Among the Latest Novelties are Ladies' Dress Goods, Garments, Trimmings, Etc. Their Celebrated Boot called "Blackman's Best" Is unsurpassed for durability.

WANTED. A situation for man and wife. Can give good references as to respectability and worth. Address Heppner, Oregon.
WILL LOWER THE LEVY. The Oregon Statesman says: "There are now filed with the Secretary of State..."
DISSENT PATRONAGE. Billy Morrow has recently been charged of the lively and fed stable, well and favorably known as the "Dove Stable" where he hopes to see his old friends when they come to town, and have a continuation of former patronage. Don't pass Billy's stand with your horses, but drive right in. Feed and rig hire very reasonable.
SAN INTELLIGENCE. Theodore Danber in receipt of a card from relatives at Little Rock, Arkansas, informing him of the sudden death of his father by falling from scaffolding on Tuesday week, breaking his neck. The old gentleman was a resident of Farmer City, Ill., but has been visiting relatives at Little Rock for the past year or so, following the death of a carpenter. He was 65 years of age.
A MAIL ROUTE TO LONE ROCK NEEDED. The people of Lone Rock want a direct mail route to Heppner. At present it takes seven days to get a letter from Heppner to Lone Rock, and this condition of matters should no longer exist. Lone Rock is in the midst of a live stock country, and is advancing rapidly with the surrounding territory. Heppner will no doubt assist the Lone Rock people in securing a first-class mail route.
AN ACTIVE DEFENDER OF SETTLERS. Capt. A. H. Waters, ex-U. S. marshal, and a resident of Brown, Harney county, stopped in Heppner last Sunday on his way to Portland. The captain is a well known and while a defender of the settlers over there, an active enemy of the "swamp angels." A short time ago he was anonymously lauded in the county, but he maintained a bold front and stayed with them. He thinks of establishing a live paper at Harney in the near future.
UNION MER HARRY A. ROYCE. E. O. Scroggins, Nov. 8, reports the visit of one Harry A. Royce, representing himself to be the "Wagon" man, who was in Chicago later in the year. A dozen victims mourn the loss of a dollar each, that paper reporting, "we have no western agents." About fifty good people of Heppner, can sympathize with them, as they too regret their short acquaintance with the said Royce. Let the press everywhere sound the alarm, and prevent their readers from being swindled, and perhaps aid in arresting the fraud.
TO CONSUMPTION. The undersigned having been restored to health by simple means, after suffering for several years with a severe lung affection and that dread disease, consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure. To those who desire it, he will cheerfully send (free of charge) a copy of the prescription used, which they will find a sure cure for consumption, asthma, cough, bronchitis, and all throat and lung maladies. He hopes all sufferers will try his remedy, as it is invaluable. Those desiring the prescription, which will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing, will please address, Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburg, King's county, New York.

THE TIME MOUNTAINERS say: In conversation with persons who have heard from all portions of the county we learn that fall grass is growing nicely, and that it is better than that in past years. Stock is in good condition, and no more than an average loss may be expected this winter.
H. B. GAUNT received this week a check for $500 in payment for pension which has been long due him for services as a soldier during the Mexican war. It is gratifying to know that these old patriots are receiving recognition at the hands of the government which has served well in our long history.
E. O. Scroggins reports from Sprague, Wash., that Win. Bowman, well known here, is under $200 bonds to appear before the grand jury on the charge of selling 200 weathers to the City of Astoria, and Spokane parties. Bowman has for some time been running Mr. Adams and Geo. Snyder's sheep.
The hotel facilities of our city seem to be inadequate to the demands upon them. It is necessary for our landlords to seek private accommodations for their guests almost daily. This state of affairs will only exist until more commodious accommodations can be provided.
The county court of Gilliam county is determined to do its duty toward the protection of the property of its citizens as to the "Coke" case. It is the duty of the court to see that the law is enforced, and the reward for arrest and conviction of horse thieves for $100, cannot be too highly commended.
By lay out our enterprising merchants and load wagons with supplies enroute to the Long Creek country and other localities. This is a story often told, yet is a pleasing one for our business men. Let the merchants and the people, the merchandise, and give prices to suit all.
The building on Main street, between the store buildings occupied by H. Blackman & Co. and Coffin & McFarland was moved early this week to Heppner's property on the corner of Willow and Chase streets where it will be fitted up for incidental purposes.
Willow's Obituary, Nov. 7: Three of the most prominent business men of Enterprise were arrested on the charge of keeping their places of business open on Sunday, in violation of the city ordinance. They all plead guilty, paid their fines and were turned loose.
The report now comes that Gibbs, the negro ruffian, had been captured by Deputy Sheriff Gato on Powder river and was expected to reach the Union county jail Monday night, but later news confirms the fact of another case of mistaken identity.
According to the Long Creek Eagle, the merchants of that place are better prepared for the coming winter than ever before. From the amount of merchandise coming to Heppner this fall, destined for that point, the Eagle must be correct.
The fast mail train from the east will not make any change of time between Umatilla and Portland. The gain in time, however, will make the short line train connect with the S. P. train at Umatilla and the east-bound night train will be the flyer.
It is supposed that the revenues from license of saloons in Tacoma, will be nearly doubled, from the rate recently established, with a decrease of the number of saloons.
A Harmon, of the German Lutheran church, will preach in the school house here on Sunday morning, Nov. 21, at 11 o'clock. Service in the German language.
Thomas Ellis, an old citizen of Waukegan, and a blacksmith by occupation, was found dead in bed Nov. 5. An overdose of alcohol was the cause.
Win. Dent, representing C. H. Dell & Co., returned to Heppner on yesterday's train, returning to the main line this morning.
"It's only a question of time" and a short time, too, as to when your rheumatism will yield to Hood's Sarsaparilla. Try it.
Strangers find that the Gazette represents Heppner as it is, and that the live business houses patronize its columns.
The lower house of the Washington legislature was organized Nov. 8, at Olympia with Feilchen as speaker.
Grain and stock markets are about the same as last week. Wool is dull sale. Very little change.
The family of J. C. Hart, O. R. & N. agent at this place, arrived from Kansas on yesterday's train.
Ralph, son of E. R. Bishop, was accidentally burned in the face with scalding water last Tuesday evening.
Married—In Heppner, Nov. 13, by G. W. Lee, J. P., Mr. Thomas Kenworthy to Miss Frances Neelke.
The new 13-story building of the St. Paul Pioneer Press is completed and ready for occupancy.
Born—In Heppner on the 13th inst., to the wife of J. M. Hager, a girl.
Gertrude Bishop is seriously ill with diphtheria.

