, in which is situated Hardman, gave prohibition a majority of forty-seven, maintaining its local option vote in June. Lexington gave prohibition a majority of eleven. These two precincts are the only ones in the county that have a saloon that went dry. At Hardman the saloon is operated by Lane & Engleman, and at Lexington the saloon is operated Dan Doherty. They are the only saloons that will be put out of business the first of January.

At Hardman the boys tell a joke on John Adams to the effect that on Monday, the day before election, his well went dry, and on Tuesday the whole town went dry. They figure that the well going dry was a warning beforehand that the town would go dry also.

Anti-prohibition carried in the following precincts: Heppner, 16; Gentry, 6; Matteson, 80; Mt. Vernon, 40; Cecil, 3; North Ione, 8; Irrigon, 7; South Ione, 16; and the following precincts went dry: Dairy, 47; Lexington, 11; Eight Mile, 29; Dry Fork, 7; Lena, 2; Pine City, 9; Wells Springs, 9; Alpine, 9. This leaves a majority of 62 against prohibition in the entire county, a very close margin. Last June the majority for local option in the county was 157.

But the best news it seemed for all parties was Roosevelt's big plurality of 631 in the county.

The total vote of the county for president was 1338, of which Roosevelt received 875, Parker 224, Debs 160, and Swallow 79. There were 1282 votes cast on the prohibition question. 610 for and 672 against.

National Election.

The latest reports at hand from the presidential election indicates that the republican vote in the electoral college will be the unprecedented one of 335 for Roosevelt and Fairbanks to 151 for Parker and Davis. Not only is this far in excess of McKinley's vote, 292, in 1900, but Judge Parker's vote is four less than that given Mr. Bryan four years ago. It is practically certain that the Republican National ticket has carried every state in the Union outside of the solid south. It may take the official count to decide Maryland.

Theodore Roosevelt's plurality in his native state is second only to McKinley's 268,000 in 1896. It exceeds McKinley's in 1900 by about 41,500. The late returns show that there were cast for him in New York state about 185,000 votes more than for Parker. Not only was his vote heavy in the country districts, where the republican strongholds are, but in Greater New York, traditionally democratic, he ran much closer to Judge Parker than had been expected, ever by his own campaign managers.

The small plurality for Parker in New York City caused great astonishment. When the reports came in showing that he would lead Roosevelt by only 40,000, they were received with amazement. The Parker plurality in the city was 35,000 less than that given Herrick, Dem., for governor. Higgins, Rep., for governor of New York will win out by 35,000.

Carry Oregon by 40,000.

Roosevelt and Fairbanks carried Oregon by more than 40,000 plurality over Parker and Davis—in spite of the fact that only about a two-thirds vote was polled. Several counties were carried for prohibition, among them Benton, Coos, Curry, Gilliam, probably Jackson, Tillamook, and perhaps Wheeler.

One of the striking exhibits of the returns is the large socialist vote. Another is the big vote for prohibition, though the prohibition ticket fell far short of that vote.

Meager returns from the state of Washington indicate that Roosevelt has carried the state by a plurality of 40,000, and that Mead, Rep., for governor was elected by a majority of 8000 over Turner, Dem., though these figures are liable to need final revision to a material extent.

Fire Damages Residence

The residence of Eugene Campbell on Chase street, was badly damaged by fire Tuesday forenoon. Most of the contents on the first floor were removed, only some clothing and bedding on the second floor being consumed by the flames.

The fire originated from a defective flue in the garret of the building and only the upper part of the house was burned, entailing a loss of several hundred dollars.

Several minutes elapsed before a stream of water could be brought to play on the fire, but the hose company did splendid work in saving surrounding buildings. The fire was unaccountably near the Stewart & Kirk livery barn, and had that got on fire the two newspaper offices would have been in immediate danger, but luckily the fire was checked before any large amount of damage was done. We are informed the Campbell building was insured for $1000, which will more than cover the damage sustained.

The Republican Rally.

The grand rally held by the republicans in Roberts' opera house Saturday evening was a success in every particular. There was a large audience present, and the addresses by Judge J. E. Magers and Hon. J. P. Winters were duly appreciated. The patriotic airs discoursed by the Heppner band and the splendid oratory of the speakers aroused considerable enthusiasm which went a long way towards increasing Roosevelt's majority in Morrow county.
