C. W. Lomax & Co., 423, Fifth St., Portland, Or., are authorized to make advertising contracts for the Gazette. They will also make collections for this paper.

Here and There.

A bill is worse than a thief. Mr. S. P. Garrigue is in Portland. Fresh stock of fine candies at "The Model." Spring showers are bringing out the grass. J. B. Sperry returned from Oregon City last Tuesday. Receipt books for sale at the GAZETTE office at 25 cents each.

"The Model" keeps the best cigars in the market. Try their "Lion."

Old papers at the Gazette office at 75 cents per 100, or two bits a bunch, if by mail. Coffin & McFarland are reaching out in Grant county papers in new advertising.

Win. Hughes is afflicted with an attack of paralysis, but it is hoped that he will soon recover.

Fresh Eastern oysters at "The Model," $1.00 per can, or served in any style at 50 cents per dozen.

Judge Clifford will preside at the coming term of circuit court which will convene next Monday.

A. B. Mackey was up from Alpine this week and reports a loss of 300 out of 17,00 head of sheep.

Mrs. W. P. Dutton left on Wednesday's train to visit friends and relatives at Pendleton and LaGrange.

Catarah originates in a serious blood, and thus permanently cures catarrh.

The Goliadale Courier is the new exchange which comes from Goliadale, Wash. It starts out well and looks prosperous.

Mrs. S. P. Garrigue has made some noticeable changes in her May street millinery store, preparatory for spring trade.

Nels. Jones returned from Ontario last Monday, and left this morning for the John Day to look after stock interests there.

T. E. Fell returned from Portland on Tuesday's train, and Mayor Blackman also arrived home from Boise at the same time.

Note that Dr. Olympia S. Murray is a bill. Had we known his reputation his ad. would not have appeared in our columns.

The young son of James Fristoe was thrown from a horse one day last week and dragged quite a distance, receiving some severe bruises.

The fourth page of the GAZETTE is devoted largely to stock and agricultural matters. The Gazette is the paper for all. Subscribe now.

Nels. Jones has heard from his stock in Malheur county, and says he will not be out over 10 per cent of all the stock he has on Malheur's range.

Mr. Charles Black is in the city from Frazier's sheep camp on Birch creek. He reports that sheep are now all browsing on the range.—E. O.

When you pass through Long Creek, stop with Frank Waterbury at the Hardy House. The table is always supplied with the best in the market.

J. E. Frick, cashier of the First National Bank of Arlington, and Mr. A. A. Jayne a popular attorney at that place, were in Heppner this week on business.

Messrs. Brown & Hamilton will attend to our local collections. The editor has not the time to spare to look after that branch of the business, which is quite an essential one.

A protracted meeting will be held at the Methodist church South; services beginning Saturday evening March 22nd, and continuing over charge of Rev. Mr. Richardson.

Our council did not meet on last Monday evening, owing to non-attendance of councilmen. City officers should not miss a meeting at this particular juncture in Heppner's affairs.

At the annual encampment of the G. A. R. at Eugene last week, J. A. Varley, of the Dalles, was elected Deputy Commander. Astoria was selected as the next place of meeting.

Ed. Cox was over from Heppner last Thursday and states that L. B. Rider, a painter and paper-hanger, was preparing to leave the country. He had numerous creditors here, it was investigated. From all appearances the rumor was true, and Mr. Rider was brought back to town to settle up before going away. However, as he had nothing worth mentioning, the larger creditors got but little, and the smaller, "harry a bean." This is foolish for a young man, particularly as good a mechanic as Mr. Rider had proved himself to be, who is just beginning to establish in a way to make money. It is presumed that Rider got away with a small amount of cash, but entirely too little for a man to sacrifice his reputation.

DR. PLANT'S REMEDY, for the man or woman who finds himself or herself unable to sleep, is an invulnerable medicine, which will not only procure the blessing of sleep, but will prevent general breaking down of the whole system. Description in bottle, and sent by mail, or address Mack Drug Co., N. Y.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.—The dance given at the opera house last Monday eve, St. Patrick's day, by Messrs. Mallock & Koeny was not so largely attended as anticipated, yet all enjoyed themselves. The supper prepared by Jack Gray for that occasion was as fine as ever served in Heppner, yet it was so poorly patronized that Mr. Gray is considerably out of pocket.

STRAYS.—The GAZETTE knows of the whereabouts of two stray geldings, a sorrel and bay, branded 73 or 75, also two bay or chestnut colts, a brown and black. The owner of these animals can learn their whereabouts by calling at this office and paying for local.

Gov. Rea's new office, next door to the GAZETTE, is assuming shape, and will be ready for the Gov.

I. N. Basey is making quite an addition to his Mountain House, above the GAZETTE office.

Mrs. J. R. Simpson mourns the loss of 325 head of her cattle in the last storm, losing one out of three head.

