

Local Happenings

The editor of this paper spoke kindly to Willis Stewart the other day and inquired of him why he should be suffering such a long dry spell, when rain is so much needed. We could not understand why he was not busy, but he informs us that he resigned the position of Heppner's weather prophet a year or more ago, leaving that work to Lum Gordon. The latter gentleman is away in the country looking after a band of sheep, so we have no one on the job. Willis seems to think that after serving faithfully for so many years, he should be entitled to a rest, besides there were a lot of people who apparently thought he was not doing the job up right, hence we shall have to suffer the consequences. It's a cinch that someone should get busy and order a big rain; we need it right now. The mild snow storm of Tuesday morning helps, but more moisture would be welcome.

Arnold Pieper was doing business in town on Saturday. He thinks that his family, as well as a number of their neighbors, were rather badly stung recently by a picture outfit that was here taking orders for enlargements. One bunch came along and took the orders, securing the contracts and then another party made the deliveries which were not up to the representations made by the parties making the first visit, but the scheme was so cleverly worked that those accepting the pictures had no comeback, and they are charging the cost up to "experience." It is stated that this outfit is now working over in the Yakima country.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Lundy of Rhea creek were in the city Monday. They were accompanied by Mrs. M. E. Cotter, sister of Mrs. Lundy, and this office acknowledges a pleasant visit from the ladies. Mr. and Mrs. Lundy have leased their ranch for the year to Mike Healey of Heppner, and Mr. Healey is moving out there with his family this week. Mr. and Mrs. Lundy expect to spend some time in Portland, where Mr. Lundy goes to take medical treatment. They expect to return to Morrow county later.

J. M. Humphreys, sage of Eight Mile, was doing business in Heppner on Friday. For some time past Mr. Humphreys has been suffering from rheumatism, brought on, probably, by his having to follow the harrow too steadily. Mr. Humphreys says that some precipitation is in order out his way; it will help the new grain that is coming up immensely.

J. A. Pearson and wife of Lena were in Echo over the week end and held a family reunion at the Howard Pearson home, observing the birthdays of George and Roy Pearson. Of the eight members of the family all were present except one daughter, Ella, who is in Idaho. Mr. and Mrs. Pearson returned to Lena Tuesday. — Echo News.

C. W. McNamer departed on Saturday night for Portland, being called below by the death of his brother-in-law, T. A. Ritchie, of Forest Grove, who passed away at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland late Saturday afternoon, following an illness of short duration. The funeral services were held at Forest Grove on Sunday afternoon.

George Mead and son J. C. Mead were visitors in the city Saturday. They are farming land out north of Jordan Siding and have some 250 acres of fall wheat in that is coming along very well, considering the extremely dry weather.

Fred Albert, who ranches in the Lena country, was a business visitor in this city on Friday. We hope that when the Lena-Vinson gap is completed the people out that way will be more frequent visitors in Heppner.

Mrs. Tony Garland is enjoying a visit with her relatives and numerous friends at Heppner. She is a guest at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Jones. Mrs. Garland's home is at Cuprum, Idaho.

Assessor Wells left for Portland on Friday last, and this week he is at Salem attending the meeting of the state tax commission and looking after other matters pertaining to the duties of his office.

W. P. Luttrell of Grass Valley spent several days in this city the past week, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Clark and taking in some of the pheasant shooting before the close of the season.

Troy Bogard, who recently took charge of the Claus Johnson ranch in Democrat Gulch, was a visitor here on Saturday. Fall seeding is proceeding out that way but moisture is needed.

Mrs. Arthur Keene and Mrs. Arthur Campbell were ladies visiting in the city Saturday from their homes on Social Ridge. Out that way the farmers are now quite busy with the fall seeding.

Chuck Bell was here from Pendleton Saturday, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Latourell. He is working as a mechanic with the Simpson Auto Co. at Pendleton.

Rev. Albyn Eason was up from Albany over Sunday and held services at the Christian church in this city both morning and evening. He returned to his home on Monday.

Emery Gentry and wife were over from Penedilton on Sunday. Mr. Gentry is engaged in the selling of Fords in that territory.

Wiley Wattenburger, prominent ranchman of the Pine City district, was doing business in this city on Saturday.

George Vinson, pioneer resident of Little Butter creek, was a visitor in Heppner on Saturday.

To Trade—Ford touring car and stock for Ford truck. Troy Bogard, Eight Mile, Ore.

Lawrence Redding of Eight Mile received word of the death of his father on Tuesday morning at Long Beach, Calif. The elder Mr. Redding had been sick for the past month or more. He was past 75 years of age. The remains will be shipped to Brownington, Mo., the old family home, for interment, and Lawrence departed on Tuesday afternoon to be present at the funeral. He expected to be joined by a brother at Billings, Mont., on the way east.

To the Ladies of Heppner and Morrow County: I am the representative of the Spirella Companies, makers of the Spirella Corsets, Girdles, Brassieres, Hosiery and Underwear. I have a complete line of samples, and will soon present this fine line to the ladies. Mrs. Hesis Kinney, Corsetiere, Heppner, Ore.

