Two Trains Daily Between Portland and Heppner. Effective May 11th, 1890, the Union Pacific System will establish two daily trains between Portland and Spokane Falls.

DR. B. F. VAUGHAN. DENTIST. PLATE WORK A SPECIALTY. Extracting and Filling by the Latest and Most Improved Methods.

A. C. Pettys was in town yesterday. Tomorrow's crop prospects were never so bright.

N. L. Robinson, the port merchant, is below. Mr. C. M. Mallory is almost on the sick list.

Miss Jones got back from Malheur yesterday. The hotel foundation is rapidly nearing completion.

Wonder who edited the GAZETTE this week? Miss Martha Matlock is convalescing from a severe illness.

A Wright leaves to-day for the valley to be absent about ten days. H. B. Hendricks, special agent of the State Insurance Co., is in town.

Frank Snow, editor of the Budget, was in town early this week. Dan Horner has gone east to look after the state of the horse market.

Misses Etta Swartz and Allie Gilmore visited in Heppner over Sunday. Col. Jack Morrow and Gov. Bea are sojourning at McDuffie hot springs.

Hugh Fields purchased Jerry Brown's outfit yesterday, at 15 cents per pound. Will Salting is at present with Mr. C. S. VanDyke, the May street grocer and clothier.

On the 20th of last month, the wife of H. C. Gay presented him with twins, a boy and girl.

Hon. J. B. Sperry is at Astoria, Oregon, where he is engaged in connection with the Sperry in Heppner.

Wm. Blair, candidate for county judge on the republican ticket, was in Heppner last Friday.

Tons of merchandise for John Day city and other towns of that section are arriving at the warehouse.

Wm. Hughes is down to Heppner last Monday for the first time in several weeks. His many friends are pleased to see him about again.

Frank Elder returned home last Monday from Portland where he has been attending Bishop Scott's Academy.

Among the veteran drummers in Heppner this week, we notice the presence of J. D. Kennedy and Julius Friedland.

The Seattle Budget has made its appearance at the GAZETTE office. It is a very interesting Saturday evening sheet.

A laundry stamp to blacken one of our citizens was made last Tuesday evening. The time has come when this kind of business must stop.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is a purely vegetable preparation, free from injurious ingredients. It is peculiar in its curative power.

There remains, uncollected for in the Arlington postoffice, letters addressed as follows: Joe Marner, Chas. E. Penness, Mrs. E. A. Stephens, Geo. Valentine.

When you pass through Long Creek, stop with Frank Waterbury at the Heppner Hotel. The table is always supplied with the best in the market.

Are you married? If not, send your address with stamp, to the American Correspondence Club, P. O. Box 643, Clarksville, Va. 370-422.

Married—At the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. C. L. Kramien, at Batsville, Or., on May 7, 1890, Emory Hodson, of Lexington, and Miss Minnie Kramien, of Batsville.

During the past week heavy rains have fallen in Jackson, Douglas and Josephine counties. Eastern Oregon has not been alighted in the matter of moisture, and bountiful crops are assured.

Hon. Henry Blackman of Heppner, our candidate for the office of joint senator, was in Heppner on the 16th of the month.

We speak for Mr. Blackman a hearty welcome to Heppner.

E. L. Matlock, who is at present engaged in gathering up his horses, reports a small loss in his band, so far as he can learn. From what he can see of Morrow's horses, there was little loss, generally.

Hon. W. R. Ellis will address the Republicans of Western Oregon, on political issues of the day, and will leave for the scene of his labors the latter part of this week.

Col. Tom Morgan, who drove the first stage coach into Canyon City from the Dalles in the early sixties, was in town during the week. Mr. Morgan is now a resident of Heppner—Canyon City News.

Mr. H. Blackman, Mayor of Heppner and candidate for joint senator is in the city in company with Senator Hamilton. Mr. Blackman made the News a pleasant call, and is quite a social gentleman.

The News office has been discontinued for the time being, but will be re-established soon. Until such time subscribers of the Gazette will get their papers at the publisher's office at the Pendleton stage delivering them at that place.

The story is being circulated that W. L. Salting, candidate for county school superintendent on the republican ticket, is in a combination to force teachers' wages up to the highest point. This is false in every respect, and is talked to hurt Mr. Salting.

Freeman Greene stopped Chas. Nelson, E. J. Keeny's bar-tender, last night, at the News office, for doing an illegal act. Mr. Greene is the most acceptable style. The marshal took care of Mr. Greene. The whole matter was settled this morning before the recorder.

The entertaining firm of Gilliam & Bisbee present to their patrons this week a new idea of what they call in stock. They are doing a larger business this year than ever before, and for this reason, they are keeping their doors before the people.

C. C. Sargent, of Mitchell, has purchased the interest of Mr. Bullock in the Heppner Feed Yard. Mr. Sargent will continue in the business of the firm name now being that of Keeler & Sargent. They have added rigs and livery stock, and ask for a continuance of patronage at the old stand. See their new ad.

An excursion train will leave Heppner next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, on the Cascade Locks, to witness the Harvest Queen pass over the rapids at that place. The round trip has been paid for the low price of $2.50. The usual price is $12.50, and all should avail themselves of this opportunity for a vacation.

The Budget will no doubt imagine that all Mr. Morrow county is contributing to our editorial columns before the campaign is ended. However, this work is done by our regular editorial force, and the Budget's attempt to ring in three outsiders in a temporary force, fails miserably. But that paper must have something to say.

