Cow Ordinance Passed.—At the regular session, last Monday, the "cow ordinance" was passed by only one dissenting vote. While it may not be to the personal interests of residents to have such an ordinance, the public interest demands it, and we believe the council passed the same knowing that to be the case. It will be remembered that some of these councilmen have cows, and were the most active in securing its passage. That is a sacrifice of a little personal interest for the public good, and we are glad that we have city dads that are built that way. The following is the ordinance in substance: Sec. 1.—No horses or cattle, sheep, swine or goats shall be allowed to run at large or to be herded in any of the streets, alleys or public places in the town of Heppner, or on any private premises therein, except on the premises of the owners of such animals, unless when being driven through for shipment or other purposes. Sec. 2.—It is hereby made the duty of the marshal to seize and impound in a pound or inclosure any such animal found within the limits of the town of Heppner. Sec. 3.—The marshal shall give immediate notice of the taking up of such animal with a description thereof by posting the same in a conspicuous place at the pound, and by publication of notice in the official paper of this town when it is possible so to do. Sec. 4.—If any animal so taken up after the expiration of five days from the date of such notice, shall not be reclaimed by the owner, the marshal shall sell such animal at public auction, after due notice. Such notice to consist of posting notice of the same in some conspicuous place in said town, and after deducting his legal fees and all costs and expenses of taking up, feeding, keeping and selling, shall pay the remainder of such proceeds into the town treasury. Sec. 5.—If at any time before such sale the owner of any animal so taken up shall claim the same, he or she shall be entitled to the possession thereof upon the payment of all charges and expenses incident to such taking up and keeping. Sec. 6.—The owner or person having in charge any animal described in Sec. 1 of this ordinance, who shall suffer or allow the same to go at large within said limits, shall, on conviction before the recorder, be fined not more than five dollars for each offense. The marshal, besides the cost of keeping any animal taken up and impounded, shall be entitled to receive as his legal fees, one dollar per head for horses and cattle, and fifty cents per head for swine, sheep or goats, and ten per cent of the proceeds of any sale. Sec. 8.—If the owners of any property sold under the provisions of this ordinance shall, at any time within one year from the date of such sale make satisfactory proof of his ownership, he or they shall be entitled to receive the net proceeds of such sale for a year.

