JOHN L. DRAGGED TO JAIL

After an Exciting Struggle With the Nashville Police.

HE SOON REGAINED HIS LIBERTY.

Kilrain in Danger of Similar Treatment—A Reward of $500 Offered for His Arrest—Their Movements.

NASHVILLE, July 11.—When the Louisville & Nashville train pulled into this city this morning, a crowd of negroes gathered to see John L. Sullivan. A reporter soon obtained circulation that a request was in the hands of the police, several of whom had boarded the car.

There was some discussion and finally a struggle was seen inside the car and an officer reached over with his hands, and seizing the slogger's arms, pulled him out into the aisle. Sullivan resisted and Muldoon put his head out of the window and called to the crowd: "Gentlemen, I demand American protection!"

"His patriotic will was greeted with a variety of responses. Sullivan begged him to "knock the copper out," and others cried "Hurray for the Nashville police!"

"He hit with your club," etc.

After a brief struggle Sullivan was taken from the car to a carriage. In the scuffle, he drew back to knock down a police man, when Chief Black struck a
