HEPPNER, THURSDAY, JAN. 3, 1884.

THOSE ODD SECTIONS.

The subject of forcing rich railroad corporations to let go their hold on vast bodies of unearned government lands, continues to be agitated throughout the country.

Right around the Heppner country can be seen the full force of the farce kept up for the benefit of the Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

Heppner has been for some time past enjoying a most beautifully-mismanaged system of mail facilities.

A correspondent of the Weston Leader truly says: It certainly looks as if Oregon might take a hint from the example of Washington.

An odd quarter-section of so-called railroad land, lying west of Heppner and inside of the indemnity limits, was proved up on before Squire Mallory last Monday.

The word-painter of the Astorian says: The sun that sank behind the hill last eve went down in a crimson blaze whose glowing flames were as brilliant as though ten thousand ocean isles were burning.

The latest dispatches say that Villard has really resigned from the Northern Pacific.

NEWS NOTES.

Diphtheria prevails at Pleasant Home, Oregon.

Half a dozen new business houses have opened out at Olympia.

Seattle labors with the immorality and disease of thirty opium dens.

A sort of Fourth of July, and much powder burned.

A company in the Cœur d'Alene mines recently sold fifteen acres of a claim for $6000.

A man supposed to be Cottner, who shot Walt Coffin last summer, was arrested at Dillon Montana, but proved to be the wrong man.

A committee of the board of trade at The Dalles has raised $800 by subscription to purchase the land for the Refrigerator Car Co.

Two steamboats have taken out of the Snake river country since last August, 7507 tons of wheat, all raised in a country formerly considered no good.

The cost of the new opera house at Walla Walla complete will reach about $50,000.

Down to Hillsboro the town marshal was arrested and fined $20 for having an idea that he owned the whole colony and arresting everyone who looked sideways at him.

Near Palouse City last week, Miss Nellie Farnsworth was thrown from a horse, breaking her thigh, and lay on the frozen ground for nearly an hour before assistance arrived.

The party of cowboys who recently indulged an excursion party at American Falls, Idaho, and made the band play for them, have been arrested, and will have to pay dearly for their so-called fun.

A man named Harris, in the Siskiyou mountains, was killed suddenly Dec. 25th by a falling tree, which struck the cabin in which he and his wife and one child were living.

Thirty-three young horses have been bought from Wm. Bigham for the cavalry at Walla Walla, at an average of $124 each, and the troopers are having lively times learning them to stand fire.

The N. P. R. Co. has filed in the U. S. land office at Spokane Falls a list of its indemnity selections in the Spokane district, aggregating 59,548 acres.

The position of the French troops in Tonquin is unchanged since the fall of Sontay.

Linn Fong, the commander of the Black Flags, was severely wounded, and his Lieutenant killed in the defense of Sontay.

Concerning an open channel from the upper country to the sea, the Klickitat Sentinel says: The Secretary of the Treasury has recommended an appropriation of half a million dollars this year for the construction of the locks at the Cascades.

Concerning an appropriation of half a million dollars this year for the construction of the locks at the Cascades, now if he would further recommend that the appropriation be placed at the disposal of competent and honest men, and that the corrupt tools who have heretofore had charge of the works be summarily dismissed, there would be some sense to it, and some prospect of the consummation of the work in a reasonable time; but if the appropriations are to be wasted and squandered in the future, as they have been in the past—evidently in the interest and at the instigation of the O. R. & N. and N. P. R. Companies—it will be of very little practical interest to the people of the Columbia river basin whether the appropriation is fifty dollars or fifty million dollars.

A man at Walla Walla writes: Trains come and go as usual, notwithstanding the shake up in Transcontinental. We have the roads and Villard has his less house, but the Portland boys have less shekels.