Miss Ava Smith has returned from below. Tom Morgan makes a good town marshal. Lewis Maddock came up from McMinnville this week. Dr. Harley Fell was up from Lexington, last Friday. Levi Ankeny, of Walla Walla, was in town this week. I. Graham Haines came up from Portland last Tuesday. Crockett Kirk put some "stuff" into the shop drawer yesterday. Anson Wright came over from his home ranch last Tuesday. Geo. Brown, of Parker & Gleason's mill, was down last week on business. Sterling Smith is quite sick with the fever at his residence, in South Heppner. Hon. H. C. Gay and Mr. William Gilliam showed up in Heppner yesterday. Jas. Roberts moved into his new home down on lower main street yesterday. San. Clark and wife are over from Camas prairie, this week, visiting relatives. Mrs. H. Wilmoth, of Galena, Idaho, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. F. Kuark. Alfred and Johnny Ayers were over from their Butter creek ranch last Saturday. Cliff Jones and E. M. Hawley came down from the Eight Mile country last Monday. Mrs. Kate Fuller moved to town this week for the purpose of schooling Master Charlie. Hank Schriener and Billy Gilliam were down from Spring Hollow last Saturday. Henry Rasmus has moved into the building belonging to Dr. Fox, over on Mill street. George Sloan, of Long Creek, is in town this week laying in stacks of winter supplies. Win. Doonan came in yesterday after a summer's herding in the mountains for Norman Kelly. Sam. Hall was down from the mountains yesterday. Bangs is getting short and water scarce. These cool evenings are causing the residents of Heppner to dig up their winter's wardrobe. Frank H. Wente will start in a few weeks for Dayton, W. T., where he will take his stock to winter. C. E. Hinton has sold his meat market to Walter McAtee, who will carry on the business at the old stand. The dispatches that John L. Sullivan is to be the sporting editor of the New York Illustrated News. Sheepmen from the Harlan country say that their flocks are in bad condition with the loss of this season. Miss Miles, sister of our efficient teacher of the Intermediate grade, Miss Josie Miles, is visiting Heppner this week. J. W. Sweeney writes us that the late rain is causing the grass to grow, which is pleasing to stockmen in his vicinity. The drug firm of E. J. Slocum & Co. have been making some substantial improvements by adding a wareroom to their store building. Charlie Sperry returned yesterday from Lone and says that he has got to be quite a lively place since the railroad came in. The Dallas District Ministerial Association will hold their next meeting in Heppner on November 22d, 23d, 24th and 25th. A. A. Wren and wife left last Monday for Holy. Having rented his ranch over to Mark's son, he will perhaps return for a year. In Walla Walla, Oct. 8, Mr. Vinson, to Miss Agnes Street, of Dallas. THE GAZETTE extends congratulations. Mrs. Irvy Monks and Annie Ayers were in town at this office last Monday. Miss Will attend the Catholic school at Reed this winter. Reed purchased the Harbin property, last Saturday, for $225. It's a cheap piece of property at that money. Exchange speaks of forgery in the long-complexioned editor fails through his mealy paws. His men, young men, kids and everybody else, with the exception of those who have been afflicted that way some or other, are laid up with the flu. J. Morgan was over from Sand Hill yesterday. While on his recent trip he visited the Walla Walla fair, he pronounces a greater success than usual. At accounts, Bro. Varney's mealy paws and mealy mind "stuck" had led up to take his regular ration of shin-bones and other odds and ends from the market. Ladies of the Presbyterian and churches will have a supper at a house next Saturday evening, to be applied to repairing the of the Baptist church. An older, catnip and locust tree Natter's clover patch, show by report that the denizen who has a bad pile had better be digging laying in his winter supply. Alford will reach Heppner Nov. 1, and will have a month to go on to earn the bonus given by City-Morrow county. The contract completion by Jan. 1, 1889. Allulu Island Empire has been made a judgment of C. E. Will printer, for wages due. It ought paper that can't keep printers' suits to but little and the sooner under the better. As a means of earning a living, it is to be increasing. Some jump on bridges, but the most sacred the fellow who jump their life—Vindicator. A cat or other animal with for chicken got into Uncle Laackman's hen-house on last night up at his ranch on the of Willow creek, and cleaned up 25 of his choicest fry size. When Joe made a trip to Heppner week to lay in some more ammunition and breadstuff. He and the Messing-Joe will strike in about month and supply the folks with venison hams at 6 bits apiece. A Tacoma man had $20 on a politics yard that he saw in a newspaper, and lost the money. He was a rampant republican before, but this has almost converted him to democracy. A man that bets on the truth of nine-tenths of the current political trash will always lose. Charley Cunningham brought over the lot of graded books this week, from his ranch on Butter creek. Ayers & Fell have them in charge, and will dispose of the same to sleepmen at terms and prices to suit. See ad. in this issue. Ah-Tuck Lee, the only Chinese voter in Monterey county, Cal., is said to be a strong Cleveland and Thurman man. There's a big family of the Lees, but we don't profess to know their politics, but it seems that Tuck has declared himself openly. The New York Sun recently published a dispatch announcing the death of the California millionaire, James C. Flood. His son, James S. Flood, has received a telegram stating that his father was still alive, and that there were still hopes of the patient's recovery. The Athenaeum library, Bury St. Edmunds, has a biography of a man named Corrier, the book being bound in a piece of human skin. Corrier murdered his sweetheart and married some one else to his liking. Having been detected and hanged, the doctor who obtained his corpse sent a piece of his skin, properly cured, to the publisher, and a copy of the dead man's life was accordingly bound up in his skin.

