ALLEN & RUDOLPH.

THE STORM IS OVER.—Politics and business are altogether different matters. The heat of the past conflict has passed away and all join in well-wishes to the successful candidates. J. W. Smith, of Arlington, is not in politics, although he is before the people for their patronage in the lines of general merchandise, and farming implements, the most worthy of the latter being that celebrated Haines Header. Buy it and have no other. 7-80

If any of our readers are not taking the weekly illustrated West Shore they ought to do so. It combines the desirable features of all the eastern weeklies and is superior to any one of them. Especially in its graphic pictures of western scenes it is of great interest. Aside from the local paper it is the best publication that can be taken, and should be in every house. Published by L. SAMUEL, Portland, Oregon, at $4.00 a year.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

I hereby give notice that George Conser, of Heppner, is authorized to collect all monies due or to become due to me from rents, notes or accounts of whatever nature, and to give receipts for all sums so paid him, in my name. I would also inform the public that I have sold all my Brewery accounts to Mr. Mat. Lichtenthal, of Heppner, who is alone authorized to collect the same.
