FORT WORTH, Tex., Sept. 25.—Last night, as the north-bound Santa Fe train was pulling out of Crowley, ten miles south of this city, three men boarded the train and two others jumped on the locomotive. The two on the engine put pistols to the heads of the engineer and firemen, and when two miles from Crowley ordered a stop. The robbers then cut the engine, baggage and express cars loose from the rest of the train, and ordered the engineer to pull half a mile