THE CAMAS SHOOTING.—Much has been said and is being said about the tragedy that occurred on O-sea's creek in Camas Prairie one week ago today, whereby Len Campbell lost his life, one Bowley is lingering between life and death with the chances about even, and Ed Campbell is under a charge of assault with intent to kill, which may be changed to that of murder in the event of the death of Bowley; and if Bowley gets well he will be charged with the murder of Len Campbell. It is a sad affair viewed from any standpoint. The facts of the case are substantially as set forth in the Tribune of Monday last. It is now claimed that Ed Campbell had made threats against the head of what should do in case there was a refusal to deliver the sheep, but what the particular nature of those threats were we have not learned. It will perhaps develop as an investigation of the case, which must take place before long, proceeds. Len Campbell died at Albas on Monday morning and was buried at that place. Ed Campbell is out under bond. Bowley (the herder) is under arrest, but his condition is too critical to admit of an examination yet, and he remains at his hotel at Pilot Rock. He may be called to answer before a higher court, almost at any time. The Campbells have been residents of this country for several years. They were raised near Vancouver, W. T. where their father now resides, and are brothers of Mrs. Joseph Leazer. Bowley is a man about 35 years of age, who came out from Kansas last year.—Pendleton Tribune. It is reported that the herder Bowley is improving and will very likely recover.

YOUTHFUL CRIMINALS.—On Monday, Juddy Brown, setting out this Monday, deputy sheriff, detached in two juvenile offenders charged with the crime of malicious injury to personal property belonging to C. Miller. The two boys are the sons of O. S. Manger, living near Thirty Mile, and are 8 and 10 years of age, respectively. They were brought up before Hermann Wilhelm, Justice of the Peace, on Tuesday. H. H. Hendricks prosecuted on behalf of the State. The prisoners offered no defense. From the evidence it appeared that they entered the dwelling house of Charles Miller, who resides a short distance from O. S. Manger's, having gained admission through the window, and broke his glass and other property in the house. Miller arrived just as they left the premises, and on entering, found considerable damage done inside. There is some trouble between Manger and Miller over land matters, but whether that had anything to do with the present case is not for us to decide. The boys were bound over in $300 surety ($150 each) to appear before the grand jury.—Eosell Journal.

THE MAYOR'S RECEPTION.—The boys down at Heppner & Blackman's are as full of mischief as cayuse colts, raised in the horse-heaven of bunchgrass' knee high and seldom lose an opportunity to play pranks on each other. When Mayor Blackman struck the store yesterday, he was greeted with the following in the most artistic lamplack: "Home again, home again, from California's shore; Oh! it fills my heart with joy to see my clerks once more." Of course being direct from parts where a great interest is taken in politics, he was supposed to come home laden with predictions as to the result in doubtful states. The boys are a little on the predict too, and rigged up a list of states that will go democratic in November sure, and placed it below Sig Bear's original (?) poetry. It was gotten up in some Mrs. "Tiliem Joe's" face powder. (There are several of the Mrs. Joe's, but it don't make any difference which one.) This is the way it read: New York, 42,617; New Jersey, 10,023; Indiana, 12,450; Connecticut, 6,118; California, 5,218.

COUNCIL MEETING.—Council met last Monday in regular session. All councilmen except Garrigues present. Marshal and recorder present. Mayor Blackman absent. Petition No. 1, for street to cemetery, referred to committee on streets and public property. Committee on ordinance, instructed to draft ordinance laying out street. Petition No. 2, street in Looney addition, referred to committee on streets and public property. Committee of health and police reported that they have secured the books and town property from the ex-marshal, and hereby turn them over to the council. Committee on finance, instructed to settle with ex-marshal. Report of committee on finance, received and filed, and accepted. Report that they have settled with J. D. Lockman, ex-marshal. Bills allowed: G. W. Bea, $3.50; J. D. Lock name, $29.50. Ordinance No. 27, (cow ordinance) read the third time and put upon its passage. On vote being taken the following concurred voted: Swinburn, Minor, Natter and McAtee. Nay: Noble. Ordinance declared passed. Council adjourned.

REDEMPTION HAS A DAUGHTER.—Walla Walla Statesman, October 12: Our old friend, Col. J. W. Redington, is to-day the happiest man in the whole United States and the reason thereof is that his beloved wife has presented him with a darling daughter. Now then Johnny will have something to take an interest in and bring up in the way she should go, and her his vine and fig tree can relate to her his old-time experiences by flood and field during the Indian wars. Together we have experienced some of the most desperate adventures, and Johnny has always been a good one to tie to.

