

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HEREIM, Correspondent.

Jess Allen, who is working on the highway at Olex, was home Sunday. Herbert McLean of Milton spent the week end with his sister, Mrs. Olive M. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Partlow and Mrs. Crushank were Hermiston visitors on Monday.

A. B. Chaffee, who was called to Long Beach, Calif., because of the illness of his mother, returned home Thursday, leaving her greatly improved. She had suffered a stroke of paralysis.

Walter Stutte and wife and Mrs. W. J. McNeil of Portland motored up on Friday evening for a visit with the Falers, the Stattes remaining until Monday and Mrs. McNeil going to Lexington for a short visit with her daughter before returning home. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schriever were guests at the Faler home on Sunday.

Nita Woodard entertained a few of her high school friends at cards on Friday evening at her home, the Highway Inn. Guests present were Helen Chaffee, Bessie Crushank, Rachel Johnson, Caroline Hunt, Delbert Johnson, Carl Ayers, Vernon Van Nostem, Weldon Ayres, and Norman Bailey. Refreshments were served.

Chas. Goodwin suffered from a severe attack of lumbago the last of the week.

Walter Knauff and family and S. Attebury and wife motored to Weston last week for seed potatoes.

Mrs. Ida Wiley of Portland visited at the Nick Faler home Wednesday. Ladies Aid met Wednesday at the Hereim home. The date for the annual bazaar was set for December 4. It was voted to have a food sale in connection with the bazaar and also a 10-cent fish pond. The bazaar will be held in the evening at the church. A short program will be given.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Garrett and Glen left Sunday for their new home in Southern Oregon. They drove through in the truck, shipping their household goods, teams, etc., on a chartered freight car. They will locate near Grants Pass. The Garretts have many friends here all of whom regret losing them.

About 40 women of the project were guests of Mrs. D. T. Ransier on Friday afternoon when she entertained in honor of her sister, Mrs. Otho Stahl of Pendleton. All had a pleasant afternoon and enjoyed the social time. An elaborate luncheon was served.

Plans are on foot to organize a Rebekah lodge in Boardman. A sufficient number have expressed their willingness to join, and further arrangements will be completed later.

Chas. Barnes is visiting in Boardman for a time, coming up from Portland last week. He brought up the T. E. Broyles car.

Mrs. Sadie Burch and son Marie visited for a short time Thursday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Hayse and family.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Stanford and family of Milton were overnight visitors recently at the R. Rands home. They were on their way to California. Mrs. Stanford and Mrs. Rands are sisters.

Chas. Attebury sold his dairy cows to a buyer from Grass Valley.

Mrs. O. H. Warner and Mrs. Chas. Goodwin were guests at the R. Rands home on Tuesday.

Boardman is ordinarily a very healthful community with a doctor's call a rare occurrence, but by a coincidence there are five out of town at present under the care of physicians or at the hospital. The Dalles hospital has had three patients from Boardman, Mrs. E. K. Mulkey, who will have an operation after a course of treatments, Maurice Goodwin who is convalescing from an operation for hernia, and Jack Gorham, who is taking radium treatments for a growth on his lower lip. Mrs. Clarence Berger is taking treatments at Portland and Adolph Skoubo is recovering from an operation last Thursday when he had his left eye removed. The week previous he suffered a painful accident when he ran a stick into his eye which penetrated the eyeball to a great depth. At first the eye specialist that he could save the eye, but it was found necessary to remove it. He is at the St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton. Good wishes to the sick and hopes for speedy recoveries are extended by the Boardman community.

Mrs. Roy Howell left Thursday for Portland after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Rands.

Alfred Skoubo visited Friday in Pendleton with his brother Adolph.

W. A. Goodwin was in The Dalles on Thursday and Friday with his son Maurice who is at the hospital.

S. Attebury has a new brooder house completed. The Atteburys are going to raise Plymouth Rocks and are now set up on the floor of our display room. There has been no change in prices. Call and see them. Latourell Auto Co.

John and Stanley Partlow, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Partlow, entertained their teachers, Miss Silver and Mrs. Wilson, at dinner. Later Mrs.

Wilson made popcorn balls and taffy which were enjoyed by all.

Nate Macomber and family motored to Pilot Rock on Armistice Day to attend the Legion celebration.

Teddy Wilson who has been sick for the past week was taken to Hermiston on Tuesday and had his tonsils lanced by Dr. Illsley. He is now much improved.

Lee Mead spent four days in The Dalles having some dental work done. L. Pardin was sent up for relief operator but was transferred to Heppner and Miss Lillian McQuade was at the key until Mr. Mead's return. He also made a flying trip to Portland.

J. W. Cobb of Walla Walla was a Boardman visitor on Wednesday.

NEW FORDS ARRIVE.

A carload of new model Fords, consisting of sedan, coupe, roadster and touring cars, arrived this week, and are now set up on the floor of our display room. There has been no change in prices. Call and see them. Latourell Auto Co.
