Garrett Rogers and Anna Anderson of Rock Creek, were married at the Palace hotel in this city Saturday evening, Rev. J. W. Mount officiating.

$100 reward will be paid for information leading to the arrest and conviction of parties cutting any of our outside fences. Peuland Livestock & Land Co.

The jury of award at the St. Louis Exposition has spent a good deal of time examining into the merits of the several typewriters on exhibition. The Visible Writing Underwood Typewriter was awarded the Grand Prize on every point. The Oregon Underwood agency is at 65 Front Street, Portland, and will furnish a catalogue on application.

Geo. Conser, who has had the management of the construction of the cement water system, informs us that the system is now complete, with the exception of cementing the reservoir, which work will be done next spring in ample time to use the water next year. Mr. Conser says that all parties who so desire can commence improvements at any time by way of putting out shrubbery or otherwise beautifying their cemetery lots, with the full assurance that they can be furnished with plenty of water next season.

Messrs. M. A. and A. E. Bates of Hardman, were in the city the first of the week attending to some business matters, and informed us that Mr. A. E. Bates had accepted a contract for the distribution of one thousand telephone poles for the Pacific States Telephone Co. between Heppner and Parker's mill, a distance of thirty miles. The posts are all sawed cedar and are to be delivered within twenty days. Mr. Bates will be assisted by his brother M. A. and six teams will be employed in the work. The new line will be constructed along the public road instead of cutting across fields as heretofore, and will have two wires instead of one.

Call at J. L. Yeager's and get a couch at a bargain.

Dan Rice has been down from his ranch near Hardman several days the past week having a poisoned finger treated. It pained him considerably for ten days, but at last reports was doing nicely.

A. C. Pettys, who was in Heppner Tuesday from his ranch near Lone, informed The Times that he has not yet finished his fall seeding. He is sowing about 400 acres more than he intended to earlier in the season and now has to buy wheat to finish up as he had sold off all his crop before he decided to seed more ground.

A new discovery for all coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc., is Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It cuts phlegm, draws out the inflammation, cures all coughs, strengthens the lungs and bronchial tubes and assists in expelling a cold from the system by moving the bowels. Pleasant to take and contains opiate. It is the children's friend. Sold by Heppner Drug Co.

Oscar Edwards is in from Sand Hollow this week receiving treatment for catarrh of the head, which has been bothering him considerably of late. He tells us that all farmers in his section have their fall work finished up, but some seeding will be done in the spring. He has upwards of 250 acres fall seeding of wheat and will seed 300 acres to wheat and oats next spring, making close to 600 acres he will farm altogether next season.

J. Slocum, who has been in Eugene the past two weeks, has purchased a drug store in that city and will move his family there. The Eugene Register says of the sale: "By direction of C. A.