Investigation has proved that the Chinese meat vendors of San Francisco are selling decomposed hogs next door to their customers. An inspection of the longos of hogs in one establishment showed that they had suffered with, and perhaps died with cholera.

A few more good rains, followed by warm weather, will make some fall and winter picking for sheep, but if it don't come, it will be difficult to say in what condition they will be found in the spring. However, sheepmen are pretty well provided with hay for the severe winter weather.

Married.—In Pilot Rock, Oct. 8, Mr. A. D. Johnson, of Heppner, to Miss Jessie Sharon, of Pilot Rock. Mr. Johnson has only resided in Heppner a few months, but during that time he has made many friends, who sincerely wish him and his bride a store of happiness in their journey down the path of life. Ben. Case killed a porcupine in the undisturbed kitchen up at Sterling Smith's place, last Monday morning. He tried to capture the thing alive, but it made such a vigorous defense, that he was compelled to kill it. It threw quills several yards, and with such force as to penetrate the flesh through heavy woolen clothing.

On the evening of the 12th inst., the republicans had quite a demonstration in Portland—the procession being over a mile long. Mr. J. G. Maddock has resigned his position as cashier of the First National Bank, to take effect Nov. 1st. Mr. Geo. W. Connor, of Arlington, has accepted the place, and will come up some time this month and bring the ropes of the institution before getting down to hard work. LCG CABIN LOGIC. Brawn and Brain! The powerful engine, with its wonderful propelling power, coupled to the long train full freighted with the richest fabrics of the intellectual looms of the centuries—what obstacles can stay the progress of this mighty force, when once under full steam along life's highway. The American with brawn and brain does not see the necessity for titles of nobility, does not care for elevation by descent, he can reach out and pluck the stars. But with brawn and brain impaired, a man is badly handicapped in the mad race for success which is the marked characteristic of our age. The human physical system is a most intricate piece of machinery. It ought to be kept well regulated, so that it will work harmoniously in all its parts, and thus capable of an immense amount of work. It is said that a watch, if expected to keep perfect time, must be wound daily. It will not keep good time unless it "runs regular." More men break down because they don't "run regular" than for any other reason. It is claimed by physicians that few men are killed by hard work. It is the irregularities of modern social life that the high death rate is due. Men wonder why they die so quickly, then burn their candles at both ends, then regret that they have not done so. The man thing in keeping the human machine in good working order is to keep "the regular" and sound health is assured so long as the blood flows through the veins a limpid stream of purity. Regulate the regulator with Warner's Log Cabin sarsaparilla, the old-fashioned blood purifier, prepared after the best formula in use by our ancestors in good old Log Cabin days, and with the vigor of brawn and brain which must ensue, in your life's lexicon you will find no such words as fail.