Dwight Misner called at this office while in the city yesterday looking after business matters. It is still dry out his way but the farmers of the Iowa country have been busy with their fall seeding and hope that rain will come soon as a boost to the grain that is now coming up nicely.

Dean T. Goodman arrived home Monday evening from The Dalles. He has been with Mrs. Goodman for the past two weeks, and reports that she is now well on the way to recovery, though it will be necessary for her to remain in the hospital for two or three weeks yet.

Ralph Finley spent a few hours in the city yesterday from his home down Alpine way. He has finished his fall seeding and the grain is coming along well. So far no moisture has fallen out that far north and Mr. Finley hopes that it may not be longer delayed.

W. P. Mahoney, John Patterson, Frank Gilliam, W. E. Pruyn, John Wightman, Dr. Fred E. Parrior and Thos. Brennan were members of Heppner Lodge No. 99, A. F. & A. M., who went to Portland on Tuesday to attend the funeral of the late C. E. Woodson.

Henry C. Ross, traveling man of Portland, spent several days in Heppner this week. While here Mr. Ross assisted the management of Peoples Hardware Co. in getting ready for the ten days sale they are now putting on at their store here.

Mrs. James Cypert has been a guest this week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Parker in this city. Mrs. Cypert is spending a couple of weeks from her home at Tacoma, visiting relatives here and at Lexington.

Oscar Keithley states that there was a small covering of snow over the Eight Mile country early Tuesday morning. It also rained some out that way, all of which helps in breaking the drought.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Howard will spend the winter at Pullman, Wash. They expect to leave for that city the coming week.

Johnie Hiatt arrived home from Portland Monday. He spent the past week in that city.

QUIZ

Editor's Note:—Through special arrangement with The Educational Book Co., N. Y., this newspaper now offers its readers this interesting feature, "QUIZ," being extracts from that book, endorsed by Eugene C. Gilmer, Director of Extension Activities, New York Board of Education. These puzzles will be found intellectual as well as instructive.

Puzzle No. 1

1 6 8

At a Halloween party, three pumpkins were brought in, numbered as the ones shown above. The largest pumpkin was offered as a prize to the boy who could arrange the pumpkins in a row so they formed a number of three figures that could be divided by eleven. How did the winner arrange the pumpkins?

Puzzle No. 2

Fill in the missing space with the proper letter, making a three letter word to meet the requirements. When rightly guessed, the central letters reading down, will spell the name of a President of the United States. You certainly should not have much trouble with this puzzle. Time allowed three minutes.

Puzzle No. 3

An Arab died and he left his seventeen camels to be divided among his three sons, so that the eldest had half of them, the next had one third, and the youngest had one ninth of them. Think it over.

Solutions will be published next week. The first five solutions received to each set of puzzles will receive ten credits; when such winner has obtained 100 credits he will be entitled to a "QUIZ CLUB" button or pin. 500 credits will entitle the winner to receive an attractive prize and also have his name printed on the honor roll.

Death Comes Suddenly To William H. Moore

William H. Moore, aged about 60 years, died suddenly late Thursday night last at his rooms in the Fair building over the postoffice. Death was caused from heart disease with which he had been afflicted for some time. Funeral services were conducted by Doric Lodge No. 20, K. of P., of which deceased was a member, at 10 o'clock Monday forenoon, burial being in Heppner cemetery.

Mr. Moore was a native of Wright county, Mo., and had lived at Heppner and vicinity for many years. He had no immediate relatives living here except a nephew, John Keyes of Eight Mile. His other relatives reside in Missouri and Texas, these being three brothers and three sisters. He also leaves a daughter whose present address is unknown.

ROAD WORK TO START.
Construction work on the Umatilla county end of the Lena-Vinson gap on the Oregon-Washington highway will begin within the next ten days, said Judge Schanep, according to Monday's East Oregonian. The contract was awarded to Logan brothers, and plans are already being made to get the equipment on the job. Camp for the job will be made about one mile above the Donald Ross place. The work is of such a nature that it can go forward during the winter months.

The BULL'S EYE

Editor and General Manager ROGERS

Another "Bull" Durham advertisement by Will Rogers, Zigfeld Folliess and screen star, and leading American humorist. More coming. Watch for them.

Who Won the War?

England and France, smoking ready made Cigarettes fought two and a half years and couldn't make the first down on Germany. Germany smoking old tow lines off Ships, Sawdust, Cabbage leaves, Horse Blankets, and second hand Gun Powder couldn't make the grade. But when Americans arrived with no equipment and no training, but plenty "Bull" Durham, and Nerve to burn it with, in Two weeks the French were trading Legion of Honor Medals for a sack of "Bull." One sack was worth two quarts of Iron Crosses. Englishmen have even been known to sacrifice their afternoon tea for a puff of "Bull" Durham. Even after the war an American private, occupying the Ruhr, went into a German Restaurant and asked for a glass of Milk. He couldn't make the Waiter understand so he drew the Picture of a Cow, and a Milk Pail. The Waiter immediately returned with a Bucket of Beer and a Sack of "Bull" Durham Tobacco. That Private was a better Artist than he thought he was.

Will Rogers

P. S.—There will be another piece here two weeks from now. Look for it.
