Rev. J. W. Mount has been called to the charge of the Baptist church in Harrison, Idaho, and now has the matter under advisement.

$100 reward will be paid for information leading to the arrest and conviction of parties cutting any of our outside fences. Penland Livestock & Land Co.

Eph Eskelson, who was in town Tuesday from his ranch near Lexington, informs The Times that his new residence is completed and ready for occupancy. He has one of the finest farm houses on Willow Creek.

A. A. Willis, who was in the city yesterday, informed the Times that he had just sold his ranch on Social Ridge to Attorney G. W. Phelps, of this city. The ranch consists of two quarter sections and sold for $1500 a quarter.

For Trade—For Morrow county farm property, nine room house, good barn and out building, on lot 50x150 feet, two blocks from car line, in Bradley, Ill. All buildings in good repair, and rents for $15 per month. For particulars call at Times office.

Tunis Swick, one of the prominent sheepmen of Grant county, is in the city attending to some business matters. He says Grant county sheepmen are very much encouraged with the present outlook for wool prices. He reports range yet good in the interior and that stock of all kinds are in splendid condition to start into the winter.

The jury of award at the St. Louis Exposition has spent a good deal of time examining into the merits of the several typewriters on exhibition. The Visible Writing Underwood Typewriter was awarded the Grand Prize on every point. The Oregon Underwood agency is at 65 Front Street, Portland, and will furnish a catalogue on application.

The paragraph which appeared in the Times last week, in regard to Sheriff Shutt's buying the Smith and Hill ranches, seems to have been misconstrued in relation to the price paid. We did not know at the time what was paid for the Hill ranch and did not state the price, which we learn was $1000 a quarter. We only stated the price of the Smith place, which was $2000 a quarter as it appeared last issue.

At a session of the county court of Gilliam county, held last Saturday, it was unanimously agreed that the petition for the vote on local option had been presented too late for the regular term of county court in Gilliam county prior to the late election, therefore the ballot was illegal and void, and declared the election to have no effect. The result of this action by the county court will be that Gilliam county will remain under the license system.

Call at J. L. Yeager's and get a couch at a bargain.

P. B. Peterson went to the Junction Saturday to meet his family from Portland. They will hereafter reside in Heppner.

Phil Fairbanks, who is engaged in driving the stage between Monument and Canyon City, spent Monday in Heppner looking after his property here.

John H. Hayes was down from his Upper Butter Creek stock ranch the first of the week. He says a little rain would greatly help range in his section just now.

The churches of Heppner will hold a union Thanksgiving service at the Baptist church today at 11 a. m. The pastor of the M. E. church, south, will preach the sermon.

When you want a pleasant physic try Chamberlain's stomach and liver tablets. They are easy to take and produce no griping or other unpleasant effect. For sale by Slocum Drug Company.

Wm. Stauffer of Lexington, who is in town attending court this week, tells The Time that he raised and marketed this season 10,000 bushels of wheat which brought, at the prevailing price, $7600. His crop netted him about $5000 after all expenses were paid.

MINOR & CO | MINOR & CO

W. E. Royse, who has seeded 400 acres of wheat on new land on the W. P. Dutton ranch west of town, reports the grain is up and growing nicely. He has taken considerable pains in putting his wheat in the ground properly, and is of the opinion that if there are any good yields grown next season, he stands a good chance to have one of them.

S. A. Barlow, one of the prosperous Eight Mile farmers, who was in town on business Monday, says although it is getting quite dry the farmers in his section are going right along with their fall seeding. Mr. Barlow says he marketed about 5000 bushels of wheat from his season's crop.

See Minor & Co.'s display of dress goods in their south window this week. For shirt waists and jacket suits, they can't be beat.

Twenty per cent discount on all table linens, napkins and towels this week at Minor & Co.'s, account of Thanksgiving. Their finest linens included.