Johnny Beeler has just returned from a trip to the Sound. He thinks Fort Townsend is the best town in that section.

F. O. Beckman, of the Lombard Inv. Co., was in Heppner last week. He has all notes and accounts that are not settled in the hands of an attorney for immediate collection, add all those having claims against me must collect by above date.

Hon. W. F. Mallock came over from Pendleton last Thursday and left Monday for Portland, accompanied by T. J. Mallock, of Heppner.

Mrs. A. J. Stevenson and children will move to their skinner ranch in the near future. They have been residing in Heppner the past winter to avail themselves of school privileges.

The best information from Morrow county is to the effect that the loss in cattle will be 50 per cent, and in sheep 20 to 30 per cent. The crop prospects are excellent, and next summer—Salem Statesman. Relative to stock losses in Morrow county, this estimate is entirely too large. About one-half the above would come near the correct thing.

JURY LIST.

Following is the jury list for the ensuing term of circuit court which convenes at Heppner on the 24th instant: Heppner—Elias Friend, E. Nordyke, D. W. Hornor, J. A. W. Coffey, A. H. Slamp, Chas. Lind and Preston Looney. Lone—N. B. Williams, E. G. Sperry, Frank Wilson, W. A. Allen and H. Padgett. Eight Mile—Olof Bergstrom, F. M. Holmes, J. H. Matthews, H. M. Vaughan, T. M. Hastings, E. F. Dedon and A. F. Courter. Will Spring—W. W. Samsel. Matteson—H. Schweitzer.

THE BEST RESULT.

Every ingredient employed in producing Hood's Sarsaparilla is strictly pure, and the best of its kind it is possible to buy. All the roots and herbs are carefully selected, personally examined, and only the best retained. So that from the time of purchase until Hood's Sarsaparilla is prepared, everything is carefully watched with a view to attaining the best result. Why don't you try it?

LONG CREEK NEWS.

Punished by the Popular Porous Plaster of the creek.

J. P. Rhen, one of the leading stockmen of Morrow county, is in the Long Creek section buying sheep.

We are informed that Frank Kellogg of Heppner was an aspirant for joint senatorial honors on the Democratic ticket.

Wm. Radio disposed of his ranch on the John Day recently to Emmett Cochran, a rancher and stockman of that section. Consideration, $7000.

Grant county was among the first to pay into the state treasury the requisite fund. If her sister counties do, she will be N. G., she generally gets there first.

W. R. Ellis, of Morrow county was spoken of as a candidate for congressman at the meeting of the republican state central committee at Portland on the 5th inst. Certainly East Oregon would not object to see one of her residents succeed.

Joe Barker, the deaf and dumb fellow of the Middle Fork section, who was charged and bound over for larceny of horses, had his hearing last week in the circuit court, and though the grand jury found a bill against him, through the able assistance of Judge Downing he was found not guilty and was acquitted. He passed through Long Creek last Saturday enroute to Rutter, via "hoof express," appearing as happy as a clam.

OUR SUPPLEMENT.

The Heppner GAZETTE issued a fine supplement and description of Heppner last week.—Yamhill county Ledger.

The Heppner GAZETTE comes to us this week bright and new, as ever, and containing as a supplement an excellent written description and illustrated pamphlet describing Heppner and its surroundings. Such enterprises have its effect on the people of a town.—Heat Side.

This week, the Heppner GAZETTE came to our table accompanied by an elegant supplement very appropriately advertising the desirable features of Heppner and Morrow. This is evidence to the people that locally have a proper appreciation of their home paper.—Border Signal.

The Heppner GAZETTE this week contains a supplement a well written description of a city and its surroundings. It speaks well for Heppner that it has such a well edited newspaper, and well for the paper that it has cast its lines in such a prosperous community.—Portland Oregonian.

A finely illustrated 8 page pamphlet, and accompanying map, entitled Heppner, issued as a supplement to the Heppner GAZETTE is out and reflects great credit upon the wise and able people of Heppner. Also a 10 page pamphlet of Heppner's high school.—Fossil Journal.

We are in receipt of this week of the supplement of the Heppner Weekly GAZETTE, and also a pamphlet showing the course of study of the high school of that place. This supplement is a fine work and shows much enterprise in the GAZETTE in getting it up. It is well illustrated, giving views of the city, map of country and also views of business houses, churches, etc., and gives a general description of the town and its business; in short, just the thing to induce immigration.—Milton Eagle.

MOUNTAIN VALLEY ITEMS.

Our winter in the valley was almost like the Irishman's winter in Minnesota: "Nix nix nix winter and three months late in the fall," but the welcome chinook will soon take it away if it continues like it has for the last two days.

The losses in horses and cattle are small in the valley.—The former five head and the latter eight up to this writing.

The loss of sheep is large. J. L. Galtford lost 300 head; J. W. Salisbury, 600.

The surprise party at C. R. Cate's last Friday eve, was a success.