THRIFT AND TRADE. Wall paper at Minor, Dodson & Co's. Mrs. S. P. Garrigues has added clothes to her neat stock of ladies' furnishing goods. If you desire the latest and neatest styles, be sure to call on her. She has just received a lot of gilt-edged, Camas prairie butter at Johnstone & Smith's. Try it. Now, the Heppner has an office but he don't occupy it but very little. His business is at the forge, mending broken agricultural machinery, shoeing horses and the like, all of which will suit any portion of the Heppner country, both as to price and quality of work. Gilliam & Coffey are prepared to fit a man out with any kind of outfit to be found in a first-class hardware store. They will sell you nails to fix up your fence when your neighbor's cows break it down, or fit you out with kitchen utensils when you get married. A full supply of school books and stationery at Minor, Dodson & Co's. When you go to Arlington stop with Billy Theodosia, at the Stanford house. If you want a red pump that is not only neat and attractive in appearance but also able to do good service in getting the water of the Heppner hills up to the surface, call on Leazer & Thompson. Sacks furnished for wheat at Sperry Mills. Johnson & Smith are selling all kinds of groceries at astonishingly low figures, and will pay every inhabitant of these ancient Heppner hills to patronize them. Day street, opposite Minor, Dodson & Co's. There's no use looking blue, even though wool don't sell very high. E. J. Slocum & Co. have a full line of ready-made suits, ready to be made to order, and they are sure to suit you. Rasmus, the dentist, will fill teeth, or extract the same, on a splendid manager. It is a fact well known by all "art organists," both of Europe and America that the "Estey" is the sweetest voiced, most human toned, least ready in tone, and easiest in response to touch of any organ manufactured in the world. Gents, if you need anything in the furnishing goods line, call on Vanduyck. He has a full line of customers, neckties and laundered shirts; also a full line of boys' shirts and underwear, children's suits, knee pants and waists, all cheap for cash. A new stock of carpets at Minor, Dodson & Co's. Dr. Vaughn will consent to act as agent for a new paper, whenever his professional duties lead him to localities where he can do any good in that line. However, that does not prevent him from extracting and filling teeth in a first-class manner. Sperry is paying 50 cents for wheat and furnishes sacks. Town Marshal: "Don't ride your horse so hard. Tell man on horseback, 'O, I know what I am about. I'm bound for E. J. Slocum & Co's drug shop to purchase the finest toilet outfit in the Heppner hills." All kinds of hardware, tinware and crockery, also wagons, farm machinery, pumps, gas-pipe, nails, etc., for sale by the new firm of Gilliam & Coffey. The firm of Johnson & Smith are prepared to furnish you with fresh vegetables and all kinds of fresh groceries. Look well to your interest and patronize them. Flour exchanged for wheat at Sperry Mills. When man gets so that he can't speak pleasant to his wife, he must have either the childing or the toothaches. Dr. Vaughan, the dentist, is a sure cure for the latter. FOR SALE.—J. W. Sweeney, of Galloway, Or., has good sheep ranges to rent and hay for sale. Stock pastured at $1 per head. SHOW YOUR FATHER.—C. E. Fell, proprietor of the Heppner nursery, offers to sell two and three-year-old apple trees at his regular advertising price of $5 per tree—payable when Harrison is elected president. Show your father, democrats. Lost.—A red leather pocket-book, belonging to Bishop & Bishop's mill, containing $70 in money. Also some notes and valuable papers. A liberal reward will be given for the return of the same to me. Wm. PENLAND. NOTE.—All notes or accounts due me must be settled on or before Nov. 1, 1888. After that date the same will be left in the hands of an attorney for collection. J. B. NATTER. LAND BUSINESS.—Come to the Gazette shop and have your proving up started by a sheet that wishes you properly regardless of your religious, political, etc., proclivities. The clerk and judge live right here at Heppner, and is in another more convenient. Billy Morrow is ready to take your filings, and will do the business in first-class shape. WELL CHOSEN.—Many merchants fail to sell their goods on account of their not being of a first-class character. But you need not be uneasy in regard to Harry Johnson's stock of candies, nuts, cigars, tobacco, etc. They are fresh and well-sorted, and his stock warrants your trade. Next door to First National Bank, Jones' building. STATED.—One bay mare, 5 years old, weighs 1200; branded J on left shoulder. A sorrel mare with bald face and white hind feet; weighs 1000; 6 years old and same brand. A 2-year-old sorrel mare with white strip in face and white hind feet; weighs 800, and has the same brand. I will pay $100 piece for their return to Henry Gay's ranch on Idaea creek. J. R. COVAY.

Prudence! Prudence! In medication, as in aught else, prudence should be your guide. Yet those who trust to the winds. Every new nostrum finds its patrons, the medical empirics of every false school have their gulls. Every change in the amount of lunacy is being successfully—for a time at least—the notes being furnished by the credulous. In happy contrast to the many advertised impostures of the day stands Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, no matter how long the disease has existed, and recommended by the physicians, endorsed by the press of many lands, sought by invalids everywhere. It is an ascertained specific for and pre-ventive of malarial diseases, chronic indigestion, liver complaint and constipation, checks the growth of rheumatism and neuralgia, is a powerful purgative and useful diuretic. Nervous people benefit by it.