LONE ROCK.
Belle's Remarks Relating to That Section and Its People.
A chronic grumbler is as detestable as a box of patent pills, and the so-called "river regulator" of a community only to be tolerated in extreme cases. However, what we want to say is that our community is badly in need of a good snail, not a member of the almost exclusively female and short-spined class which a man of this profession could find no better location in Eastern Oregon. We also need a good general store, and we have the country to support it, a fact visible to any one who will interest themselves sufficiently to investigate.
Mrs. Andrew Neal has been visiting relatives in Heppner this week.
That horrid road—the mention of which sends a chill up the spinal column of man and beast, Butternut canyon, is now in better condition than ever before. This is startling intelligence to many, and for this sake of affairs, our people are only to thank the humane county commissioners of Morrow county.
The Lone Rock people are protesting against their present mail facilities. We have no direct communication with any part of the country, and the distance from Heppner to Lone Rock (Long Valley) and Condon. At present, we can, if good luck and plenty of it favors us, get an epistle to Heppner town, and then await the mail for several days—seven days—a distance from 30 miles. Would it be possible for our natives to get any aid in having a direct mail route to Heppner, now our metropolis, through that section, extending the same across the mountains? To this day and age it looks very selfish for Uncle Sam to cut us off from railroad communication for a period of two days—the time it requires a letter to reach Arlington—when we are almost in hearing of the iron horse.
Capt. H. Bellfield J. Fevre, the invincible buck herder, had learned the fundamentals of civilization, and is now a citizen of the Puget Sound country, in every sense of the word. Reluctantly "left" his old "stomping ground," even though our existence is not faintly to any alarming degree with what is termed "high life."
Like all other portions of Eastern Oregon, our hills and valleys are "swampy" of grass. There yet remains a small amount of sheep feed—a very small amount. Horses and cattle are being poorly. In fact, it is of the question among range cattle. In fact, all stock present about the same appearance they did of yore in the early spring time after a severe winter.
Let some what say: the dry hot winds of the north, the drool-like winter, the roaring winter, the streaks they are "holed." The sowing of the prolific reed, yre, has been almost universal this fall, and an abundant crop will surely be harvested next season.
Our little hamlet is now, for the first time in its history, the home of a real-estate expounder of the gospel. He is quite a curiosity.
ITS EXCELLENT QUALITIES.
Command to public approval. The California liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs. It is pleasing to the eye, and to the taste and by acting on the kidneys, cleansing the system, and acting effectively, thereby promoting the health and comfort of all who use it.
THE ELECTIONS.
The result of late elections have been a surprise to all of whatever party. The democrats claim it as an indication of a great change of sentiment in favor of the republican party, while the republicans place the blame to this effect, when their strength is not shown. But from all we can gather from the canvass and the situation of the eastern counties, national questions entered but little in the influence which directed the people to vote, as there were no national candidates on the ballot, and there are many and various local questions, which overshadowed all others at the present time, in their state contests.
The prohibition law in Iowa, and the temperance and Sunday laws in Ohio, and their particular effect and many other matters of a local nature which the experience of every citizen recall, here made the chief issues of the election, as the states which recently held elections, as no national issue was enlarged. We would not advise our friends to bank much on the next elections, because such important changes have been made this year.

GIBBS CAPTURED IN CALIFORNIA.—After a persistent search of nearly five weeks, Gibbs, the marauder of McDwitt at Portland, Oct. 11, was captured at Humboldt Bar, Cal., Nov. 4. There can be but little doubt that the man now held is the marauder, who, in the name of the State, was sent to Portland, have been recognized by many persons who know Gibbs well. They all declare the original of the photographs to be, undoubtedly, Gibbs. The necessary steps have been taken to bring him to Portland. For the capture of the vicious and dangerous marauder, the public are indebted for his capture to the untiring spirit of private citizens of Portland, and they have their reward in knowing that their liberality has resulted in success, and that they have the thanks of the citizens of Oregon.
Mrs. Sarah Hays returned on last Tuesday from a visit to her children in Idaho.
