Arthur Coffin of Arlington is in the city today.

Mrs. Emma Plants, of Milton, is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. P. Garrigues, in this city.

Sun. Cannon left this week for Pendleton, where he will spend the summer in the harvest field.

Mrs. C. L. Andrews went to Albany, Or., on last Monday morning, where she will spend the summer.

Henry M. Stanley, the African explorer, was married to Miss Dorothy Tynant, at London, on July 12.

Thos. Danner, the photographer, took an excellent picture of Heppner Band on last Sunday evening.

Geo. Gray and family left on Monday's train for The Dalles, where they will remain a short time visiting relatives and friends on last Sunday evening.

Rev. A. Horn, German Lutheran minister, will hold service in the school house, Heppner, on Sunday, July 20, at 11 o'clock a. m.

J. C. Roberts and Oscar Borg received their uniforms Tuesday morning. Heppner Cornet Band now has eighteen men and all informed.

W. H. Crowley, of Long Creek, was in town several days this week. The shop acknowledges a pleasant call from the young gentleman.

Charles Jack Morrow returned from Chicago on Friday evening, where he has been attending a meeting of the World's Fair commissioners.

Anyone wanting a sewing machine should call on Mrs. Patterson at the "Model." She has a brand new one for sale very cheap. Call and see it.

The residence of J. W. Bosworth at Washburn, was burned last Thursday. Loss $2,000, insurance, $1,000.

Senator Blackman returned from San Jackson last Monday evening. He left Mrs. Blackman and the children there, where they will spend the remainder of the summer.

The death of General Fremont is announced in the Oregonian. He died on Sunday afternoon, in New York city, after a short illness, of peritonitis. His age was about 75 years.

All persons whose accounts at Leazer & Thompson's are due are requested to call and settle the same without delay as we are needing money and must have it, so do not procrastinate.

In our item about the fishing party of Dr. E. F. Vaughan, who should have come in for a share of the honors. We are sorry Doc for it was unintentional.

Col. T. A. Houghton, of The Dalles, paid Heppner and Co. E. 3rd Reg., O. N. G., a visit on Monday evening. He was accompanied by the Col. for their good attendance on drill that evening.

A. R. Johnson, of the firm of Johnston & Sloan, this week sold his share in the business to E. R. Howard. The business will be continued at the old stand, 2nd and 3rd Sts.

A. R. Hopkins, of Spokane Falls was in the city for several days of this week. He is a printer by trade, but is now looking for a location to start a newspaper. This office acknowledges a pleasant call from him.

Geo. Monroe, or "peg leg" as he is more commonly called, was arrested near Pendleton on Monday evening for drunk and disorderly. Tuesday morning he was brought before the recorder, who sentenced him to 30 days in the county jail.

The Pendleton people are over $200 short on their celebration expenses. The shortage will be made up by subscription, or otherwise it will have to be paid by the committee of arrangements.

TAKE IT BEFORE BREAKFAST. The great appetizer, tonic and liver regulator. In use for more than 50 years in England. Positive specific for liver complaint. Bad taste in the mouth arising in the morning, dull pain in the head and back of the eyes, tired feeling, dizziness, languor—symptoms of liver complaint. Remedy—Dr. Henley's English Dandelion Tonic. Relieves constipation, sharpens the appetite and tones up the entire system. Get the bottle from your druggist for $1, and take according to directions. 74-426.

GRANT COUNTY. From the Eagle: Wm. Hughes and Albert Matteson, of Heppner, are enjoying a recreation at the McDaniel Warm Springs. This week Stock inspector, Walker Hinton, Muncie, called upon us last Wednesday. He reports considerable scabby sheep in the county at present, especially on the South Fork of the John Day.

Thomny Keiffer came over from Heppner Monday, returning again Wednesday. He reports the feed yard business in this county is engaged, lively with prospects above, rendering him unconscious for some time but doing no serious injury more than impairing him for work for a few days.

J. B. Keeney informs our reporter that it is his intention to have his headquarters for his entire stage line from Heppner to Burns, here at Long Creek. This will make a ready market for any amount of grain and hay in this section. Having several "Essex" Oregon mail routes in charge, it delays him in putting his teams on the Heppner and Burns route for some time, but he assures us that he will have the line in good running order in the near future.

From the News: The mere fact of the prisoners escaping from the jail Sunday night caused a "creaky" feeling along the spine of many. It was just two years ago Saturday night when two prisoners murdered deputy sheriff Lockwood and escaped from the jail, and the excitement of that occasion is not easily shaken off or forgotten.

NO SUCH TROUBLE AT OUR HOUSE.—Exchange: Go stand where I have stood, go feel what I have felt, eat what I have eaten, and you will know what I have known. Go and take what I have taken, go bear what I have borne, throw leucopis at the cook and wash, as I have washed. Go live on juicy steak, and soggy bread half baked; at midnight lie awake and ache as I have ached. Go growl with all your might on tough doughnuts and pies, and stop before each breath to pick out hair and flies. Go do as I have done—make of yourself a fool, by wanting I won, girl from a cooking school.

SPECIAL EXCURSION TO SALT LAKE CITY. On Tuesday, July 22nd, low rates will be offered for the round trip between Union Pacific points and Salt Lake City, giving all an opportunity of visiting the great metropolis of Utah and indulging in the luxury of a salt water swim at the celebrated Garfield Beach; making a daylight trip through the beautiful Cache Valley and enjoying passages to view the magnificent scenery of the Snake River.

HOW CAN IT BE CURED. It is that impurity in the blood, which, according to the latest scientific research, produces unsightly lumps or swellings, which causes painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develops pimples in the eyes, nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of plagues, cancerous growths, or the many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors"; which, if neglected, leads to emaciation and death. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.
