The boys here have had no general "skate" for some time.

W. S. Scott, the mill man, was down from the Blues this week.

Mrs. Johnny Hager and children are visiting relatives near Felto.

Encourage our land. The boys have the right spirit and they need help.

Tom Williams passed through town this week on his way to the Dalles.

Dr. Lewis and wife, accompanied by J. W. Bedford, visited Heppner Tuesday.

Mr. Gagen, of Pendleton, has shipped in works for the manufacture of soda water.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Harris left Lexington on Saturday train in quest of a new location.

Old papers for sale at the Gazette office at 15 cents per bunch, or 50 cents per hundred.

Ben Parker showed up last week after a hard winter, and seemed much like Ben of last year.

Ted Minor was in town last week, and reports 85 per cent. in sheep. He had 3000 head.

Capt. Homer McFarland has recently received his brand of high baritone horns, the newest in the land.

During the Dickens' trial last week the court room was crowded with spectators, both ladies and gentlemen.

It has been reported that A. Andrews had withdrawn from the race for sheriff. However he is still in the field.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Jayne, of Arlington, visited Heppner, Sperry and family last week, returning home on Saturday.

Mrs. Douglas, accompanied by her little son, arrived from Nova Scotia last Monday to join her husband at Heppner.

John English is back from Illinois on a visit. At present, he is engaged in the wholesale grocery business at Danville.

Jons Davidson and wife left Tuesday for Spokane Falls where they will likely remain. Our best wishes go with them.

The basis of representation is one delegate for every 25 voters or fraction of that number over one-half, cast for county at large, and one delegate for each precinct.

The names of the candidates for each precinct are as follows:

- Heppner..... 4 Lexington..... 4 Dairy..... 5 Eight Mile..... 4 Dry Fork..... 2 Pine..... 3 Pine City..... 2 Lone..... 2 West Spring..... 2 Matteson..... 2 Castle Rock..... 1

John H. Brown, Secretary, D. C. Ely, Chairman.

THE SPINNING MEDICINE.

The popularity which Hood's Sarsaparilla has gained as a spinning medicine is wonderful. It possesses just those elements of health-giving, blood-purifying and appetite-restoring which every body needs to secure good health. Do not continue in a dull, tired, unsatisfactory condition when you may be so much benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which purifies the blood and makes the weak strong.

The most graphic and artistic engravings published by any illustrated weekly in the United States are the large colored plates in the West Shore. In its contents and general nature this is the best illustrated paper resident in the Pacific coast to date. It deals with subjects he is interested in, and during the year he is sure to find something in it that he desires to read. The year's subscription is for $4.00 a year for fifty-two numbers, making a splendid volume of engravings. L. SACKETT, Publisher Portland, Or.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.

IMPORTANT.

It is quite important in business to have cash. The firm of Gilliam & Coffey having dissolved partnership, all debts due to either party are hereby notified to come in and settle by cash or note. This notice is not published for fun, but we mean just what we say. GILLIAM & COFFEY.

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.

The partnership heretofore existing between Frank Gilliam and John W. Coffey doing business under the firm name of Gilliam & Coffey is this day dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. T. H. Babco having purchased the interest of John W. Coffey. The business will hereafter be conducted under the firm name of Gilliam & Babco, the late firm of Gilliam & Coffey, and to whom all accounts due said firm must be paid.

6-71 Dated March 22, 1890. GILLIAM & COFFEY.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will contribute to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when $100 of a year's expenditure the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

Al. Campbell was jailed here yesterday charged with the larceny of a watch. His examination took place today, and the young man was released from custody.