The friends of Blackman are much encouraged by reports from all sections of the district. The News Herald says, that democrats and many republicans are supporting Blackman, and from Grant county, that he is well received in that county, and will hold his own in June. A full turn-out of his friends at the polls will insure his election.

Reports from all parts of the county are favorable to the success of the republican ticket, and do not confirm the brag and bluster of the Budget about great dissatisfaction with and split of the republican party on their county ticket. Any dissatisfied number of disappointed men, as is the case in all contests for office.

Newt, Jones and a young fellow employed in the Excelsior Soda works had a scarp down at the trouble last Friday. The marshal stopped the trouble before any damage was done, and placed both boys under arrest. They pleaded guilty before the recorder's court Saturday.

J. B. Hunt has made the round trip to John Day City, Dayville and Canyon City with goods from Coffin & McFarland's. The roads are now in good condition for teaming.

There are at present 40,000 pounds of freight in the Heppner warehouse for Lucas Grant county towns, and in a few days big teams will be in to haul it out. Surely Heppner is growing in favor as a shipping and trading point.

Every reader of the GAZETTE ought to know by this time that Brown & Hamilton are one local collector—not an attorney, but as attaches of the GAZETTE office, and no reasonable man should take offense at the same.

At any rate it is necessary, from lack of time, to follow this course in getting together our few details in this cold, cold world.

The Budget's libelous note of last week is having the desired effect—in a horn. A second edition of the same stuff will go to appear in their issue of to-day, and they will go some more votes to the Blackman side.

Blackman has friends who don't like his politics, but we wanted above is causing them to become his staunch supporters.

To prevent any misconception, and necessity of the editor of the Budget counting and guessing his men in back—100 broadsides, and that all political articles and notes in this number were written by its editor, and no body else.

The Reynolds Bros. and crew of eight men, who are supposed to be the champion shepherds of the northwest, after doing the Heppner country for some weeks, departed for Sprague, Wash., last Monday where they have a contract to shear about 70,000 sheep.

Without casting a shadow on the name of George Noble, the GAZETTE can consistently ask every republican to support A. Andrews. He is a gentleman in every respect, quite equal to his opponent, and is well qualified for the office of sheriff.

Congressman Hermann has been assigned in his labors to secure regular mail service between Heppner and Fossil. Last Monday for the first time in several weeks, the department assured him that the request would be granted, and the service put on as early as possible.

E. Campbell, of Vinson, is hauling this year's clip to Heppner. Why? Because he finds that Heppner is the best wool market in Eastern Oregon. He took his wool to Pendleton last year, consigned and came out lower.

J. H. McHaley and family arrived in Heppner from their "Wetfoot" ranches last Tuesday. They were for Grant county in a few days. The whole of Western Oregon, Mr. Mc informs us, is needing rain badly.

The Grande dining room of Arlington, is now under the superior management of the same old staff, but we failed to see where Mr. Miller made a single point on the political issues of the day.

Prof. Leroy tells a good story and holds up his position and the future of Heppner. He gave the present incumbent of the office for which he is seeking, some hard blows, which is to be expected in political contests.

THE DEMOCRATIC SPEAKING.—Last evening the citizens of Heppner were addressed by Col. R. A. Miller, democratic candidate for sheriff, and Prof. Leroy on the same ticket for superintendent of public instruction. Both gentlemen are pleasant speakers, but we failed to see where Mr. Miller made a single point on the political issues of the day.

CHIEF.—At N. L. Robinson's on May street. Fine shows, at marvellously low prices. To avoid receiving stock to Portland, he will sell these fine goods for the few days as indicated above. See him.

REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE MEETING.—The republican central committee of Morrow county met yesterday in Heppner and made the following resolutions: For representative, A. C. Pettys, vice J. H. Stanley, resigned; for surveyor, W. Farman; for coroner, Dr. B. F. Vaughan.

A CAPABLE MAN.—The republican district convention have placed in nomination for prosecuting attorney of the seventh judicial district, W. H. Wilson, of the Dalles. Mr. Wilson is a lawyer of ability, a member of the law firm of Bennett & Morrow, well known to many residents of Morrow. This is an office in which politics should enter but little, and in Mr. Wilson the GAZETTE thinks it has the best man for the place, and so advises its friends.

A BIRD RANCH.—There are many old residents who do not realize that we have right in this country, one of the largest and most productive stock ranches in Eastern Oregon. It is the property of Wm. Penland, and contains 1,000 broadsides, well watered, and furnishes winter range for 20,000 head of sheep. This season Mr. Penland's wool clip amounts to 100,000 lbs., representing a net profit of thousands of dollars.

SPRINGER AID.—Wm. Scriver visited Dayville last Sunday to see his best girl no doubt, and the results are a wedding. He was accompanied by his wife, William says his horse fell on him on his return, disabling his right arm and shoulder, which is proving a serious ailment. He is now in the hospital, and although he is getting better, it is a question of the affair which can be learned by visiting the well-known blacksmith shop of Robert S. Howell, Heppner. Wm. is not on duty this week.

TO THE GAZETTE.—Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Natter and family left yesterday morning for the coast, and will, perhaps remain a year or more. Mr. Natter still retains a little of his old-time interest to benefit his wife's health, which he hopes to do 'mid the searching sea breeze. He is sincerely hoped that they will find health and happiness abroad, and return to live among us again.

DR. FLINT'S REMEDY must be taken when excessive or continuous muscular exertion, exciting passions, or over-indulgence, stimulating food or drink, or nervous disorders have long continued. Descriptive treatise with each bottle, or address Mack Drug Co., N. Y.
